
HOOF PRINTS

Hamline, Minn., May 23—Winnipeg, one of the Canadian pacing invaders, is being conditioned for his extensive stake campaign at the Minnesota State Fair track here. He is in charge of the veteran teamster, W. W. Fleming. The horse is entered in the $25,000 events at Toledo and Kalamazoo.

Urbana, O., May 23—The driving colors of Tommy Murphy, who for years led the reinsmen of the country, again will be seen on the trotting courses this season. Murphy, though, will not wear them. Dr. H. M. Parshall, whose stable won more races than any other last year, will be decked out in the Murphy regalia, who retired from the sport at the end of the 1927 campaign, presented the outfit to Parshall.

Center Square, Pa., May 23—Two additions to the stable of the noted Pennsylvania reinsman, Ned McCarr, are the former Nebraska trotters, Judge Sears, 3, 2:23 1/4, and Cornhusker, both of Archdale. C. C. Coolbaugh, their owner, purchased them from N. J. Ronin, Fremont, Neb.

This son of Cool, Armstrong and Mabel Mapes displayed such good speed last year that he must be accorded a chance in his big pacing engagements. He obtained his record in the first heat of the winning four-beat battle at Indianapolis against Louis Direct, 2:02 1/4, the fast pacer owned by Walter T. Candler, of Atlanta, and Prue Grattan, 2:03 1/4, winner of the $25,000 American Derby.

Callie Direct is one of those pacers that can leave on high and this trait should stand him in good stead when he is in the big fields he will meet. Vic Fleming, the Canadian reinsman, is fitting Callie for the fray at the noted North Randall track, Cleveland.

Indianapolis, May 25—Horsemen from all sections of the country are expected to arrive here for the dispersal sale of the horses of the noted Forest Park Farm, Friday, June 1. A total of 120 head will go under the hammer.

Included in the lot are the sires, The Harvester, 2:01, who was a champion when raced by the late "Pop" Geers, Frisco June 2:04 1/4, and Pat Harvester 2:09 1/4, the broodmare Miss Harris M., joint holder of the record of 1:58 1/4 for pacing mares, and the fast trotter, Worthy Harvester 2:05 1/2.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 25—Nola J. 1:01 1/4, the Auburn N. Y. candidate for the $25,000 Page Dairy Pace at Toledo, July 10 is burning up the New York State Fair track here with her speed. Thus far, she has worked faster than any other candidate for the rich Toledo event, parading in 2:07 1/2 with the last half in 1:01 and final quarter in .30. Sol Lyman has her in charge.

Goshen, N. Y., May 25—W. H. Bradford, Bennington, Vt., who owns the Hambletonian favorite, Fireglow 2:04 has purchased the two-year-old trotting colt, Sir Guy Mac, from the Good Time Stable. The youngster is a son of McGregor the Great-Azurea.

HUGE CROWDS SEE YANKS AND ATHLETICS DIVIDE IN BIG SERIES

Yanks Defeat Grove in Opener—Athletics Come Back to Win Night Cap by 5-2 Score—Ruth Gets 14th Circuit Wallop—Petty Holds Giants to Three Bingles in Robin Victory—Pirates and Cards Win.

American League—
New York, May 24—The largest crowd that ever jammed its way into a Philadelphia ball park saw the Athletics and the Yankees divide a double header as the six game battle for first place was opened. More than 41,000 fans paid to see the games.

The Yankees plastered Robert Moses Grove to win 9 to 7 in the opener but the Athletics came back to life in the night cap, which they won 5 to 2 despite Babe Ruth's fourteenth home run of the season and Lazzeri's first.

BOYS BEG A TEACHER TO WHIP THEM

Cambridge, England, May 23—How schoolboys asked to be thrashed is told by Miss Mary Thompson, teacher in a Suffolk village school.

When she first went to the school she said she had much trouble from some of the bigger boys, who overturned desks, tied up the school-room doors and broke windows.

The boys told her they wanted a man teacher, some one who could thrash them. They were taunted, they said, by boys from other schools, because their teacher did not inflict this kind of punishment.

Obtaining a stout strap, Miss Thompson was able to nullify the cause for complaint and all trouble at her school ceased forthwith.

BUNION DERBY

Payne Increases Lead Over Salo in Trans-continental Footrace.

Suffern, N. Y., May 24—Although he finished far in the ruck on the 38 mile lap from Middleton, N. Y. Andrew Payne, of Claremore, Okla., increased his lead over the Passaic, N. J., Finn, John Salo his closest competitor in C. C. Pyle's trans-continental foot race.

TRIALS GERMAN OLYMPIC MEET

Duesseldorf, Ger., May 22—Hoffmeister, of Manover, established a discus-throwing record of 48.58 meters in an exhibition meet today in which German Olympic candidates participated. A relay team of Houben, Kernerig, Lammers and Wichmann covered the 400 meters twice in 41 seconds, equalling the world's record.

