

GRAND CIRCUIT SEASON TO CLOSE AT LEXINGTON

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 22—The Grand Circuit of 1928 will close with the annual two weeks of trotting and pacing warfare at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association track here, Sept. 24-Oct. 6.

A grand total of $92,000 will be distributed in purses. The chief offering, as usual will be the historic Kentucky Futurity for three-year-old trotters. It is worth $14,000 and is scheduled to be contested Tuesday.

The nation's leading three-year-old stars will battle it out. Among them are Spencer, the New York colt that won the $66,000 Hambletonian at Syracuse; Nellie Signal, victress of the Matron and Championship Stallion stakes; Etta Volo, who defeated Spencer at the Indianapolis big time meeting; Guy Abbe, second in the Hambletonian; Coburn The Virginia Senator, Red Aubrey and Bogalusa the Great. Should a lightning fast track prevail, a new three year old trotting race record is likely to be hung up. The young sire, Mr. McElwyn, 1.59½, owned by W. H. L. McCourtie of Dallas, Tex., holds the present mark of 2.02 made over the Lexington track. Spencer came within one half a second of it in his Hambletonian success.

Several attempts to beat two-minutes are expected to be made at the meeting. Hazleton 2.01½, owned by Barton Pardee of Atlantic City and Sam Williams 2.01½, the property of George H. Tipling, are two trotters that doubtless will try. Louis Direct, 2.01½, the black pacer owned by Walter T. Candler, Atlanta, Ga., is another.

Monday, the grand opening, will see the junior division of the Kentucky Futurity trotted, weather permitting. Walter Dear, 2.06½, fastest racing two year old the season has produced; Contender, Carataker, Trusty Brewer, Egan, Stone Mountain, Hayes and Senator Ford are the leading candidates. These juveniles also are eligibles for the $8,000 Lexington, carded for Monday Oct. 1.

The two sensational Canadian-bred pacers, Winipeg 1.59½ and Grattan Bars 1.59½ are scheduled to be seen in the $4,000 Cumberland pace scheduled Tuesday. They also are named to go in the $4,000 Phoenix 2.07 pace Tuesday, Oct. 2. Hazleton, Sam Williams and Guy Ozark are the three leading candidates for the $4,000 Trotting Horse Club of American free-for-all trot on the program for Wednesday Oct. 3.

Thursday, Sept. 27, is the date set for the historic Transylvania, the aged fixture. It is worth $5,000 and will be contested by such stars as Benelwyn 2.01½ holder of the world trotting race record for both stallions and four year olds; Doane 2.02½; Minia Dillon 2.02½; Trumpet 2.03½ and Dewey McKinney 2.03½.

MANY MOVIE STARS SHINE IN OTHER FIELDS

Hollywood, Sept. 20.—Despite the brief careers of many of the movie stars, all the heroes and heroines of the films do not have to worry about what they would do if their contracts were not renewed. A check-up of some of the leading stars reveals talent and ability that may well earn them a living and possibly bring them considerable success in other fields.

Many of the women could, of course, turn to the stage, several such as Dolores Del Rio and Lupe Velez being dancers of ability. But the kindred profession is not the only one to which the stars may turn. For instance, Alice White could readily return to stenography, while Leatrice Joy and Carmel Myers might make a profitable living by singing.

Adolph Menjou speaks four languages and feels that somebody ought to pay him something for the use of this knowledge. James Gleason can stop acting any time he wants, and devote himself exclusively to writing plays. He has the upper hand in that he divides his time evenly between these things at present. While writing Vilma Banky's latest story he is getting one of his plays ready for talkies. Rehearsing his own part and casting the others.

George Fawcett has had some experience in editing papers. And years of experience on the legitimate stage before he made the grouchy old man popular in movies. And Fawcett, more than any other actor in Hollywood, understands the trick of making the audience come to him. This is really the secret underlying his characterizations and the key to his many years in a life where careers are becoming increasingly shorter.

Irene Rich says she has made quite a study antique rugs and period furnishings. She could open a shop of her own. Dorothy Mackall is a graduate of Thorne Academy, London, and Dorothy Dwan says she would need only a few weeks' practise on the pipe organ to get back her old technique.

Augry Motorist—Some of you pedestrians walk along as if you owned the streets.

Irate Pedestrian—Yes, and some of you motorists drive about as if you owned the car!

He was discoursing on friendship and was told not to be a grouch.

"I'm not a grouch. But I must say the liabilities just about balance the assets."

"One false note will often spoil love's sweet song" remarked the professor.

"Yes" chuckled the cynic "especially if the divorce lawyer can introduce it as evidence."

Little Muriel—Dear me, Mother I wish I were Mrs. Morton's little girl instead of yours.

Mother—Why child?

Little Muriel—I like her cigarettes so much better.

Y., Sept. 24—Vic Fleming, the noted Grand Circuit reinsman who is racing the Canadian pacing sensation, Grattan Bars 1.59½, has decided to make the New York State Fair track here his winter and spring headquarters.
