

SASKATCHEWAN MAY HAVE AN ELECTION DURING THE EARLY PART OF COMING YEAR

Regina, Sask., Nov. 24—A general election will be held in the Province of Saskatchewan early in 1929.

It will be fought to the last ditch by members of three parties.

There is every indication at the present moment that the contest will be one of the most bitter in the history of the province.

The Conservatives, under the leadership of J. T. M. Anderson, will have at least 45 candidates in the field.

Perhaps there will be more.

There are 60 seats in the Provincial Legislature, and some Conservatives say they will contest every constituency.

Already twenty Conservative candidates have been named, and as nearly as many more nominating meetings have been arranged for between now and the end of the year.

In the recent Arm River by-election a record poll was cast and the Government candidates won only by a shade.

The vote was 5,500 out of 6,000 franchise holders, nearly 92 per cent. of the electorate.

Such a poll is unprecedented in the middle-west where a 55 per cent. poll is usual.

The Government candidate won by a majority of 59 votes.

The Progressives, under C. E. Little, will figure prominently in the picture, they say.

At the present time their representation in the Provincial House has been reduced to three, while the Conservatives have five.

There has been talk of fusion candidates in opposition to Government nominees.

Both parties have refuted reports of a saw-off but there are indications that in some ridings, local officials will take advantage of peculiar situations and possibly for straight opposition candidates.

In a majority of cases, however, there is every likelihood of bitter, three-man fights.

The power and highways issues will figure prominently in the vote.

The Legislature will hold a short session before Christmas.

After that an announcement of an election date is expected from Premier J. G. Gardiner.

Sonny—Father one of the boys said I looked like you.

Father—What did you say?

Sonny—Nothing. He's a lot bigger than me.

Cop—How did this accident happen?

Motorist—Hic—I saw two bridges—hic—and ran over the wrong one.

Woman Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ont.—"I am willing to answer letters from other women, to tell them the wonderful good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me. I cannot be thankful enough for the benefits I received during the Change of Life. I do housework and my troubles made me unfit to work. A friend advised me to try the Vegetable Compound. I felt great relief at once, began to regain my appetite, and my nerves got better. I will recommend your medicine to all with troubles like I had."—MRS. JOHN BENSON, 162 N. Christina St., Sarnia, Ontario.

PLAIN LININGS
NOW FASHIONABLE

Even though one does not see much of the linings it does not do to overlook them since they are as much a part of the garment as the main material. For the fur coats, the linings are usually of crepe de chine. The plainer the lining the smarter if one except a band of hand embroidery which passes around the lining near the bottom. For the wool coats, self material may be used or no lining at all.

BLACK TAFFETA DRESS

A charming frock for evening is made of black taffeta and has a wide skirt which is short in front and extremely long in back. The skirt is lined with gold colored silk, and a little petticoat of good lace a trifle longer than the skirt is placed under it. Over the shoulders instead of straps are bands of gold colored beads, and these form an ornament upon the right side of the waist.

CREAMED CHERRIES AND NUTS

1 egg white (unbeaten)
1 tablespoon cold water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup nut meats
1 cup maraschino cherries
1 3-4 cups confectioners' sugar
Add the water and vanilla to the unbeaten egg white. Work the confectioners' sugar into this gradually until it is a stiff paste. Have the nutmeats chopped fine and the cherries cut in small pieces. Stir these into the first mixture. Knead and roll out to about one fourth inch thick and cut in bars. This cream may be used as a filling for dates also.

CANDIED FRUITS

Any fruit desired
1 cup water
1 cup granulated sugar
Powdered sugar
Select firm and not overripe fruit, pineapple, peaches, cherries, small pears etc. Make a syrup of the sugar and water. Cook the fruit slowly in this until it is tender but firm. Then lay the fruit on a strainer to drain having only one layer of fruit. Dip the strainer quickly into hot water. Then lay it on a platter on back of the stove or in the sun to dry. When thoroughly dried out. Sift powdered sugar over the fruit. Keep in a warm place until perfectly dry.

SUGARED ALMONDS

1 cup shelled almonds
1 cup sugar
1-2 cup water
1-2 teaspoon vanilla
Put nuts in a saucepan (blanched or not as preferred) and keep in a warm place. Put sugar and water and vanilla in another saucepan stir until sugar is dissolved and boil without stirring to 238 degrees F. or until candy forms a soft ball when tried in cold water. Hold pan of almonds several inches above the fire and shake vigorously while slowly pouring syrup over the nuts. Occasionally stir the nuts then add the remaining syrup drop by drop until all is used. Nuts should be evenly covered with a coating of sugar. If coating is not thick enough more sugar and water may be boiled and added as before.

Heart Trouble Hands and Feet Numb and Cold

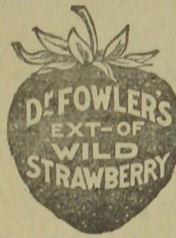

Mrs. Wm. Fowler, Auburn, Ont., writes: "Several years ago I was troubled with my heart and nerves, so bad, at times, my hands would become numb and cold. I took doctor's medicine, for a while, but it did me little or no good. I happened to see advertised and started taking them at once, and continued for some time, and since then I have had no return of my trouble."
