JUBBULPORE HOLDS A VERY HIGH PLACE IN INDIA'S TRADE

"That dancing girls play a prominent role in the courts of many rulers of India's native states, is indicated by recent reports from Jubbulpore, where Maharajah Zarawal agreed to increase the pay of his court dancers, thus ending a six-months' strike and relieving him of embarrassment by the failure of these entertainers to perform at state ceremonies," says a bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographical Society.

"Maharajah Zarawal is one of the scores of Indian princes who are real potentates in their native states, ruling with a free hand except in cases of punishment for murder, which usually require confirmation by the British authorities. Fifteen of these states are included in the Central Provinces where Jubbulpore is located, therefore there are fifteen native potentates and fifteen royal courts.

Important Commercial Centre.

"Commercially, Jubbulpore is one of the important inland cities of India," continues the bulletin. "The Great Indian Peninsula and East Indian railways meet here, linking the two largest cities of the Empire—Bombay, six hundred and sixteen miles to the southwest, and Calcutta, seven hundred and eighty miles almost due east. Branch lines of these railways, narrow-gauge railways, and numerous trade routes radiate from Jubbulpore, causing a continuous flow of produce from the outlying districts into the city for local consumption, milling, and shipment to the coast for export to foreign markets.

"Wheat fields along these roads are unique. During the rainy season the wheat-growing regions resemble a series of shallow lakes. Banks are built around the fields to retain the water which is not released until two weeks before the grain is sown. By this method the farmer has no weeds to fight; the cost of cultivating is decreased; and the success of the crops is not in danger of a drought, since the ground holds sufficient moisture.

"Jubbulpore is a well laid out city with broad streets and numerous municipal gardens. Although it lies slightly farther north of the Equator than Tampico, Mexico, the cool climate makes it one of the most desirable cities in the Central Provinces, due to the fact it is more than 1300 feet above sea level.

"The Indian city is the second largest in the Provinces, with a population slightly less than Canton, Ohio. This includes the British and native soldiers garrisoned there in a large cantonment; for Jubbulpore is the headquarters of government military forces in this district.

"Most of the working class of Jubbulpore's inhabitants are employed in spinning, weaving, and flour mills, and the shops of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway. Others are occupied in local handicrafts, such as brass-working, stone-cutting, and the manufacture of images and ornaments of marble and agate. The prisoners in the provincial jail in Jubbulpore weave cloth and Scotch and Kidderminster carpets for sale.

Thugs Once Confined There.

"The Thugs, a religious band of assassins and their descendants were confined in Jubbulpore, after they had terrorized all India more than 700 years. They worshipped Kali, the Hindu goddess of destruction, and murder for gain was a religious duty. They won the confidence of the well-to-do wayfarer and sometimes accompanied or followed their intended victim hundreds of miles for the best opportunity to strangle him to death with a handkerchief. Then the murderer would perform rites in honor of the Thug deity, and set aside a portion of the spoils for her.

"Owing to the religious garb in which the Thugs shrouded their activities and their thorough secret organization, the Hindu and Mohammedan rulers of India were unable to suppress them. But the British finally succeeded, by a well-organized campaign in rounding them up and unmasking their system."

Of Interest to the Women

FASHION APPROACHES JUNGLE GREEN.

At the present moment green is simply another word for chic. Not in many years has this color been so conspicuously exploited. That it has been taken up by really smart women is evidenced in the number of green costumes worn at the various social affairs which open the season.

Vivid tones of green frequently combined with gold lame are chosen for evening frocks but for daytime wear the prevailing tone is a soft shade with considerable gray in its coloring.

STYLES IN SLIPPERS NEVER MORE VARIED.

Styles in slippers seen about New York were never more varied. They are made from almost any material or leather—velvet in light shades, brocade, metal cloth and reptile skins. The heels of evening slippers are works of art. Brilliant studs or brilliant colored leather inserts add variety. Some of these gorgeous heels—they look as though they belonged in the window of a jewelry shop—cost as much as a gown.

EASILY MADE CAKES TO PLEASE LOVER OF SWEETS.

To make sugar gingerbread take one pound of flour, three fourths pound of sugar, half a pound of butter, five eggs. Roll out very thin on flat tins. Do not grease the tins but when baked slip off the tins with a knife. Bake in a quick oven.

AN EASY SUPPER CAKE.

One cupful of sweet milk, one cupful of white sugar, half a cupful of butter, one egg, half a teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar and flour enough to make similar to a soft gingerbread. Flavor with the juice of a lemon. Bake in a moderate oven. This recipe will make a good sized loaf.

WHIG CAKE.

Mix six ounces of butter with half a pound of sugar, two eggs and one teaspoonful of cinnamon. Stir in two pounds of flour, one teacupful of yeast and milk enough to make a stiff batter. When light bake in cups in a moderate oven.

PIE AND PUDDING.

An old auntie noted for her squash pies has given me the following recipe: For two pies take two cups of squash pulp, a cup and two thirds of sugar, one teaspoon of nutmeg one and one half teaspoons of cinnamon, the same quantity of powdered ginger, one half a teaspoon of salt, two beaten eggs the grated rind of one lemon, eight tablespoons of cream and three cups of scalded milk. Mix thoroughly and fill into pastry lined tins which have a narrow piece of the pastry around the edge.

COSTIVE BOWELS, HEADACHE, COLDS, TAKE CASCARETS

No Headache, Sour Stomach, Bad Cold or Constipation by Morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and closed bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

A JELLIED SALAD.

A colorful salad is made by soaking one and a half tablespoons of gelatin in a fourth of a cup of cold water, then dissolve by setting in a pan of hot water. When dissolved add two cups of water, two table-spoons of lemon juice, a little salt, a quarter of a cup of sugar and half a cup of finely grated squash. Put this mixture into molds and chill and serve with mayonnaise dressing. Squash also combines well with chopped celery and nuts in salad.

SWEET PATTIES.

Squash patties make a very pretty and delicious dish for the sweet course. To one quart of thoroughly strained stewed squash add half a teaspoon of nutmeg—half a cup of sugar, half a cup of finely chopped dates, half a cup of whipped cream and the whites of two eggs stiffly beaten. Have ready ten pastry tartlet cases, fill with the mixture and bake fifteen minutes. Ornament the tops of each with chopped crystallized ginger.

"Is it true, daddy, that there are women inventors, too?"

"I should think so! You will find that out at every tea party."
