Laborites Promise to Shut Out Sweated Goods from G. B.

Declarations by Ex-Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Phillip Snowden are Considered the Most Important Political Developments in the Old Country Politics—Conservatives are Perturbed.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 5—Right Hon. Philip Snowden's outline of what labor's financial policy will be when the party ultimately gets into power and Right Hon. Ramsay MacDonald's declaration that labor intends to shut out from Britain all "Sweated Goods" are considered as the most important recent developments in the political world.

The Conservatives are especially perturbed by the former Chancellor of the Exchequer's statement that he thought Britain would probably get its socialism by means of public corporations of varying types.

This is really nationalization, but the Liberals point out that the British broadcasting company and also the new electricity scheme for which the Conservatives themselves are responsible comprise exactly the same type of public corporations which the socialists could employ to carry out their far reaching banking and financial taxation and other proposals.

THE PREMIER TELLS OF TRIP TO GRAND FALLS

Electrical Energy From the Present Unit Will Be Used by the Fraser Companies.

St. John, Oct. 5—Grand Falls will not be capable of its full development of 80,000 horsepower, unless further storage can be obtained, was a statement made yesterday afternoon by Premier Baxter, after returning from an inspection of the work on Monday last, when the first of the four 20,000 horsepower units was set in operation.

The energy generated from the present unit will be required for the Fraser mills, the capacity of which has been more than doubled, said the Premier. He added that the International Paper Company were just completing a survey from Grand Falls to Dalhousie, where the new International Paper Company's mill is now under construction. This, when completed, will have a capacity of 250 tons of pulp daily, and can be increased to 500 tons daily as necessity demands.

The rest of the power, which will eventually be developed at Grand Falls with the completion and installation of three more 20,000 horsepower units, will be utilized by the International Paper Company's development at Dalhousie, he believed.

Having in view the commitments for enlargement of the International Paper Company and Frasers, Ltd., there is no surplus constant power in sight at Grand Falls, unless additional storage can be developed to increase the capacity of the plant, Premier Baxter said.

It is possible that something may be done with the seasonal power at Grand Falls which at the present time will be unsuited for continuous industry, he said. This may possibly be rendered more continuous by the addition of a steam power standby or by the development of some other smaller water power as a seasonal standby.

A SISTER OF MR. J. W. POWER PASSES AWAY

(Halifax Recorder.)

The death occurred last evening at the Halifax Infirmary, of Miss Emma M. Power, daughter of the late Hon. M. J. Power and Mrs. Power, aged 58 years. She had been in the Infirmary for almost a year, with a complication of ills, her condition being quite serious on several occasions, but it was only in the last couple of days that she became semi-conscious, gradually sinking until she passed peacefully away.

Miss Power was for 28 years in the office of the Commissioner of Works and Mines, from which she retired some years ago. She was a devout Catholic, a great church worker and most active in the various societies to which she belonged. She was a former president of St. Mary's Girls Sunday School, and a member of the Children of Mary, Sacred Heart Alumnae, Catholic Women's League, Third Order of St. Frances and League of the Sacred Heart.

Surviving are three brothers, Frank J., cashier Yellow Taxi Co., James W., Sporting Editor Acadian Recorder, and Charles E., Vancouver, B. C.

NO BILL FOUND IN CASE OF PERCY M'CORMICK

Newcastle Oct. 3—The Supreme Court met at Newcastle on Tuesday with Chief Justice Barry presiding. There were two cases for consideration one charging Percy McCormick with manslaughter in the death of Richard Sonier of Nelson and the other charging Joseph Maroney with wanton and furious driving in the streets of Newcastle when Ferdie the son of Dr. Parks was hit and injured about the head.

The grand jury under the foremanship of Benson LeLeod heard witness in both cases and brought in no bills so that the session of the court ended abruptly.

LOCAL CONCERN HELPED OUT CONTRACTORS

Broadcasting Station of J. S. Neill & Sons, Ltd., Proves a Good Advertising Medium.

Campbellton, Oct. 4—A new and distinctive use for radio has been introduced of late. The Domill Construction Company of Canada, who on Friday last required the immediate services of 50 carpenters and 50 laborers, had their problem solved through the aid of James S. Neill & Sons, of Fredericton, who broadcast word from their station that night which resulted in many applications being received over the week end at the company's office in Dalhousie. Many of the artisans and laborers appeared in person Monday and were given employment without delay.

The International Paper Company mill development at the shiretown progresses rapidly. The earthen dyke, which will protect the main mill site from the tidal waters of the Bay Chaleur will be completed on Thursday and the dredge Tornado will move into the channel stream for action in filling the enclosed space with silt and sand from the river bed. The 800 foot discharge pipe is laid and in readiness to convey their material from the dredge to the filling ground. The huge concrete mixer is working at capacity and the quarries being excavated with modern steam shovels and diggers.

A miniature locomotive is working overtime, drawing steel dump cars to and from the quarries to the concrete plant while a fleet of eight motor trucks carry many hundreds of bags of concrete from the storage sheds to the mixer. The concrete piers, which when completely laid will number 800, are now being put down. Blasting operations are taking place at the eastern peninsula of the site, where a rocky point of nearly an acre in dimension will be eliminated. About 400 men are on the payroll at the various places and when the main foundation work begins this force will be augmented by many more. Many small bungalows and residences are being erected by the small army of workmen employed by the real estate company there and it is expected that many more houses will be built.

