EPISCOPAL CLERGYMEN IN THE U. S. BY LARGE MAJORITY VOTE PROHIBITION A FAILURE

New York, Mar. 3.—Answers made by members of the Protestant Episcopal clergy to a nationwide questionnaire sent out by the Church Temperance Society of that denomination indicate by a vote of almost three-to-one that prohibition is a failure. This was announced here yesterday following of a meeting of the board of directors of the Society at which Rev. Dr. Charles A. Livingston of Setauket, L. I., chairman, read the report on the poll. The questionnaire was sent to 5,301 clergymen in all.

In answer to the question, "Is prohibition a success in your locality?" 1,394 clergymen answered "No," while but 501 answered "Yes." The question "Have we had the law enough for a fair trial?" was answered "Yes" by 1,329, and "No" by 758. The answers to the question "Regardless of one's attitude toward the use of liquor, do you believe a prohibition law offers the best solution for the problem of intemperance?" were "No," 1,601; "Yes," 643. One thousand, three hundred and ninety-nine answered "Yes" to the question "Should the Volstead Act be modified?" Six hundred and seventy-three answered "No."

When answering the question, "Should the Eighteenth Amendment be repealed?" 953 of the clergymen answered "Yes" and 985 "No." One thousand four hundred and twenty-one answered "Yes" to the question, "Are you willing to co-operate with the Church Temperance Society in a campaign for more practicable legislation in the interest of temperance and morality?" Five hundred and two answered "No."

"favor a modification of the Volstead Act with some form of Government control as in Quebec. In addition to the answers received on the postal cards, hundreds of letters have been received from bishops and rectors in every state of the Union setting forth at length their views about prohibition.

An analysis of these reveals the vast majority hold that prohibition is wrong in principle and contrary to Scripture, and for that reason, they contend, that even if 100 per cent enforcement could be obtained, prohibition would still be a failure."

"Comparison of the present questionnaire with our former polls of the clergy taken before the Eighteenth Amendment became the law," the report stated in conclusion, "shows that those clergy that formerly believed in prohibition have voted in full strength this time for prohibition, except about 20 of the prohibitionists who have had their faith destroyed in trying to build character with a club."

In addition to Dr. Livingston, the other members of the committee were the Venerable Archdeacon Jos. H. Dodson of Southern Ohio, the Rev. Dr. John W. Gill of Brooklyn, the Rev. Dr. Frederick D. Evenson of Liberty, N. Y., and Christopher T. Emmet, Jr. The report was adopted unanimously.

HIGH COST OF WALKING MAY SOON BE HIGHER

Buying baby's shoes is likely to become more of a problem than ever if one believes a prediction made by Barron's Financial Weekly that another footwear price advance is on the way.

"In view of the large and persistent rise in hide and leather prices," says Barron's, "the manufacturers are practically unanimous in the opinion that they will have to get more for their shoes than at present, and that a general advance of at least 10 per cent. will have to be made on the spring lines.

"General advance in prices were also made last year, although lagging behind the rise in materials. Upward readjustments averaged probably 25 per cent. on medium priced shoes. For example, a shoe which was sold by a manufacturer for $2 a pair is now $2.50, and some large manufacturers believe that a further advance of at least 24 cents a pair will now have to be made on this type. Price increases, of course, vary greatly with the type and grade of shoe."

THOUSANDS HAD FIRST BIRTHDAYS IN FOUR YEARS

London, Mar. 5.—Twenty-six thousand British subjects heretofore without birthdays will, according to statistics furnished by Somerset House, celebrate a total of 78,000 extra birthdays on leap year day this year.

The figures arrived at are based on the fact that it has been estimated that approximately 26,000 persons were born on Feb. 29, 1924, the last leap year day.

Since this date occurs only four times in 104,000 birthdays. This is, therefore, years, it is pointed out that those who were born on that day can only enjoy Feb. 29, 1924.

ELECTRICAL EAR AND BRAIN MAKE TALK SECRET

Washington, March 3.—Television mechanical men and artificial larynxes were forgotten momentarily today when Sergius H. Grace engineer of the telephone laboratories, demonstrated to an audience in the City Club an electrical "ear" and "brain" which enable radio broadcasters to converse without fear of eavesdropping.

The demonstration was carried on with the aid of a phonograph record of natural speech which had been so distorted by transforming high-frequency tones into low frequencies that the language emanating from it sounded like a mixture of Oriental and monkey gibberish.

While the unintelligible speech was issuing forth, Mr. Grace held in front of the horn an electrical "ear" or pick up transmitter. The tones were carried into an electrical "transmitting brain," amplified and connected with several loud speakers. Immediately these horns, in tones much louder than the phonograph, burst forth with the speech in clear, understandable English.

When the electrical "ear" was removed, the loud speaker stopped speaking and the audience again heard the synthetically manufactured language issued from the phonograph.

Mr. Grace said the instruments had "added to the marvels of science an electrical machine that can understand a language unintelligible to ordinary human beings."

their birthday anniversaries accordingly. Hence, this year, the 26,000 referred to will have an opportunity of making up for lost time by celebrating four birthdays in one, a total of 104,000 birthdays. This is, therefore, years, it is pointed out that those who were born on that day can only enjoy Feb. 29, 1924.

Face Swelled With Neuralgia, How This Woman Suffered

The experience of Mrs. E. J. Barker, of 120 Alice street, Guelph, was an interesting one. "I suffered with dreadful pains all over my face. Although I tried many medicines, my face remained badly swelled. A lady friend recommended Nerviline. Her experience had been very satisfactory. I used Nerviline with great benefit myself. I rubbed Nerviline over the neuralgic part of my face, and covered it with a piece of red flannel. Nerviline ended all my trouble, and I recommend it highly for rheumatism, painful joints, swellings, lumbago, coughs and colds. I think it is necessary in every home." All dealers sell Nerviline in large 35-cent bottles.

Mix sugar and cornstarch, add grape juice gradually stirring constantly; boil five minutes remove from fire and add butter. This makes a delicious sauce for cottage pudding or for a vanilla blanc mange.

TWICE COOKED FROSTING.

1 1-2 cups sugar
1-2 cup water
Pinch of salt
1 egg white
Few drops vanilla extract
Very few drops almond
Boil sugar and water together until it thickens and barely spins a thread. Add salt to egg white, beat and fold in syrup. Turn into double boiler and cook, beating all the time until mixture piles when dropped from spoon. Flavor. A few chopped nuts are a very nice addition.

To cry about.