Glen Hartranft of Stanford set the world's record for the discus throw from an 8 1/4-foot circle in 1925 when he tossed the discus 47.89 meters, or 157 feet 1 5/8 inches. Hoffmeister's throw, if made under the same conditions, betters the American's mark by more than two feet.

The 400-meter relay record of 41 seconds flat was set in 1924 at Paris by the United States team of Frank Hussey, Loren Murchison, Alfred Leconey, and L. A. Clarke.

SPRING LULLABY

There's a low moon rocking in the western sky,
Hushaby, my green pastures the wee lambs lie,
Little birds swing in the tree-tops high,
While the moon rocks low in the western sky—
Hushaby, my baby, bye-lo.

Sleep, little one, on your mother's breast,
Hushaby, my baby, bye-lo.
Night is the time for them all to rest,
Each little bird in its downy nest
Wee little lambs on the earth's green breast—
Hushaby, my baby, bye-lo.

There's a new day coming for them all to see,
Hushaby, my baby, bye-lo.
Lambs in the pasture, birds on the tree,
My little one on his mother's knee
God keep you safely or me to see—
Hushaby, my baby, bye-lo.
—MARGARET T. TOMKINS in Detroit News.

Among the horse's chief engagements are the $25,000 Page Dairy at Toledo, July 10, and the $10,000 events at Goshen and Syracuse, N. Y. Frank Callahan, of Tiffin, O., is his owner.

Greenfield, Mass., May 25—Charles Mabrey, the New York reinsman has arrived here to put the finishing touches on his pupils for the opening meeting of the Bay State Circuit, June 7-9.

THE RACE POT

No. 6—Courtney Burton, 2:02.
Courtney Burton is a Missouri-owned pacer. So it follows that his many admirers back home will have to be shown that he won't cut a huge figure in the pacing wars.

Courtney is a very fast pacer as his record indicates. He took his mark in the opening heat of a race at the Illinois State Fair, Springfield, last season, heading such fast performers as the Canadian star, Winnipeg, 2:08 1/4, Battle Axe 2:01 1/4, and Red Herr, 2:03 1/4. He'll have one of the best reinsmen in the country behind him in Marvin Childs the young man that won the $60,000 Hambletonian with Isola's Worthy 2:03 1/4 at Lexington, Ky, last year.

Courtney Burton showed extreme speed last season in his very first start when he whizzed the first half of the opening mile in one minute. The year's experience and the excellent condition he appears certain to attain by July should enable him to pace with the best. He is another eligible to the $25,000 Page Dairy at Toledo, July 10 and the $10,000 races at Goshen, and Syracuse, N. Y. in August. The pacer is a son of Braden Direct-Liberty Girl and is owned by Herbert M. Woolf of Kansas City.

WILL DEPICT VERY ANCIENT CIVILIZATION

La Paz, Bolivia, May 23—Civilization he believes to have flourished 13,000 years ago in South America will be described at the Americanist congress to be held in September at the American Museum of Natural History in New York by Professor Arturo Posnansky, Bolivian scientist. He has been chosen to represent the Bolivian Geographical Society at this congress and will present the subject for study.

Professor Posnansky is noted particularly for his studies of the ancient ruins of Tiahuanacu near Lake Titicaca, in Bolivia, and for his explorations in the Lake Poopo region, where he found what he believes to be descendants of a pre-historic people called "Urus." He also is one of the many who have sought the gold treasure supposed to have been hidden at Inquisivi by the Jesuit priests when they were obliged to abandon the territory by edict of the Spanish king in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

One of Posnansky's best known writings concerns the Tiahuanacu ruins, which he connects with civilization that existed 13,000 years ago. He claims to have proved the age of the ruins and has found traces of the great glacial lake of Tiahuanacu near where stood the ancient metropolis Granitica. He plans to decipher, utilizing his studies of the last twenty-five years, the inscriptions found on the monuments that still exists in the Tiahuanacu region, and will speak at the congress on the subject of the Tiahuanacu style of architecture as applied to modern structures.

WHO WAS WHO?

Nero was an emperor
Who overdid a joke
By playing on the fiddle
While Rome went up in smoke.
But while our hero's character
Is open to attacks,
There's one redeeming feature—
He might have played the sax.

Jinks—Heavens man. I was afraid you had passed away. I saw your wife a few minutes ago dressed entirely in black.
Binks—Yes, her dog died.

Wife—I'll meet you at the theater at 8.15.
Hubby—All right, the midnight show suits me, too.

A well-known writer says, "I can easily shave and change from one suit of cloths to another in eight minutes flat." And look at it."

Next to flying the Atlantic, perhaps the hardest thing for the hero is learning to stand and bow in a moving automobile.
