

French Olympic Team Refuse to Enter Parade

Claim Germany permitted to use stadium track for practise — Canadians allege U. S. team used forbidden track by trick while others had to use unfavorable outside track.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

Amsterdam, July 28—The first note of discord was injected into the Olympic games today when the French delegation, 250 strong, refused to participate in the Olympic parade as a protest against alleged German favoritism.

The French claim Germany was permitted to use the stadium track for training and that the French were barred.

Canadian Protest

Amsterdam, Holland, July 28—By J. McMillan, British United Press—Charges from the Canadian camp that the Americans are not "playing the game" and are disregarding the sentiments of honor expected of all Olympiads was the subject of excited discussion among the athletes and officials of all nations at the opening of the ninth Olympic games today.

Statement to Press

The subject was first raised by the manager of the track team who, when preliminary arrangements were being discussed, made a flat statement to the press that the Americans had succeeded in getting into the stadium by a trick during the training period before any of the other nations, which were forced to remain on unfavorable temporary tracks outside the grounds.

NOBILE GIVES INTERVIEW ON EXPRESS TRAIN

Laughs at Idea of Travelling in Sealed Car—Fellow Passengers Accuse Him—Still Believes in Airship.

Copenhagen, July 27—General Umberto Nobile commander of wrecked transpolar dirigible Italia, still believes the airship should be utilized in Arctic explorations, according to a correspondent of the newspaper Ekstrabladet, who interviewed the general aboard the Lapland express which is carrying Nobile back to Italy.

"I still think the airship has the best chance but of course difficulties can arise so big that it is impossible for human power to win over them" the general was quoted as saying.

"Not yet for I have to first work out my report of the expedition."

He smiled at the story he was travelling in a sealed car. To prove the contrary he took the correspondent through the train. Every passenger recognized him and the remark was heard on every side:

"Nobile. It's Nobile."

Amery Makes Clear British Position on Emigration Matter

Secretary of State says reception of British emigrants a Dominion matter—Canadians say that more British capital invested here would bring out more British settlers.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

London, July 28—The Secretary of State for Dominion affairs, Rt. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, will make clear on Monday in the House of Commons during question time that the British Government recognizes that the reception of British emigrants is purely a matter for each dominion.

An opportunity will be given him, through a question, to allay any misapprehensions which might have arisen in Canada or the other Dominions.

Emigrant Problem

The emigration problem is likely to be drawn in to the limelight by several Conservative members, including Sir John Marriott, when the appropriation bill is discussed next Thursday, because they want to know what the Government's policy is.

Meanwhile prominent Canadians now in London have been discussing the subject of emigration, with leading financiers.

American Capital

They assert that the flow of American capital into Canada also brings a flow of Americans and that were Britain to resume her financial position in Canada as held before the war, this would be the greatest stimulus to Canada's power for absorbing British emigrants, both by development of the Dominion and creation of new fields of enterprises for Britishers.

WESTERN CROPS CONTINUE TO BE IN GOOD SHAPE

Moncton, N. B. July 28—With the hot dry weather of past week which prevailed throughout the whole of western Canada all crops continue to make excellent progress. A few districts in northern Sask., which while not suffering could do with some rain but generally reports would indicate that there is ample moisture and only warm weather is needed until the crop is harvested. All districts in Alberta report excellent crop prospects some effect from weeds in summer follow crops is reported in the districts around Verigin to Humbolt but not to any serious extent. A few local districts through Manitoba and Sask. reports signs of red rust but nowhere has there been any damage. Serious damage from hail is reported in a few local districts in southern Sask. mostly south and around Weyburn and while in some places the damage is heavy to the individual farmer yet the acreage is not great and will not materially affect the crop on the whole.

Weekly Market

The weekly market at Phoenix Square this morning was not very large this morning, the farmers dispersing as soon as the first indications of rain began to appear. The prevailing prices were similar to the mid-week market on Wednesday. Fresh vegetables and berries again were the chief sellers, the former especially selling in large quantities. Meat again was scarce. Carrots, beets and cabbages sold for 10 cents and three for a quarter dollar. Blueberries made their first appearance and sold for 30 cents and over.
