BOBBED HAIR BANDIT IS SENTENCED

Newark, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Minnie Paul, known as Newark's "Bobbed hair" bandit, was sentenced to an indefinite sentence in the Clinton Reformatory today for her participation in the robberies of two grocery stores.

To Alexander Paul, her husband Judge Van Riper gave sentences aggregating 30 years. He was found guilty on three counts of robbery and given ten years on each count, the sentences to run concurrently. Paul represented himself as being a Canadian. When he was arrested he made an endeavor to protect his wife from prosecution, asserting that she had nothing to do with the robberies.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT GAIETY THEATRE

"Get Your Man" is the Photoplay at the Gaiety for Wednesday and Thursday, featuring Clara Bow.

It spins a little story of a madcap American girl living in Paris, its complications ensuing when she falls in love with a rich young Frenchman, who happens to be betrothed to a prim French miss of a good family. This represents one of those matches that are arranged by fathers rather than sweethearts, and when Miss Bow learns of this she upsets it by causing the Frenchman to compromise her. Whereupon his father, insisting on the honor of his family, decrees that he shall marry Miss Bow, and slyly implies that he has known and approved of the love of his son and the American girl—and everything is happy.

CHRISTMAS SEASON WAS A QUIET ONE

Saint John, Jan. 4.—"The Christmas holiday season just passed was the quietest that the province has seen for a great many years," R. G. Fulton, chairman of the New Brunswick Liquor Control Board, declared in conversation with The Telegraph-Journal over long distance telephone from Fredericton on Tuesday evening.

This conclusion, he said, was drawn from the reports of provincial and civic police, which showed that there was a minimum of holiday disturbances due to inebriation, compared with former years.

The trade through the Commission stores, he started, had not been abnormal, although a complete check-up had not been made on the sales during the vacation period. However, he said, when it was considered that what was sold this year was through 29 Commission stores, while last year there were some 64 vendors doing business, besides the activities of a countless number of bootleggers, the trade was considered very satisfactory.

At the present time, he concluded, the Commission's affairs throughout the province were running smoothly.

Court Assignments.

This week's Royal Gazette contains the assignment of Supreme Court judges for the ensuing year. Mr. Justice Crockett will preside at the Yorksittings on January 17th and he is also assigned to Sunbury sittings for May 22nd, when the Hudlin and Banks' murder cases are to be held.

FOREST-FIRE PROTECTION

A THEME FOR DISCUSSION

during the haying season no little inconvenience resulted. He would like to hear the matter discussed by the council.

Warden Seymour thought that some provision should be made for paying men called out to fight forest fires, more particularly those living at a distance from the scene. It might be a good plan to have the necessary legislation to have the expense paid by the county and assessed upon the parish the following year.

Coun. McMullin said that the large land owners in his parish maintained a patrol on their lands during the summer months and seldom had losses from fire. He thought smaller private owners should club together and put on a patrol.

Coun. Greenlaw said that when he brought the matter up he had in mind the interests of the small land owners. In his parish patrols were maintained by large concerns.

Should Keep Out.

Coun. Whipple thought that the matter was one which the county should keep clear of as it was a little beyond their sphere. As honorary fire wardens the councillors already had all of the responsibility they should be asked to bear.

Coun. Coburn did not think that people called out to fight fires should be asked to work for nothing. Under the present system abuses often crept in and fires might be set by men who wanted a job to fight them. He was inclined to agree with the views of Coun. Greenlaw.

Coun. Buckingham said that the fact that people were called upon to fight fire for nothing was likely to reduce the number. It had proved to be the case in his parish at any rate.

Hon. C. D. Richards.

