Schools Closed this Morning For Christmas Vacation

Seasonable Weather and Christmas the Keynote of All School Entertainments—Combined
Exercises on Ambitious Scale in Some Schools
— Certificates Presented — Attendance Records.

With weather bright and cold and most seasonable the public schools closed today for the Christmas vacation. The holidays come early, more than a week before Christmas Day, and the schools will reopen early, two days after New Year's Day. As usual the exercises in the schools of the city and Devon attracted large numbers of interested people this morning. Ordinary school work was reviewed in many departments but in the majority the session was devoted to special exercises in which the rapid approach of Christmas was the basis of the various songs, dialogues and readings.

The presentation of certificates as usual was a feature. The complete list of certificate-winners is to be found elsewhere in this issue of The Daily Mail.

MODEL SCHOOL.

Combined Exercises in Normal School
Assembly Hall—Fine Program.

The half-yearly closing of the Model School took place this morning. During the first period a review of school work was conducted in each department. At eleven o'clock a combined program was carried out in the Assembly Hall of the Normal School. The program followed was:—

The Children Will Catch Cold

Mothers should never neglect the first sign of a cold or cough where their children are concerned, for if they do some serious lung trouble is liable to follow.

Mrs. R. T. Hubby, 1022 Barrington St., Halifax, N.S., writes:—"The children are continually getting colds, but I have no trouble with them, for just as soon as they begin to cough I give them a dose of

Dr. Wood's
Norway
Pine

which breaks up the cold within a day or so. I get great results out of it and would not be without it for anything. I can highly recommend it to any one."

Price 35c. a bottle; large family size 60c.; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
