

WALTER COX HAS LIKELY PAIR OF
TROTTERS READY

Goshen, N. Y., June 21—Walter R. Cox, famous Grand Circuit reinsman, showed the railbirds a likely pair of two year old trotters in Walter Dear and Miss Woerner at a record meeting here. He drove the former, a son of The Laurel Hall and Mary Coburn, a quarter of a second slower. The juveniles are owned by W. H. Cane, Hackensack, N. J. and are entered in the futurities.

The fastest mile of the meet was trotted by Pretty Quick. With the New York sportsman, E. Roland Harman in the sulky, she traveled in 2.13½. The filly a three year old is a candidate for the $70,000 Hambletonian at Syracuse the week of August 27.

Around the Big League Circuit

New York, June 21—Babe Ruth's twenty-sixth home run of the season in the second inning of the second game with Philadelphia today was washed into the discard when the second game of a double header was called off on account of rain in the third. It was the first homer the Babe ever so lost in his fifteen year career.

MICKEY WALKER RETAINS MIDDLE
TITLE BY DECISION OVER HUDKINS

Title Holder Gains Decision in 10 Furious Rounds
—Downpour of Rain Throughout the Fight—
“Nebraska Wildcat” Finishes Strong—30,000
Witness Fracas.

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Ill., June 21—Mickey Walker defended his world's middleweight championship by defeating Ace Hudkins, the Nebraska, challenger in ten savage rounds in a downpour of rain. The decision was greeted with a chorus of boos Hudkins on a verge of a knockout in the fourth round made a gallant finish pounding the champion unmercifully around the body. The battle was witnessed by a crowd of 25,000 to 35,000. Thousands of spectators were soaked to the skin in the terrific rainstorm that broke over the Park before the fight was finished. Walker weighed 158 pounds and Hudkins 155.

TSURUMI, JAPAN'S
ROOSEVELT

Tokio, June 22—Head of his own party, the Meiseikai, which has but seven members controls the diet due to the almost even division of the major parties, Yusuke Tsurumi, is a personality particularly interesting to Americans. Not only is he pro-American in sentiment, but he has a resemblance in many ways to Theodore Roosevelt. He is strenuous, a good fighter, a forceful orator and probably the best orator in Japan and a prodigious writer, his books being among the best sellers. In the recent parliamentary elections, to take part in which he broke his American lecture tour, Tsurumi came out victorious, though attached to no political party. He then formed his little group and now virtually dictates the policy of the government. Next fall he is scheduled to deliver seventy lectures in different parts of the United States on Japanese political conditions. He is probably as good an orator and writer in the English language as he is in his own, and he is one of the few Japanese who combines a thoroughly western and Japanese mentality. In the United States Tsurumi writes for the Saturday Evening Post, makes addresses at Williamstown, at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and contributes articles to many publications.

TENNIS NOTES

Bill Tilden Going Strong In English
Tournament—Has Record So Far of 24 Games Won And None Lost.

London, June 21—A surpassing display of court work by Bill Tilden captain of the American Davis Cup team was emphatically the feature of today's play in the London tennis championships at the Queens Club in which star players from America, Australia, India, Austria, Japan, France and Argentina as well as from England, are entered. Many of the foreign players are using the London tournament as a warm-up event for the Wimbledon championships which start Monday.

Tilden gave a beautiful demonstration of stroke making in winning his second round match from J. C. Peacock, ex-New Zealand champion 6-0, 6-0. This brings Tilden's record for this season in England to 24 games played and all won.

WITH MODERATION

(From the Winnipeg Free Press.)

The somewhat boisterous clamor for pure and undiluted public ownership among certain persons in Manitoba at the present time is reminiscent of what happened at a meeting in Kansas in one of Bryan's Free Silver campaigns. An orator at a rural meeting had been whooping it up for Free Silver to the vocal delight and gusto of his audience. One man, however, evidently a farmer, who was sitting near the front, was interested without showing any signs of enthusiasm. He remained passive in the fact of the speaker's finest bursts. Finally the orator pointed a finger at the silent man and called out:

“My friend, don't you believe in Free Silver?”
“Yes,” said the man in front. “I believe in it all right but I ain't going crazy about it.”

M'LARNIN PUTS
K. O. OVER M'GRAW

New York, June 21—Jimmy McLarnin, Irish-Canadian slugger, from Vancouver scored a technical knockout over Phil McGraw, Detroit Greek in two minutes and 45 seconds of the first round of their scheduled 10 round bout here tonight. It was the first knockout McGraw ever suffered. McLarnin weighed 136, McGraw 134.

Three times in a punching orgy unprecedented in the Garden, McLarnin rushed the veteran of over a hundred battles to the canvas. Stalking his prey like a jungle cat, McLarnin literally swept his foe from the arena.

CHOPIN'S NOCTURNE IN F MAJOR

Nature in a mystic mood
Chants the murmuring tones that brood
Fancies of summer night.
Flower scents and dim moonlight
Seeping through the tall, tall grass
Where katydids and crickets pass
Wings of stardust catch the gleam
Of a silver bright moonbeam
Pale moth, gliding to repose,
Sips the honey of a rose
Tones that thrill the soul to flight—
Music of a summer night.

Silence—then an ominous cloud
Wrapped the moon in sombre
shroud;
Swift winds rose and swept the field
Lightning flashed and thunder pealed
Through the dark the storm fiends
crashed,
Branches of the great oaks lashed
At the spirit of the gale
Soon, its flight began to fail—
Chopin or thy summer storm
E'en the elements perform
In the notes thy genius wrought
And the mood thy madness taught.

Calm again, the storm is done;
Dark clouds shatter one by one
Thorough their fragments, shining stars
Gleam like tiny, luminous scars
In the fabric of the sky
Flimsy vapors float on by.
Nature's caresses rebound
From a silver sea of sound,
And the moonlight, breaking through
Turns the mists to silver, too
Voices, silenced by the rain
Hum their peaceful songs again.

PAY AS YOU GO
THE BASIS IN A
WESTERN TOWN

Bloomfield, Neb., June 22—This town of 1,500 inhabitants has gone on a pay-as-you-go basis. Thirty of its merchants and professional men have banded together to eliminate losses occasioned by charge accounts “that never pay up.”

Chain store competition is held responsible.

The business men formed an association which requires each member to sign an agreement. A penalty of $100 is provided for violation of this document and a committee has been appointed to see that regulations are strictly enforced.

“Does your wife attend church regularly?”
“Very. She hasn't missed an Easter Sunday since we were married.”

THE RACE POT

No. 17—Ace High, 2.03½.

Ace High, a son of the Walnut Hall Farm stallion, Peter Volo, 2.02, and Miss Dot, 2.16½ is considered one of the best young pacers to come out in recent years. He is a four-year-old.

In view of his excellent record last year when he was undefeated in six starts, it appears as if the veteran campaigners will have a tough one to trim in the big stakes. Ace High obtained his record against time over the Lexington, Ky., track and proved the fastest three year old sidewheeler of the season.

His chief engagement is the $25,000 New England Derby at Windsor, Conn., July 4. He, along with Grattan Bars, the Canadian star, rules equal favorite in the future book for the race. At Goshen and Syracuse, N. Y., he'll stack up against the best on the Grand Circuit in the $10,000 events.

Earl Pitman, the Trenton, N. J. reinsman, has Ace High in charge. The horse is the property of Aronson of New York.
