Start of Graf Zeppelin For the U. S. is Postponed

Master of the Great Monster of the Skies Given Warning of Storm and Reluctantly Postpones His Flight—Passengers and Crew Will Number Sixty-three—French Paper Says Venture is Insolent.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press) FRIEDERICHSHAFEN, GERMANY, Oct.
10—Held to the ground through reports of unfavorable weather conditions between here and the United States the dirigible Graf zeppelin remained at her hangar today while sixty three passengers and members of the crew waited impatiently for the start of the first commercial flight between Germany and the United States.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, master of the great new monster of the skies, had intended leaving this morning on the hazardous flight to the United States but he received word that he might encounter storms.

Reluctantly he postponed the start rather than endanger the fortunate passengers who bid so highly for places in the luxurious compartments of the Graf zeppelin.

French Paper's Criticism

Paris, Oct. 10—The Echo de Paris, in an editorial, violently attacked the projected trans-Atlantic flight of the Graf zeppelin declaring that the venture was "ostentiously insolent" and comparing it to "blunders" which led to the world war.

GUIDES WERE COMPLETELY EXONERATED

Shooting of New York Sportsman in Mistake for a Bear Was Acci- dental.

Newcastle, Oct. 8—A verdict of accidental death was returned and recommendations that hunters wear clothing easily distinguished from the underbrush, etc., while in the woods, were made by the jury at the inquest conducted here today by the Coroner, Dr. J. A. M. Bell, into the death by shooting of Clarence E. Reese, 66, New York City real estate broker, in the woods several miles above this town yesterday morning. Reese was wearing a dark green hunting jacket when shot. All members of the party of sportsmen and guides were exonerated of blame in the fatality. Reese, mistaken for a bear, was shot twice by his companion, the bullets entering the head and heart.

The body was sent on to New York this afternoon by companions, George Balfus, Ulrich Essig, and Peter Glauporioris, all residents of that city.

Robert Taylor and Myles McAllister, guides, who were with the party, and Essig, were witnesses at the inquest.

According to the evidence the party spent Saturday night at Devil's Brook, a few miles north of here, and set out for Payne's Camp yesterday morning.
Reese started out by himself. A little later, Essig, Balfus and Robert Taylor followed. Taylor pointed out bear tracks to them on the road where they entered the woods. They heard one shot, in the woods, and then heard a noise supposed to be made by a bear.
Essig and Balfus fired. After an interval, Robert Taylor said, "You've shot Mr. Reese". Just then Glauporioris, McAllister and Bliss Taylor came along. Bliss Taylor, as soon as he saw the tragedy, hastened to a telephone and reached Dr. Bell. He was given Mexico City, Oct. 9—Deaths of one child and two workmen by the earthquake which rocked the capital and nine states of Mexico last night were discovered by a police check-up today.

Buildings were damaged or destroyed over a wide area and in many places the inhabitants camped in the

In the town of Chalco, in the State of Mexico, the prisoners in the town jail mutinied during the shock but they were subdued by the guards.

(Special cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.) London, Oct. 10—The oft-denied but persistent report that the Duke and Duchess of York will visit Canada next year has been renewed and it is believed that when Premier Mac-Kenzie King sees the King he will ascertain His Majesties views on the subject.

It is almost certain that King George will approve, so there is little doubt that the proposed visit will be paid, as both the Duke and Duchess have frequently expressed their desire to make such a trip at the earliest opportunity.

Glad to Have Ontario Back as a Borrower In the London Market

Reappearance of Canadian Province After an Absence of Twenty Three Years Pleases London Financiers—The War Dislocated World's Finances But it is Felt That the Tide Has Turned.

(By HERBERT BAILEY, British United Press Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Oct. 10—London financiers are greatly pleased at the announcement that the Province of Ontario has reappeared as a borrower in the London money market after an absence of twenty-three years.

The general tendency of this city in recent years has been pessimistically to concur in Canadian and Australian borrowings being negotiated in New York on the ground that such was an inevitable consequence of the dislocation of the world's financial affairs due to the war.

It is now felt that there may be a turn of the tide at last, though financiers point out that the attraction for dominion borrowers depends entirely on the terms which London is able to offer.

THE C.N.R. HEAD WAS HONOR GUEST AT A LUNCHEON

Sir Henry Thornton was Honored in London by the Canadian Cham- ber of Commerce.

(Special to The Mail.)

London, Oct. 9—At a luncheon today tendered to Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways by the members of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce of Great Britain, George A.
Royle, the president of the organization, said that two of the greatest features of the year towards adding to a better understanding of Canada's potential wealth and the possibilities of anglo-Canadian trade had been the visit to the British Isles of the group of Canadian farmers, organized by the colonization department of the national system and the tour of Canada by the young Ambassadors.

Sir Henry in responding to a toast agreed with Mr. Royle and added: "I sincerely hope that the visit of the young Ambassadors will have beneficial results and I can assure you that they found a ready welcome in the Dominion."

The guests included Sir Felix Pole, general manager of the Great Western Railway. Sir Felix Pole said that in 1914 the railway men of England had given Sir Henry rather a cool reception owing to the way in which his coming was then announced, but when he left for Canada all of them greatly regretted his departure. Warm tributes were paid to Sir Henry by Sir Felix for the great work performed by the former in railway transportation during the war and for the success achieved in the consolidation of the Canadian National Railways.
