MR. DUFF, M. P., DISCUSSED MARITIME PROBLEMS; SAYS LARGER MARKETS ARE NEEDED

Montreal, Feb. 28—William Duff, M. P., Lunenburg, told the Reform Club here Saturday that there are four big Maritime problems. Mr. Duff asked the sympathetic consideration of the big Central provinces in order that they may be wholly or partly solved.

The four problems are the need for wider markets, the development of national resources the intensification of the fisheries industry and the necessity for immigration. The destiny of Nova Scotia said the member for Lunenburg is on the seat and in order that the shipping industry may prosper it is essential that wider markets in foreign fields principally in the United States and the West Indies, be found.

It is impossible to ship the million barrels of Annapolis Valley apples to Ontario or Quebec and equally impossible to dispose of lumber from the Maritimes in the central provinces. The same applies to potatoes and fish, so that the bulk of these products must go to foreign markets.

Cooking Plants Urged.

Discussing the development of natural resources, Mr. Duff warmly advocated government establishment of coking plants along the national waterway from Prince Edward Island-Pictou-Montreal. The solution of the many recent strike problems and the disposal of Nova Scotia coal would be this establishment of coking plants which would preserve the fuel.

As to the problems of the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Duff said that lower freight rates would scarcely help the situation.

Opposes Maritime Rights.

"Maritime rights" is a misnomer, said Mr. Duff.

"That expression," said Mr. Duff, "is unjust and incorrect. The Maritime Provinces are in Confederation for good or for ill, and when we read in the newspapers of secession there is nothing in it. Nova Scotia is the confederation now and always will remain loyal."

Share Must Be Taken.

"Nova Scotia cannot expect different treatment from any of the other provinces and must take its share of building up the whole of Canada. The Maritime rights talk has been a live issue for some years."

It was the Conservative, claimed Mr. Duff, who took the Intercolonial Railway away from the Maritimes.

He added that he was not in favor of aving the Intercolonial as a separate entity and declared that he was a big enough Canadian to realize that nothing good could be obtained by separating the I. C. R. from the Canadian National Railroads.

TERN SCHOONER BATTERED BY HEAVY GALES

Fredericton Boy One of the Crew of Catherine M. Moulton, Now at Halifax.

(Halifax Chronicle.)

The tern schooner Catherine M. Moulton, Captain Skinner, arrived on Thursday night from sea with a part cargo of goods on board, and anchored in the stream. The vessel sailed from Halifax on January 20 for Havana, and much anxiety had been expressed for her safety as no word had been received from the time she sailed until she returned.

On arrival the schooner was badly iced up and had her fore boom smashed, and the masts were badly shaken in gales. The deck-house amidship is partly stove in, and the vessel bears many marks of the fury of the storms she has passed through. She will have to be repaired before again putting to sea.

Yesterday she docked at Pickford and Black's wharf to take on stores, later moving to an anchorage in the stream.

(Capt. Skinner is a brother of Mrs. Raymond M. Currie of this city and her eldest son, Paul Currie, a former student of the Fredericton High School, is a member of the crew. It was Capt. Skinner's first experience as master of a ship, he having only recently taken his final examinations. The captain is a soldier as well as a sailor. He served in the great war as a member of the Newfoundland regiment, and spent two years in a German prison camp.)

Rap—So that last cold spell made you wish you had your old plug horse back again?

Rapper—Yes. I never had to pour hot water on him to start him off!

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS TO BE CONTINUED

Premier King Expected to Take His Seat Some Time This Week.

Ottawa, Feb. 28—Parliament enters the eighth week of the present session tomorrow with the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne still dragging. There is no immediate prospect of a vote and the adjournment until March 15 expected six weeks ago, probably will not take place at all.

Immediate interest centres round the appearance in the House of Commons of Premier Mackenzie King for the first time this session. This will take place as soon as the writ for the Prince Albert by-election in which Mr. King was returned, is in the hands of the chief electoral officer. This will not arrive, it is expected, until the end of this week. The attitude of the Opposition is that it will not terminate the debate on the address until Premier King's legislative program for the session has been brought down.

Dunning Due Today.

Former Premier C. A. Dunning, of Saskatchewan, will arrive in town and be sworn in tomorrow as Minister of Railways and Canals in the federal government. If there is a contest in the by-election in Regina set for March 23, Mr. Dunning will seek confirmation of the electors of his appointment. He probably will return to Regina within a couple of weeks to conduct his campaign.

The customs investigation continues with interest now centred round the cross-examination of J. E. A. Bisillon, former special inspector of the port of Montreal, who has denied the first open charge made against him, that of selling on forged documents of a smuggled automobile while it was in the custody of the customs authorities.

WALKS EIGHTY MILES TO COURT

North Adams, Mass., Feb. 26—Irving K. Blackstone, sixty-two, Florida Mountain recluse, walked eighty miles to attend court at Pittsfield, where two young men were being tried on charges of assault with intent to rob him. Blackstone has lived alone for twenty-two years. Each morning early he left his hermitage deep in the woods and walked to this city, where he took the trolley to Pittsfield. At night after court he went back and hiked up the mountain to his home.

LOVE, WORK SYMPATHY YOUTH SECRET

London, March 1—Asked to give the secret of youth on the eve of her seventy-eighth birthday, Ellen Terry, the famous actress, said: "Perhaps the first ingredient of the great recipe may be love of beauty and the knack of seeing it. And along with beauty comes sympathy. Work, too, I am sure, has much to do with keeping young. I mean well-planned work, and above all, work you love." She left London today to spend her birthday tomorrow at her country home.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT GAIETY THEATRE

"Too Much Money" is the photo play at the Gaiety for Monday and Tuesday with Lewis Stone and Anna Q. Nilsson in the leading roles.

The story of "Too much Money" concerns a rich man who rarely sees his wife because of the demands of her social engagements. In a drunken stupor on their anniversary night he signs over all his property to a friend so that he can pretend to be bankrupt and win her sympathy. Like a good sport she tries to make the best of their poverty, but instead of letting him loaf at his club she gets him jobs—in a delicatessen and later as a janitor. When she learns how he has tricked her and that his friend is going to run away with the money she pretends to elope with him. The husband follows, the fortune is saved through her ingenuity and all is well as the picture fades out.

AWARDED MEDAL BY RADIO

For the first time in the history of the world, the award of a medal for life-saving was made over the radio when, on the night of February 17th, Sir Henry Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railways, speaking from CNRO, Ottawa, presented the medal of the Royal Humane Society to Mrs. K. G. Polyblank, wife of a civil engineer in the service of the Company. Mrs. Polyblank was in her home at O'Brien in the northern part of Quebec Province and as Sir Henry Thornton, in Ottawa, reached the appropriate moment in his address, the medal was handed to Mrs. Polyblank who, with a number of friends, listened to the address through a receiving set installed in her home.

The deed for which the award was made took place at Long Lac, Ontario, in the summer of 1925, Mrs. Polyblank plunging overboard from a motor boat to save the young child of a friend who had slipped over the side. Mrs. Polyblank swam to the child, maintaining it afloat, divested herself of clinging clothing, and calmly awaited the arrival of rescuers, being practically exhausted when reached.

The photograph shows Mrs. Polyblank, in her home just after she had been presented with the medal.
