HON. J. E. HETHERINGTON, FORMER PROVINCIAL SECRETARY TREAS. PASSES AWAY IN MONTREAL

Saint John, Jan. 30—The Hon. Dr. Judson E. Hetherington former Provincial Secretary-Treasurer and Speaker in the Provincial Legislature, died suddenly in a Montreal hospital, Sunday morning, at the age of 61 years. Hon. Dr. Hetherington had gone to Montreal on Tuesday last to undergo an operation and failed to recover. News of his death was received here yesterday. The body is to be brought to his late home at Cady's N. B. for interment on Tuesday, it is expected.

HON. J. E. HETHERINGTON.

although funeral arrangements had not been completed Sunday night.

Hon. Dr. Hetherington was one of the leaders of the Liberal party in New Brunswick and less than two weeks ago he had been in Saint John attending the banquet in honor of Hon. P. J. Veniot, Postmaster General. Capable Public Man.

Dr. Hetherington had ably sustained the important duties of administering the provincial finances for several years and later filled the office of Speaker with dignity and wise judgment. He had attained much success in the medical profession in Chicago when he returned some years ago to his native province and his home county of Queens to build a splendid home and to engage in scientific agriculture on a large scale. His residence and farm were among the finest in the province. With all his diversified attainments Dr. Hetherington combined a genial and happy disposition which made him very popular with his associates and much respected by all with whom he came in contact. Dr. Hetherington was born in Thornetown, Queens county, on May 15, 1866, a son of the late Thomas Hetherington and his wife, formerly Miss Violet Douglas Thorne. His father represented Queens county in the Provincial legislature for ten years resigning his seat to make place for his leader, Hon. Andrew G. Blair.

Had Noted Career.

Dr. Hetherington was educated at public schools of the province and the Baptist Seminary. He graduated in medicine from the Chicago Homeopathic Medical College in 1889 at the age of 23 and returned to New Brunswick where he practiced his profession for five years. He then took a further course of study receiving a second medical degree at the Rush Medical College in Chicago in 1895. He was appointed to the chair of physiology in Chicago Homeopathic Medical College and superintendent of the Homeopathic Hospital in that city. He carried on the exacting duties of these two appointments until the pressure of work in his own private practice compelled him to relinquish them. In 1906 he retired from active practice of his profession and again returned to New Brunswick, where he undertook the erection of his fine residence on a portion of the original homestead and has since resided there. Dr. Hetherington also engaged in farming on an extensive scale.

Enters Politics.

He was first elected to the provincial legislature in 1917 being hurriedly recalled from a pleasure trip in the United States to accept candidacy following the sudden dissolution of the House under the premiership of Hon. James A. Murray. He reached New Brunswick two days before nomination day and with George H. King conducted a vigorous campaign through very stormy weather and both were elected as members of the party led by Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster. He was re-elected at the general election of 1920 and was made Speaker in 1919. He was again a candidate in the last election in 1925 but was defeated. He succeeded Hon Robert Murray as provincial secretary-treasurer in 1920. Dr. Hetherington was an able administrator of his department and had many plans concerning it which were warmly endorsed by his colleagues.

Dr. Hetherington was a 32nd degree Freemason, being a member of Garfield Lodge, Chicago. He was also a Knight Templar and Shriner and a member of Medina Temple, Chicago. He was a member of the Union Club in Saint John and the Saint John Power Boat Club and owned a large speed boat which was well known on the Saint John River. He had membership also in the Marshlands Club in Amherst and the Canadian Club in Boston.

There are surviving besides his wife formerly Miss Anna H. Lancy, of Chicago, two daughters, Mrs. E. J. Coleman, Jr., and Mrs. T. C. McClure both of Sykeston, Miss.; one brother, Arthur of Thornetown, and two sisters, Mrs. Florrie Underwood, of Athabasca Landing, Alta., and Mrs. C. H. Doney, of Calgary.

HISTORY BUNK ACCORDING TO THESE REPLIES

London, Jan. 28—All the world except the United States lies in the "temperance" zone, a London school-boy said in answer to an examination question, the "University Correspondent," revealed today.

