HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE IS IMPROVING BUT HE IS NOT YET OUT OF DANGER

London, Dec. 26—The physicians have not yet been able to announce that the King is out of danger as had been hoped, but their medical bulletin tonight again tells of "slow progress" toward recovery.

Lord Dawson of Penn, Sir Stanley Hewett and Sir Hugh Rigby were only in consultation for 45 minutes this evening and all three left immediately after the bulletin was posted.

Sir Stanley dined out but returned to Buckingham Palace later to spend the night near his patient as he has for some weeks.

The Bulletin.

Tonight's bulletin said: "His Majesty had a quiet day. The slow progress in general and local conditions is maintained. No bulletin will be issued until tomorrow evening."

Apparently it is intended henceforth to issue only one bulletin in 24 hours which in itself tells that the doctors have confidence in the recuperative powers of the King which had not existed previously during the whole course of the illness. At the same time they continue to stress the factor of slow progress which is a warning to the nation against over-confidence.

Again tonight the ultra-violet light treatment was omitted Doctors Woods and Hewett not coming to the palace.

Another Warning.

Still another warning of the King's continued weak condition came in the letter of thanks which the Queen sent to Premier Mackenzie King. She stated that his Christmas greeting would be communicated to the King "when his recovery is sufficiently advanced."

This shows, despite the continuing improvements of the past week, His Majesty is still far too weak to be disturbed with any affairs of the outside world however interesting and personal to himself they might be considered under more favorable circumstances.

Visit King's Sister.

The Royal Family, however, clearly is not anticipating any danger of a relapse and its members are moving with much less constraint than during the past weeks. The Queen today, accompanied by Princess Mary, the Duke of Gloucester and Prince George, visited the Princess Royal, sister of the King, at her residence in Portman Square and remained to luncheon.

Official announcement was issued tonight confirming that, owing to the illness of the King, the Prime Minister will be unable to make the customary submission to His Majesty for the New Year honor list, which consequently is postponed.

FREDERICTON PEOPLE VISIT FREE HOSPITAL

Their own clergymen call on them when needed. Side by side in wards are white children, colored children and Chinese children. Free clinics are maintained and hundreds of "our-door" patients are treated. Artificial limbs, braces and other equipment are supplied without cost. In fact all the needs of the children are supplied the same as if they were at home.

Visit from Santa

When the Fredericton people visited the hospital Christmas trees were in each ward loaded with toys, fruit and other good things for the little ones. The Fredericton children at the hospital were well and happy despite the fact that they were undergoing treatment so far away from home.

The first Shriners free hospital for these children was opened in 1921. Today there are fifteen hospitals in operation having a total capacity of seven hundred beds. During the six years that have elapsed over fifteen thousand children have been treated. All of them helped many of them restored to health. Over two thousand children are on the waiting list.

In order to keep this true Christmas work going, each Shriber contributes an assessment of two dollars per year.

Those from Fredericton who visited the hospital were impressed with the good work carried on in a quiet unassuming way by this fine body of men.

TEX RICKARD HAS NAMED HIS FAVORITES

New York, Dec. 27—A meeting of the Muldoon-Tunney trophy committee to make rules and regulations for the selection of the next heavyweight champion will be held here Friday.

The committee is composed of Tex Rickard; Herbert Bayard Swope, newspaper editor; John Bowman, financier and hotel owner; Bernard Gimbel, merchant millionaire, and Judge Jeremiah T. Mahoney.

Rickard named Stribling, Paolino, Sharkey, Loughran, and Heeney as the five outstanding heavyweights today.

"If the winner of the Sharkey-Stribling bout met Paolino and beat him and then beat Heeney, that man would stand in line for a match with Dempsey."

Probably nothing else can be as broken as a broken electric light bulb.

NEW GOVERNOR WILL BE SWORN IN TOMORROW

swearing-in ceremony. It is expected that the Judges of the Supreme Court and several Senators and members of Parliament will also be present.

At the conclusion of the ceremony His Honor will proceed to the Executive Council Chamber where he will administer the oath to the members of the provincial cabinet, a ceremony which becomes necessary on the appointment of a new Lieutenant Governor.

POVERTY ONLY KEY TO NEW CLUB IN SLUMS

London, Dec. 26—Poverty is the only requirement for membership in the city's newest club. In contradistinction to the famous clubs of Piccadilly and Pall Mall, Kingsley Hall, situated amid the noise and squalor of the streets of Bow in the East End slums, asks for neither initiation fees nor pedigrees.

It has come into being as the result of a long-cherished desire of Miss Mureil Lester, a London welfare worker, to establish a club for poor people where they might find entertainment and opportunity for improvement at nominal cost. So that its members shall not feel exploited or pauperized, she and some of her friends who are interested in her Voluntary Poverty Movement, undertake to lead a life of almost monastic simplicity during their term of service as workers at Kingsley Hall.

In conformity with her belief in voluntary poverty, Miss Lester last year refused a legacy of $2,000 a year left by her father.

"We felt that it was up to us one day to open a public house for the poor which would not smell of beer—a 'dry' pub whose attraction would be fellowship and frankness," said Miss Lester. "Our members want to read, study, debate, write, play games, practice arts and crafts, act and sing. Kingsley Hall will give them an opportunity to do these things. It will be an educational as well as a social centre."

Much Sickness

Lagrippe of a rather mild form is quite prevalent about the city at the present time. Several of the local factories have employees on the sick list and very few of the large stores in Queen street are functioning with a complete staff. Quite naturally the doctors are having a busy time of it.

NICKEL AND BRAZILIAN WERE OFF SOME IN TODAY'S TRADING

The stock market today in both Montreal and New York still showed some irregularity and the volume of trading was not large. Railway issues held up well, C. P. R. selling at 234 1/4 on a small turnover and Union Pacific at 211.

On the Montreal exchange Nickel showed weakness at 41 1/4 while Frasers was a little stronger than was the case yesterday. Brazilian was off half a point.

STAND BY FOR THE BIG RADIO TIEUP TONIGHT

Highly satisfactory throughout was the comment made by A. R. McEwan, Director of Radio, Canadian National Railways following a ten hour test in which fifteen stations from Halifax to Vancouver, were tied in preparation for the nation wide broadcast which has been arranged for this evening, Dec. 27th. From the nerve centre of the broadcast at Montreal the telegraphic and telephonic circuits reaching East and West were hooked up quickly and efficiently each of the fifteen cities reporting promptly then followed a test programme during the course of which every mile of the vast land network of wire was under trial. The numerous repeater stations required to maintain a proper level of transmission performed properly and individual reports from each station were to the effect that the strength and modulation of signals were excellent. The broadcast programme will begin at 10.00 o'clock Atlantic Standard Time originating at CNRM, Montreal, the key station, with simultaneous broadcast from fourteen other stations at Halifax, Saint John, Fredericton, Moncton, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto, London, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Yorktown, Edmonton and Vancouver. Sir Henry Thornton, Chairman and President and W. D. Robb, Vice President, Canadian National Railways, will speak, the former commencing his brief address at 11 o'clock Eastern Standard Time, midnight Atlantic Time.
