

GOOD ADVICE HANDED OUT TO TOURISTS

U. S. People Advised Not to Wave Flag in Canada.

HAS CAUSED IRRITATION
More Than Courtesy to a Friendly People Involved.

(Special to the Daily Mail by British United Press)

Washington, June 19—American tourists were advised by the American Automobile Association not to wave the Stars and Stripes indiscriminately from their cars in Canada.

"This practice has caused needless irritation, hurt Canadian sensibilities and resulted in some untoward incidents," the Association warned.

"Something more than courtesy to a friendly and hospitable people is involved. When you fly your flag in a foreign country you should fly it only with the flag of the nation whose guest you are and under whose protection you are travelling."

MRS. JOHN HARVEY PRESIDENT OF THE N. B. W. I. FOR YEAR

Convention Closed Friday Afternoon—Forest and Game Products Basis of Exhibit at Toronto.

The New Brunswick Women's Institutes concluded their fourteenth convention here Friday afternoon. Mrs. John Harvey of Fredericton, was elected president, succeeding the late Mrs. C. J. Osman of Hillsboro, who died during the past year. Mrs. Harvey, as vice-president, performed the duties of office during the year. Mrs. Herbert Read, of Stonehaven, was elected secretary. The Federal representatives are Mrs. Alex. Ogilvy of South Tilley, and Mrs. Charles Combien, of Woodstock. Provincial conveners of standing committees are to be selected by the advisory board from names suggested by the convention.

It was decided to make an exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto next autumn. New Brunswick's game and forest products are to be the basis of the exhibit, which will be in charge of Miss Elizabeth Nutter, Superintendent of Women's Institutes. Miss Nutter will name someone else if unable to attend herself. A committee to assist her will be named.

The constitution and by-laws of the district convention, which are to be organized, were adopted.

SERIOUS FIRE YESTERDAY AT MATAPEDIA, P.Q.

Quebec, June 18—Edouard Guidry, 84, of Campbellton, is dead, and damage, estimated around $150,000, was received when fire partially wiped out the business section of the village of Matapedia, Que., about 300 miles from here, and 13 miles from Campbellton, N. B., on the New Brunswick border today.

Fifteen families were rendered homeless and in addition to the Roman Catholic Church, two Protestant churches were destroyed. The Post Office, the Hotel Restigouche, and the stores of Ryan and Adam were burned to the ground.

K. Adam, son of mayor, was taken to the hospital, suffering from injuries received while fighting the fire.

Twenty other buildings also fell prey to the flames. Guidry lost his life when he re-entered his burning home to try and save some of his effects.

A LOVE AFFAIR CAUSED ACTRESS TO END HER LIFE

Ann Arbor Swallowed Twenty-five Poison Tablets.

SAID THAT SHE WANTED TO DIE

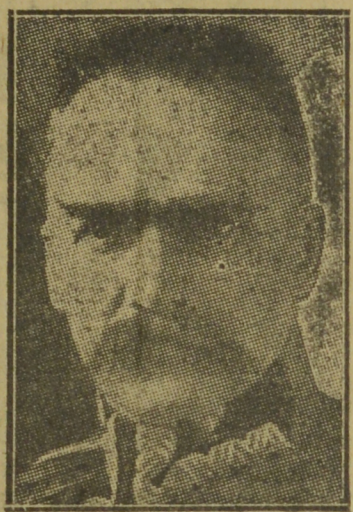

Screamed as the Doctor Tried to Save Her Life.

(Special to the Daily Mail by British United Press)

New York, June 19—Fighting doctors who worked to save her, Ann Austin, an actress, died last night an hour after she had swallowed twenty-five poison tablets.

"Let me alone. I want to die," she screamed as the doctors worked over her. She left a note blaming a love affair for her act.

Miss Austin was 23 and had appeared in several Broadway productions.

PREFERS TO BE DICTATOR

Marshal Pilsudski, who led the successful revolt in Poland and refused the Presidency because, under the constitution, it would confer very limited power upon him, is now virtually dictator of the country, but lives in constant dread of assassination.

EX-QUEEN OF GREECE EXPIRED SUDDENLY AT HER VILLA TODAY

Had Been in Good Health and Her Death Came as a Shock to Her Family—Was the Consort of the Late King Constantine, Who Was Driven Into Exile.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

ROME, June 19—Former Queen Olga of Greece died suddenly at her villa here today.

Her death came as a shock to her family, as she had been in the best of health.

Queen Olga was the wife of the late King Constantine and mother of King George, who succeeded his father on the throne when Constantine was driven from Greece in revolution coup and forced to take refuge in Italy where he died.

Born in 1851, Olga was a Russian Grand Duchess before her marriage to Constantine in St. Petersburg, now Leningrad in 1867.

DEBATE ON CUSTOMS REPORT IS EXPECTED TO BE LIVELY ONE

Ottawa, June 18—Tabling of the report from the committee which investigated the administration of the Department of Customs and Excise today is preliminary to what may prove one of the bitterest debates of the present session of Parliament.

A motion for the adoption of the report it is expected will be made in the House by Chairman Paul Mercier on Tuesday. There is a possibility that the debate may open on Monday but this is not regarded as likely.