Other slightly garbled versions of facts, published as culled from examination papers, were:

The sun never sets on the British Empire because the empire is in the east and the sun sets in the west.

Finally James II gave birth to a son, so the people turned him off the throne.

The minister of war is the clergyman who preaches to soldiers.

Queen Elizabeth rode through Coventry with nothing on and Sir Walter Raleigh offered her his cloak.

Henry VIII was very cruel to Ann Boleyn and ironed her. (The history had said "he pressed his suit on her.")

To be called to the bar is to be terated to a drink. (In England a new lawyer is said to be called to the bar.)

New York, Jan. 29—New York, Washington and Chicago were struck by storms and cold yesterday. All snow removal equipment and 3,500 extra shovellers were called out to keep traffic arteries open.

Seven deaths were attributed to exposure in Chicago where the coldest wave of the season was receding tonight. One of the dead, a negro, was trapped when a window fell down across his neck as he was attempting to enter a store to rob it. A box on which he was standing slipped from under him and he hung until frozen to death.

Washington reported over ten inches of snow and cities in Pennsylvania were hard hit.

WOMAN DIED FROM BURNS

Digby N. S., Jan. 29—Mrs. Annie Holmes died in the local hospital early this morning from burns sustained yesterday afternoon when her clothes caught fire as she was putting wood in the kitchen stove. Alone in the house Mrs. Holmes rushed out doors with her clothing ablaze then went in by another door and threw herself on a bed setting fire to it. A neighbor had seen her plight and went to her assistance. He extinguished the fire and rushed Mrs. Holmes to the hospital but she was beyond recovery.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT GAIETY THEATRE

"Fast and Furious" is the photo play at the Gaiety Monday and Tuesday featuring Reginald Denny.

Few stars have been so fortunate as Reginald Denny in finding at their command a steady source of good stories. Denny has not had a real miss in more than two years.

In general nature it is similar to the usual run of pictures featuring Denny, but its gags and situations are for the most part new and breezy enough to create waves of merriment among the spectators. Automobile racing is, of course, the keynote of the whole story while mistaken identity (the hero, who really despises automobiles, is taken for a famous racing driver) gives it the comic touch.

Denny's pleasant personality and ability to sense the comedy situations play no small part in the film's success. A newly-arrived leading lady, Barbara Worth, is impressive in the altogether too few opportunities she is given. Claude Gillingwater is much at home as the fuming old gentleman.

More people get crooked trying to avoid hard work than become bent from too much of it.

LOCAL CURLERS WON WITH MARYSVILLE

Two Rinks from Marysville played a similar number of the local club here on Saturday evening and were beaten by the local curlers quite severely.

The veteran J. S. Inch of the Marysville club curling his best game and was ably supported by the rest of his rink. W. A. B. McLellan and his rink were not up to the form that was expected of them. The inwicking and teeing of the Inch rink were the features of the game.

The other Marysville rink skipped by Chas. McLean did not fare as well being defeated by the Fredrickton rink, skipped by F. S. Mundle. The number of points won by this latter rink were sufficient to offset the loss made by the other Fredrickton rink which gave Fredrickton the victory. The lineup of the rinks is as follows:

Marysville: Watson McLean, P. F. Nickerson, G. A. Ttpley, J. S. Inch, Skip 18; A. H. Wilson W. G. Collett, J. G. Wier, Chas. McLean, Skip 6. Total 24.

Fredrickton: R. A. McMillan, G. S. Armstrong, H. S. Murray, W. A. B. McLellan, Skip 13; W. R. Evans, C. J. Tilley, J. B. Kinghorn, F. S. Mundle, Skip 24. Total 36.

To Reside Here.

Mr. Ralph St. John Freeze of Sussex lately appointed Deputy Attorney General and registrar of the Supreme Court, will take up his duties on February 1st. Mr. Freeze's duties will necessitate his removal to Fredericton. As a former U. N. B. student and legal practitioner of some years standing he is well known to many people here.