County Solicitor Richards said that naturally he was much interested in the discussion. In the department of government over which he presided the fire hazard presented a very serious problem, affecting as it did the assets of the province. A fire on the Restigouche in 1923 had burned over 400,000 acres, causing a loss of millions of dollars. He had drove by car through the devastated region last year and had been appealed by the sight which had met his gaze. The fire had been the result of an act of carelessness on the part of some individual. A strong organization had been formed to look after the protection of the eleven million acres of crown lands owned by the province and it cost $60,000 a year, if it was true as had been stated that man would set fires for the sake of earning $2 or $3 a day than the province was in a serious condition. The government a few years ago, and he thought rightly, had disassociated itself from the responsibility of fighting fires on private lands. The government protected its own lands but not the private lands. They employed a large force of men and had to pay them for their service. Last year in order to ensure greater efficiency the government had inaugurated the time clock system for the forest rangers. He wished to impress upon the councillors that it was up to them and those they represented to see to it that private forest lands are given protection. It was true that private concerns had their lands patrolled. They had found it absolutely necessary for them to do this.

In regard to the suggestion that an assessment might be made upon a parish to defray the cost of fire fighting there was no doubt that if the council agreed on the matter and asked for the legislation they could get it. The matter is of vital importance and there should be the closest cooperation as in the past. If this cooperation should cease it would be necessary for the government to take action.

Coun. Greenlaw said he was sure that the discussion had been very beneficial. He moved that a commission be appointed to look into the matter and ascertain if amendments are needed to the fire law.

On motion of Coun. Manuel the council separated until two o'clock p. m.

Tuesday Afternoon.

The York Municipal Council on Tuesday afternoon after electing a warden, listening to a report from the county auditor and appointing committees, adjourned until Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

Address by Chaplain.

Rev. Dr. Warren on being called upon by the warden briefly addressed the council. He congratulated the new warden on his election to such a high position and was sure he would discharge the duties in a satisfactory manner. He remarked on the change in the personnel of the council since last session as a result of the election and spoke words of welcome to the new members. In closing he thanked the warden for the privilege given him of saying a few words to the members of the board.

The report of the auditor was ordered to be received and referred to the committee on the secretary-treasurer's accounts.

sinking of shafts and a power plant, compressor and other equipment will be installed within a short time so that by early spring operations on a fairly extensive scale will be underway.

Regarding the development of the antimony mines at Lake George, General Smart said that portable machinery was being added to the equipment there until the deeds for the property were turned over by the former owners to his syndicate and as soon as that was done a new power plant would be installed, a concentrating mill would follow and later a smelter would be established. General Smart said the importance of the antimony development in New Brunswick was now attracting world attention as it became realized that the deposits in this Province were the richest found elsewhere than the famous Chinese antimony mines.

General Smart and his party will spend tomorrow inspecting the Lake George mines.

Banff Winter Carnival Will Be Colorful Event

Banff, the capital of Canada's National Park of that name, is known to the world as one of the most beautiful and fascinating of summer resorts. It is, however, not generally known that Banff in winter is equally delightful, and that many people prefer it at this season, especially during its Carnival Week. The dates for this colorful event are February 4-11.

The town is always a blaze of colored lights; Indian tipis are at intervals along the main street, for the Stoneys also take part in Winter's pageant. Fireworks gleam on the Ice Palace, from which many events will start. They move quickly and are kaleidoscopic in color and swiftness, sports are varied and masquerades are an additional excuse for more excitement and hilarity.

There are many competitions in all lines of sports during Carnival

Week, and even sportsmen will have their fun, for trap-shooting is on the programme as the Banff Gun Club holds its annual competition at this time. Another novel event for a Winter Carnival is packing, making and breaking camp, and also the famous diamond hitch is staged by members of the Rocky Mountain Guides Association, who evidently are not afraid of rivals during the next annual meet of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies.

Skiing is possibly the most popular sport, and the country affords all that could be desired. There are competitions in ski-jumping for professionals, amateurs and young boys; ski-racing, ski-joring races, snow-shoe races and novelty events.

Hockey, Canada's great national game, is one of the drawing cards of the Carnival. Teams come from all parts of the West to compete, as many clubs enter for the speed and figure skating; among them the Winnipeg Skating Club. The Banff Dog Derby is one of the outstanding events which should be mentioned. The course, from Calgary to Banff, is 84 miles. The annual bonspiel of the Banff Curling Club will be held during this week. Recreations are so numerous that all visitors can find the form of diversion that pleases. One great novelty is swimming in the Government hot sulphur baths in the open air, with snow and, possibly, icicles around.
