EXCITING TIME IS LOOKED FOR IN PARLIAMENT

A Vote on the Stevens Amendment to be Taken.

DIVISION WILL BE VERY CLOSE

Fate of the Government Hangs in the Balance.

(Special to The Daily Mail.)

Ottawa, June 28.—Week-end caucus did little to relieve the high tension which has characterized political affairs here for several days past. The re-assembling of the House this afternoon will find members of the two old parties ready for the fray with unbroken ranks, but with members of the Progressive group wavering. It was stated this morning that Mr.
Coole and Miss MacPhail who were paired on Saturday would both vote against the Stevens amendment to the Customs report, and should this happen there is likely to be a tie, which would give Speaker Lemieux the casting vote. This would ensure the defeat of the amendment and the adoption of the report, but the position of the Government would still be precarious.

The present situation has been likened to the condition of affairs which existed during the memorable session of 1896 when the remedial bill was under consideration. The Government then had a substantial majority, but could make no headway with its legislation and dissolution was the result. It is expected that the same thing will happen on the present occasion.

Stevens Amendment.

The full text of the Stevens Amendment which is to be voted upon today, is as follows:

"That the report be not now adopted, but that it be referred back to the Special Committee with instructions to add thereto the following clauses and subclauses to Paragraph 6:

"The evidence further discloses that Ministerial action has been influenced by the improper pressure of political associates and the friends of the Minister, administering the department, resulting in the suspension, and in some instances the abandonment, of prosecutions against those charged with violation of the statutes, and in the loss of revenue to the country.
Moreover, successful appeals have been made to the Minister and According Minister administering the department to improperly interfere with the course of justice between the conviction of the offenders and the execution of judgment thereon. The Prime Minister and the Government had knowledge for some considerable time of the rapid degeneration of the Department of Customs and Excise, and their failure to take prompt and effective remedial action is wholly indefensible. The conduct of the present Minister of the department, the Hon. G. H. Boivin, in the case of Moses Aziz is utterly unjustifiable.

"Your committee deprecates the practice, as revealed by the evidence, of certain men influential in public life to direct appeals to the Minister to relax and depart from the proper administration of his department for reasons of political expediency.

"Your committee is of the opinion that this factor is detrimental to the best interests of the country, and is prejudicial to the administration of the department.

"And that the committee, for such purpose, be revived."

WILL NOT RISK FAMOUS PAINTING MONA LISA ON TOUR OF UNITED STATES

Wealthy Americans Were Anxious to Have the Painting Exhibited — Proceeds Would Be Used to Build Up the Depleted Treasury of France—Novel Proposal Was Refused.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

PARIS, June 28.—It is understood that Leonardo De Vincis "Mona Lisa" will not be taken on tour to the United States, although the object of the suggested tour would be the building up of France's sorely depleted treasury.

Paul Leon, director of the fine arts department is said to have refused a novel proposal of a group of wealthy Americans that the valuable picture be taken to the United States and exhibited in the leading cities of that country, with the understanding that a percentage of the receipts from admission charged would be given to France.

Leon is understood to have told the Americans that no amount of money would compensate France for the risks of fire, water, thefts, substitution or damage involved in transportation of the picture.

emerged from the cab. "Don't thank

Amsterdam, Holland, June 28.— Queen Wilhelmina prefers to enjoy her summer vacation in strict retirement. She never allows to be made known in advance where she is going.

Accompanied by Princess Juliana, both dressed in simple traveling costumes, she left Holland the other evening for an unannounced destination. She was attended only by a small suite.

It is now learned that they went to the French Savoy. Later they will reside in Switzerland where the prince consort Henry will join them.
