SPORTS ARE SANCTIFIED IN COLORED GLASS

Cathedral of Saint John the Divine Will Have Magnificent Window
Typifying Many of the Sports.

It is proposed to sanctify sports in the great Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York city. To that end one of the bays on the side of the nave is to be dedicated to those sports which have been recognized as influences for the health and welfare of the people and as a stimulus in the national life.

When Bishop William T. Manning announced that sports were to be so recognized in the general scheme of memorial decoration in the cathedral many people thought he was joking. But it is no joke. He is serious in his desire that sports shall be so recognized in the cathedral. And there is nothing sectarian in his vision of sports. He aims to have the athletic activities of ancient and modern Nations, regardless of creed, included in the decorative scheme for this bay.

Window Honors Sports.

Already a design for a sports stained-glass window has been submitted to Bishop Manning by the architect of the Cathedral, Ralph Adams Cram of this city. It is a gothic window, with a rose top and two pointed panels.

In the rose at the top which is seven feet by seven feet, an angel is shown crowning a victor with laurel. It is very similar in design to that on the medal struck off for the 194 Olympic games held in Paris. (And by the way the Olympic games of the ancient Greeks were religious in origin.) The six circles around the central design of the rose contain coats of arms. In the triangles at the right and left are symbolic figures—one in the act of running, the other of jumping.

On the two pointed panels which are each 13 feet high and six feet wide, 26 sports have been symbolized. In the central line of each panel four major sports have been symbolized in large circles. Then on either side come eight sports in half-circle and one at the bottom in a half-circle.

Sculpture Also Planned.

In the left hand panel the four major sports are polo, golf, tennis and baseball. In the half circle on the side are: steeplechase, cycling, basket ball, swimming, gymnastics, yachting and bowling. At the bottom is billiards.

In the right hand panel the four major sports are horse-racing, rowing, track and field sports and football. On the side are skating, hockey, soccer, fencing, wrestling, pole vaulting, boxing, and trap-shooting. At the bottom is motor boating.

Of course the window is only part of the general scheme of memorial decoration for this athletic bay. It will also contain much in the way of sculpture. There is a precedent for the window in a 15th century Cathedral at St. Leon, Spain. That window portrays a great number of sports peculiar to the age. Among them are: hawking and boar-hunting.

It is probable that the memory of some of the great names in athletic from ancient times to the present will be perpetuated in this bay. Among these will probably be the great Greek runner Coroebus of Eli who at the Olympiad of 776 B. C., set a record which endured for centuries. Then there is Pheidippides who fell dead after his great run carrying the tidings of victory from Marathon to Athens. And there are other famous athletes of ancient times.

But the chief interest will center around those who have been famous in the sports and games of modern times and there are so many of these that it will be difficult to pick and choose without seeming an invidious.

Joseph Earlam, who made the world's amateur billiard run of 435 at Liverpool recently, has decided to turn professional.

WANTS SUZANNE DECLARED WORK OF NATIONAL ART

French Press Does Not Like Rumor of Her Wedding the Duke of Westminster.

Paris, Feb. 10—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen ought to be classed as a national monument to prevent her exportation, says a sports writer in Liberte, while expressing the alarm felt at the report of her engagement to the Duke of Westminster, which is said to be true and that she is about to be lost to France.

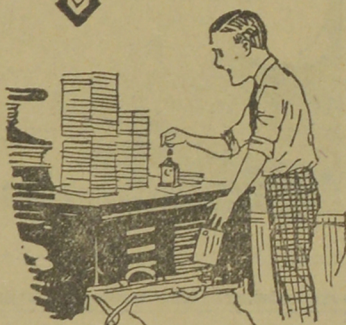

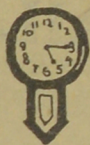

"It is just like the English who want the best in everything—best seats on the train, best rooms in the hotels—to want to annex the best tennis player," says Liberte. "If this thing goes through we will be forced to read in the newspapers that the 'Duchess of Westminster' has again triumphed over the French. Something must be done. Why not officially class Mlle. Suzanne as an art object, or a historic monument, or a secret essential to national defense—anything to prevent her from playing under the British flag?"

"This marriage is nothing short of treason."

SOO TEAM TO PLAY IN DETROIT

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 10—Failure of Bill Phillips of the Canadian Soo team as well as other members of that sextet, to turn professional when offered large salaries has caused a good deal of speculation in the Canal Town. The New York Knickerbocker Hockey Club had arranged to transfer the entire lot to Gotham, but that deal went down, too. Up at the Soo the explanation is advanced that George McNamara, coach of the team, has closed with Detroit interests to take the team to the Michigan metropolis next season, where it will be a member of the pro league. The statement is made that the Detroit people have been assured a franchise in the professional circuit, whether it be the present Calder loop, an enlargement of that wheel, or the threatened all-United States League.

BLUNDERS

WHY IS THIS WRONG?

When mail is allowed to accumulate in offices until closing time, it not only places an additional burden on the postal service, but is apt to miss important early afternoon train dispatches. This often causes a whole day's delay in delivery. Mail should be posted as soon as it is ready, and at frequent periods of the day.

