Fez, Morocco, July 17—Two columns of the French forces fighting unfriendly Riffian tribes in the district near Callais have joined at Tafert forest. French forces have occupied the crests of the middle Atlas mountains. Rebel tribesmen have fled northward and several important tribes have submitted. It is reported from the Riffians that unfriendly tribes are preparing for a fresh campaign against the Spanish forces.

PREMIER TO SPEAK AT ST.
JOHN, MONCTON

Saint John, N. B., July 16—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen will be in Saint John on Friday, July 23 according to word received today by Dr. Murray MacLaren and at a meeting of the local Conservative Executive held at noon today, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a welcome and a public meeting.

The Prime Minister will be at Moncton on Thursday and here the following day. It is expected that he will be accompanied by Hon. G. B. Jones, Minister of Labor, New Brunswick representative in the Meighen Cabinet.

A meeting of the local executive has been called for Monday evening to make plans for the holding of the nominating convention.

PREMIER TO OPEN CAMPAIGN
ON TUESDAY

Montreal, July 10—Until the meeting at Ottawa on Tuesday, at which Premier Meighen will open his campaign, Hon. E. L. Patenaude, minister of Justice and provincial leader of the Conservative party, refuses to make any statements on the political situation.

Mr. Patenaude said he would speak in English and French at the Ottawa meeting. The announcement from Mr. Patenaude that is being eagerly awaited is as to what seat he will contest. Popular rumor has it that he will again run in Jacques Cartier division.

J. L. St. Jacques, M. L. A., for Argen-teuil, also declined to comment on rumors that he is to be offered a portfolio in the Conservative cabinet.

In some quarters locally it is regarded as almost certain that Walter Mitchell, K. C., former provincial treasurer, and ex-M. P. for St. Antoine, Montreal, will seek election in St. Antoine.

Three members of the last House who reports say, will not offer for re-election are Dr. J. A. Denis, St. Denis; E. St. Pere, Hochelaga, and E. Robitaille, Maisonneuve.

R. S. White, Mount Royal, declared last night that he would not retire except by the decision of the ballot.

Rumors had it that Mr. White would give up his seat to a French speaking member of the cabinet.

The meeting was in connection with the approaching Federal election.

THE PRINCE TO VISIT NORWAY

London, July 17—Matrimonial rumors concerning the Prince of Wales—noticeably lacking since the Princess Astrid of Sweden failed to make her promised trip to London at the beginning of the social season—have been revived with the report that the Prince will go to Norway and Sweden in the late autumn.

The reason given for the trip is the Prince's decision to participate in the winter sports of the two Scandinavian countries.

No indications have been given here as to when Princess Astrid, whose possible marriage to the Prince of Wales has been suggested will make her long postponed trip to England.