The report, with its numerous recommendations, is the chief topic of discussion in Parliamentary circles tonight. Involving as it does, censure of the former Minister of Customs as well as the recommendation for the retirement and dismissal of a number of prominent officials of the Department of Customs, it has aroused widespread interest.

The recommendations for the suppression of smuggling follow in certain respects, suggestions made to the committee by the Commercial Protective Association and that they will meet with general approval when the discussion takes place in the house is regarded as likely.

May Move Amendment.

A Conservative amendment involving censure of Hon. G. H. Boivin Minister of Customs will it is stated, be moved during the debate. The action taken by Mr. Boivin in connection with the Moses Aziz case in New Brunswick was the subject of disagreement among the members of the committee while the report was under consideration. In order that the report should be unanimous however it was determined to leave this contentious matter to the House of Commons. It is expected that the amendment will be moved by Hon. H. H. Stevens, who made the original charges resulting in the appointment of the committee and who has been active throughout the sittings, or by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader.

Second Motion Talked Of.

The possibility of a second amendment

LARGE NUMBER OF CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD

Edmonton, June 18—The keen interest which has been displayed in the preliminary skirmishes in the Alberta provincial election fight resulted in the nomination today of a record number of candidates to contest the 60 constituencies in the provincial elections June 28. With few exceptions the nominations followed the choices made at conventions in the constituencies earlier in the month. There will be an exceptional number of three-cornered contests. All parties were well represented in nominations today and while the list is incomplete early tonight indications were that the Conservatives had nominated 59 candidates the Liberals and an almost equal number and the United Farmers of Alberta only a few less.

The United Farmers of Alberta's Government headed by Premier J. E. Brownlee is seeking re-election on its record after a five-year term of office. Premier Brownlee is heading an election fight as head of the Government for the first time. Premier Herbert Greenfield headed the U. S. A. ministry from its inception until last fall, when he retired from politics and the then Attorney-General, J. E. Brownlee, was chosen to succeed him.

In addition to the three major parties, Labor and Independents have candidates in a number of ridings.

To Herbert Smith, President of the British Miners' Federation, who is attending an international miners' meeting in Brussels, has been despatched a letter from the Mine Owners' Association with the suggestion that a small committee representing both sides shall hold a conference in an endeavor to end the deadlock. The proposal has the Government's approval.

BIG FUND FOR PROMOTION OF AERNAUTICS

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

New York, June 19—Prizes of from $150,000 to $200,000 will be offered by the Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the promotion of Aeronautics for inventions increasing the safety of flying. The fund amounting to $2,500,000 is to be concentrated on devices which lessen the risk of air travel.

A BLUECOAT AS TOREADOR DOWNS BULL

New York, June 19—A lone police man rode hard and captured a rambunctious steer which escaped from a West Thirty-fourth street slaughter house today and injured one man and butted a taxicab before it was corralled.

Patrolman Lempke was the toreador in the miniature bull fight. He waved his coat at the steer in the approved fashion and finally succeeded in getting in the animal's range and took it captive. George Wheeler was treated for abrasions of the right arm and lacerations of the hip as a result of his encounter with the steer. The taxicab suffered minor dents.

W. F. Robb of St. John is registered at the Windsor.

U. S. REPORT ON THE TRADE OF CANADA

Foreign Commerce Was the Largest Since the War.

BALANCE WAS FAVORABLE

The Increase was Largely with European Countries.

(Special to the DAILY MAIL by the British United Press)

Washington, June 19—Canada showed a greater foreign trade during the year ending May 31st, than at any time since the war, the Commerce department reported today.

Exports from Canada last year totalled $1,315,192,792 while imports totalled $927,402,732, giving the Dominion a favorable trade balance of more than $400,000,000. The increase was due to large volume of trade with Japan, China, Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Norway rather than an advance in trade with the United States and the United Kingdom, the two principal Canadian customers.

GIVEN STIFF SENTENCE.

Thirty Days in Gaol For Operating Motor Vehicle While Intoxicated.

Another stiff gaol sentence was imposed Friday in the police court by Magistrate Limerick for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated when a resident of a neighboring place was sent to gaol for thirty days. Liquor Sub-inspector J. Duff King arrested the man on King street and took him to the police station. He appeared in the police court shortly afterward. His denial of being under the influence of intoxicating liquor was not accepted and conviction was made. The offence is one which always draws a severe penalty in the Fredericton police court.

Injured by Car.

Ralph Campbell of Devon son of late Donald Campbell met with painful injuries Friday night on the highway bridge. He stepped off the sidewalk just as the car operated by William Walker of this city approached. The boy was struck by the car and in falling struck his head against one of the lamps sustaining some severe cuts. He was taken to Victoria Hospital where his injuries received attention. Today he is reported resting comfortably with cuts about the head the most serious in jury.

Caught Big Sturgeon.

Telegraph-Journal: A large sturgeon weighing 123 pounds was brought to the city yesterday by George Tyner, of Chance Harbor, who had caught the monster fish in his weir net. It was purchased by M. H. McCavour, fish dealer, of 31 South wharf, who will ship it on the Boston train tonight for New York, where it is sure of a ready market, being highly esteemed as a delicacy. Sturgeon are rarely caught and it is not often that so large a fish is brought in. The one which Mr. McCavour now has measures seven feet three inches in length and at its greatest width is three feet in circumference.