GAME WARDEN FELL FROM TREE OVER NORTH

Campbellton, Oct. 4—Walter Roy, game warden of Kedgewick, N. B., was brought over the I. N. R. line yesterday and conveyed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital as a result of severe injuries to his back resulting from a fall from a high tree in the vicinity of MacDougall's Rapids, 18 miles from the mouth of the Kedgewick River, which occurred last Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied to Campbellton by Donald McBeath, game warden of this town, who was in Kedgewick Station on Monday on official duties and who was notified of the accident at that time.

It is presumed the warden climbed to a lofty perch for observation purposes and that a semi-rotten limb gave way under his weight. He was alone at the time and managed to crawl to shelter, a distance of about 500 yards, where he was found by river men Monday morning. On his arrival at Kedgewick Station, Dr. Boulay, of that place, rendered first aid.

AN ECONOMIC CONFERENCE NOW GOING ON

Being Held at Prague Under the Auspices of League of Nations

WILL STUDY PROBLEMS

The Economic Restoration of Europe is a Large Question.

(Special cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Prague, Oct. 5—The International economic conference under auspices of the Federation of the League of Nations union opened yesterday to determine how well the nations are equipped to adopt the report of the world economic conference. Sir Arthur Salter, head of the economic financial section of the League of Nations, reviewed the progress of restoring Europe economically. He stressed the importance of thorough study of outstanding problems before asking governments to take official action.

FACISTS AND SOCIALISTS FOREGATHER

(Special cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Wien-neustadt, Oct. 5—The city resembles a vast armed camp as preparations are made for the parades of the fascists and socialists on Sunday. Trains continue to arrive, packed with Austrian soldiers. All army leaves have been cancelled from October 3rd. Machine gun and artillery troops are in concentration in the city.

LATE J. F. VanBUSKIRK

Funeral of the Late J. F. VanBuskirk Took Place This Afternoon at Two O'Clock—Service at Home in York Street Was Impressive.

The funeral of the late J. F. Table and Books Burned

A fire which occurred at the home of F. W. Risteen in Smythe street this morning at the early hour of three o'clock, burned a table and some books before the firemen were able to extinguish the blaze. Alarm was rung in from box 14 and succeeded in gaining much headway in very few minutes. It is not known exactly how the fire started. The fire department were called out yesterday afternoon to the home of August Lofstrom on Smythe street where a slight chimney fire was in progress. The blaze was soon extinguished, no damage being done.

Chief Magistrate of Newburyport Must Serve a Term in Jail

"Bossy" Gillis, an Ex-Sailor Gets Sentence of Two Months and a Fine of $543—Pleaded Guilty to the Charge of Unlawfully Selling and Storing Gasoline.

(By HERBERT BAILEY, British United Press Staff Correspondent.)

SALEM, MASS., Oct. 5—As prisoner 48866, Mayor "Bossy" Gillis will direct Newburyport's municipal affairs from a cell in Salem jail during the next two months.

Today the fiery tongued ex-sailor, who for the past nine months has ruled his conservative home town with the iron hand of a Mussolini, occupied cell 79 at the county House of Correction, facing sixty days' imprisonment, half of it at hard labor. Dawn found the red headed executive glum and despondent after his first night behind the bars. He had refused to eat supper last evening and he only nibbled the breakfast served him in his cell at six a. m.

The sentence with an additional penalty of $543 in fines, was imposed late yesterday by Superior Judge Nelson P. Brown before whom Bossy pleaded guilty a week ago to charges of unlawfully storing and selling gasoline at his new famous filling station at State and High Streets, Newburyport.

Mr. R. H. Simonds and Mrs. A. J. Thompson were the winners of the mixed foursome prize, after spirited competition in the afternoon play. Following this tea was served in the club house and about 100 guests sat down.

Hi Slocum says that now that the exhibitions are over the weather man is producing a lovely brand of Indian summer.

T. P. O'CONNOR OBSERVES HIS 80TH BIRTHDAY

World's Most Famous Parliamentarian Was Congratulated by His Majesty the King.

(Special cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

London, Oct. 5—The King wired his congratulations today on the 80th birthday of T. P. O'Connor probably the world's most famous legislator.

O'Connor, known universally as "Tay Pay", first entered the House of Commons in 1880 as a member from Galway. He is often called the "Father of the House of Commons", and has participated in many famous parliamentary battles extending over almost half a century.

His full title, which is seldom used is the Rt. Hon. Thomas Power O'Connor. He was born in Athlone, Ireland, on October 5, 1848. He is known as a scholar, author and journalist.

Rugby Club Formed

At a meeting held at the club house of the University of New Brunswick at College Field last evening steps were taken in the formation of a city football team and a captain and manager elected for the coming season. Cedric Woods was elected to the captaincy of the team and Royden Cofter was appointed manager. At the meeting it was decided to try for outside games and efforts will be made to get in touch with the Trojans of St. John and other non-college aggregations of pigskin handlers. A regular systematic schedule of practice was agreed upon and there is much enthusiasm worked up over the prospect of a city team. It has been a great number of years since the city has had a football team and from the material already turned out and their showing against the University team several days ago, it looks as though the city might have a good rugby fifteen. The majority have had football experience on the local high school team or with U. N. B.
