NORWAY AGAINST PROHIBITION

A GIRL OF 14 IS ARRESTED FOR MURDER

Charged With Shooting a Nine Year Old Negro.

CRIME WAS REVOLTING

Insanity Plea Likely to Be the Girl's Defence.

(Special cable to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 19.—Bertie Wise a fourteen year old school girl was arrested here today on charge of murder in connection with the shooting and death of Richard Logan, nine year old negro, on October 4th.

According to witnesses at the preliminary hearing the girl shot the boy with a revolver and after he had fallen in the street, dragged him beneath a tree in front of her home.

Flourishing the revolver in the face of the dying boy, she threatened to shoot him again if he did not stop his outcries, witness declared. Insanity will probably be the girl's defence.

WILL NOT NEED TO SEEK REELECTION TO THE HOUSE

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—There is no likelihood of Hon. Hugh Guthrie, the new leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, being called upon to seek re-election as such. This point has been raised in newspaper despatches and it was suggested that because a salary goes along with the leadership, Mr. Guthrie would have to vacate his seat and contest it again, as cabinet ministers do.

Arthur Beauchesne, clerk of the House of Commons, points out that the leader of the opposition works for parliament and not for the crown and, therefore, the provision in the Elections Act, that any member accepting "a position of emolument under the crown" must resign does not apply.

"It is not generally realized," said Mr. Beauchesne, "that parliament is distinct from government; parliament is separate from the crown."

The leader of the opposition apparently is really in much the same position as Mr. Speaker. He occupies a position created by parliament itself to facilitate the business of that body.

Mr. Speaker is elected by the whole house. The man appointed by the official opposition to be its leader is accepted by the whole house as leader of "His Majesty's loyal opposition" during his term of party leadership.

Sir Robert Borden and D. D. MacKenzie, both became leader of the opposition during the lifetime of a parliament and did not go back to the electorate for re-election.

American Visitors.

Visitors to Fredericton yesterday included Mr. James E. Briggs, his daughter Miss Roberta Briggs and her friend Miss Golaz, of New York, who arrived at noon by auto from their summer home at Topshfield, Maine. Mr. Briggs will remain in the province for a brief hunting trip, but the ladies of the party left for St. John today by auto en route home. Mr. Briggs became interested in salmon angling here last season, and declares that New Brunswick is going to see a lot of him in the future. His daughter and her friend spent the last summer in Europe. They purchased an auto in Italy and spent most of the time touring the country. Upon leaving for home they disposed of the car at a good price. They are planning for a canoeing and fishing trip in New Brunswick next season.

N. B. MAN WAS IN CHARGE OF MISSING BOAT

Quincy, Oct. 18.—Capt. John H. Pratt commander of the steamship Haleakala, which has been missing since Sept. 3, was a resident of this city. When off sea duty he made his home with his son, Harvey G. Pratt of 7 Allerton st. The son said today that nothing had been heard from his father. He said he knew his father's ship had a deckload of American locomotives and he felt if the ship ran into the storm which did so much damage to the Florida shore resorts, there was little chance for a ship so loaded to weather the gale.

Capt. Pratt was a native of St. John N. B. He was in the employ of the Dominion Government for 20 years. When he came to the States he was in the employ of the United Fruit Company for a while. He was made second officer of the steamship Kilpatrick, plying between Galveston, Tex., and Vera Cruz, Mexico. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias.

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF N. Y. OPPOSED TO ROYALTY

Thinks American Officials From President Coolidge Down are Carrying Their Welcome to the Queen of Roumania Altogether Too Far—Roumania Called the Most Corruptly Governed Country in Europe.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The socialist candidate for the governor of New York, Judge Jacobs Panken, thinks the officials of the city and state of New York and of the nation are carrying their welcome to Queen Marie of Roumania altogether too far.

He termed the behavior of these American officials, from Pres. Coolidge on down, as "maudlin genuflections" and undue zest in grovelling before the Queen of the most corruptly governed country of Europe." The socialist candidate was especially critical of Governor Smith and Mayor Walker "who boast of their rise from the sidewalks of New York."

"Our American traditions of liberty have more in common with the democrats and socialists who are in jail as political prisoners in Roumania, than with the ruling queen of that country", the judge declared.

The others have all paid their fines excepting J. H. Michaud, against whom a conviction was entered by default of appearance and a warrant issued.

PROHIBITION DEFEATED IN NORWAY

Way Paved for Removal of the Last Vestige of It.

PLEBISCITE WAS TAKEN

Electors Vote to Remove Ban on Spirituous Liquors.

(Special cable to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

Oslo, Norway, Oct. 19.—Norway defeated Prohibition in the national plebiscite yesterday it became known today after tabulation of the vote.

As a result the way is paved for the removal in Norway of the last vestige of prohibition, as early as last night prohibitionists conceded they lost 90,000 votes which ordinarily they would have gotten. The referendum was to decide whether the ban of spirituous liquors, the only dry law remaining from a more comprehensive prohibition enacted in 1904, was to be continued.

SPORTING CAMP ON THE SEVOGLE RIVER BURNED

Newcastle, Oct. 18.—Major Hardy of London, England had a sorrowful experience on Saturday morning while on a hunting expedition at the camp of H. A. Caesar, of New York on the Sevoogle River. While out in the woods with the guide, quite a distance from the camp, Major Hardy and his escort heard what seemed to be a heavy muffled explosion, but neither of them felt any alarm at the time. Arriving back at the site of the camp they were amazed to find the whole place in ruins from fire. Everything belonging to the major and the guides were lost and the camp, which was a valuable one, was totally destroyed.

The loss to Major Hardy is an embarrassing one as his identification passport, steamship ticket, clothing apparel, etc., were lost. He arrived in Newcastle today very much like a refugee and departed for Montreal on the westbound limited.

It is not known what caused the fire at the camp. There was nobody in it at the time nor was there anyone near it. It is thought that in some way a smouldering ember dropped from the stove and ignited combustible material nearby.