JENNY H. SAID TO BE READY FOR THE BEST

Billy Keys to Have Her Again to Go Against the Big Free-For-All Material.

Aubrey Rodney has advised owner W. L. Eaton of Calais, Me., that he considers Jenny H., 2:05 1/2, good enough to race against the "down East" cracks and it is likely that the chestnut mare will go back into the stable of her former trainer, Billy Keys, at St. Stephen, N. B.

Charley Mason likes his star fast record pupil, Ribbon Cane, 2:01 3/4, very much, and reports her taking her winter work nicely.

Auto Pace, John S., Glen P., King Ashbourne and the other entries are all quartered in "Red" Hanafin's stable.

There are a dozen 2-year-olds among the 42 head in the Murphy stable at Macon, Ga.

The American Trotting Association reports 1400 race tracks in use in this country devoted to light harness horse racing, and at only 50, less than 4 per cent. does speculation prevail.

Franz Simmons is wintering a dozen head at his home stable in Rock land, Me. He will be at the Lewiston track early in the Spring.

Chestnut Earl, the two-year-old by Chestnut Peter out of the dam of Baron Worthy, 2:01, is not to be raced this season.

Dr. P. F. Wallingford is spending the winter making a round of the Southern training camps. This week he is at Macon, Ga., where he will look after the teeth of the horses in the Murphy stable.

Frank Worthy, 2:03 1/4, a winning pacer on the Grand Circuit last year, has been shifted back to the trot, at which gait he raced to a record of 2:12 1/4 over a double-O, in 1923.

MORE FEELING OUT OF MINOR PRO HOCKEY

Montreal, Feb. 10—In an effort to stimulate interest in the proposed new minor professional hockey league which is being boosted to get underway next season, more games between the substitute rosters of the teams in the National Hockey League may be played in the near future. The substitutes of the Canadian and Montreal Clubs demonstrated last week that plenty of good hockey can be dished up by the reserve players or the pro teams.

If the New York club which plays Montreal on Saturday at the Forum, arrives here at an early enough date this week it is quite likely that a game will be played between the reserves of the two clubs, possibly on Thursday night at the Forum or the Arena.

To feel out the situation in Quebec City for a minor pro. berth, a game between the substitutes of two teams may be played in the citadel before the season is over. Canadiens and New York, it is rumored, are also contemplating a game in Quebec before the end of the winter.

ODDS AGAINST MISS WILLS ARE GROWING BETTER

Cannes, France, Feb. 10—Betting odds that Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis queen, defeats Miss Helen Wills if they meet in the final round of the Carlton tournament are being battered down by the consistent improvement in the game of the young American champion.

After Miss Wills had made her first appearance on the Riviera, odds of ten to one and better were offered that Mlle. Lenglen would overwhelm her. But today the odds had dropped to five to one, and the Lenglen fans were beginning to have their first serious doubts.

PICTURE RIGHTS OF TENNIS PLAY COST $100,000

Helen Wills and Suzanne Lenglen Will be in Movies—Camera
Men Already Excluded.

Cannes, France, Feb. 10—The exclusive right to take motion pictures of the expected match between Helen Wills and Suzanne Lenglen in the finals of the Carlton tournament has been sold to an American producer for a consideration reported to run over the $100,000 mark. American camera men were informed of this today when they were refused admittance to the match.

"This is a plain business proposition," said Thomas Burke, brother of the professional world champion tennis player, Albert Burke who is handling the financial affairs of the Carlton tennis tournament. He said no pictures could be taken without the approval of the concessionaire.

"That's news to me," was Miss Wills' comment.

"I never bother about moving pictures," said Mlle. Lenglen.

MCQUILLAN DROPS ACTION AGAINST GIANTS

New York, Feb. 11—The New York Giants have announced an agreement with pitcher Hugh McQuillan under which the latter has consented to discontinue a suit for unpaid salary in connection with his suspension last year. McQuillan also has come to terms for the 1926 season and will go South with other players, Feb. 18.

McQuillan, one of the leading pitchers of the National League in 1924 was suspended by Manager John McGraw July 1 1925 for failure to keep in proper condition. He entered suit last August to recover $2038.45 which he claimed was due him as salary.

CAMPBELL GOT STIFF FINE

New York, Feb. 10—Earl "Spiff" Campbell, substitute forward on the New York professional hockey club, has been reinstated after paying a fine of $200, it was announced today. Joe Simpson, defence player, is still under suspension, and the management has decided to shift Billy Burch back on the defence for tonight's game against Boston. Bouchard will play centre, flanked by the Green brothers.

She Could Hardly Do Her Housework Nerves Were So Bad

Mrs. I. M. Parks, Concession, Ont., writes:—"I had heart and nerve trouble, and became so short of breath I could hardly do my daily housework, and was so nervous I could not think of staying alone, as every little sound I heard felt like a shock to me."

I Saw

This preparation has been on the market for the past 32 years and has achieved a wonderful reputation for the relief of all heart and nerve troubles. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
