Locals Lose Close One To Moncton Last Night In Overtime Periods

Capitols Lose to League Leaders By Score of 3-2 in Four Overtime Periods—Game Fast and Clean, Few Penalties—Visitors' Com and the Breaks Prove Winning Factors—Green and White Play Fine Defensive Game—Irvine and Keenan Scores For Capitols—Capt. Gould and Kervin For Atlantics—Largest Crowd For Years See Thrilling Overtime Game—Locals Need Combined Play.

A close in win shot from the stick of "Fatty" Gould, tricky and brilliant stick handler of the Moncton forward line, in the last minute of the fourth overtime period after "SI" Keenan had tied the game up at 2-2 in the third period of the game, enabled the league leading Atlantics to barely nose out the Fredericton Capitols at the Arctic Rink last night by the score of 3 to 2 in a Southern N. B. hockey fixture.

Thrilling Game.
In a game replete with typical hockey thrills from the ring of the final goal in the fourth 5 minute overtime period, the two evenly matched teams battled to break the 2-2 deadlock. The first period was scoreless. In the second session Earl Kervin, who played a marvellous game on the wing for the Hub City, sagged the net behind Hickson about five minutes after the period opened on a pass from his equally brilliant co-mate, "Fatty" Gould, right in front of the Capitol net.

Charlie "Knucker" Irvine, speedy youngster of the Capitol squad evened the count 7 minutes later when he snared a pass from Keenan and skating directly into the Atlantic net, flipped a clean shot into the upper corner. It would have been impossible to save by any goaler and MacKenzie was certainly right on. After 17 minutes of play in the third period Gould scored the visitors second goal on an individual rush down the wing and boring in close again for his quick shot to beat Hickson, who was making some remarkable stops and saves throughout. It looked like an almost sure Moncton win with Fredericton trying desperately to even up the count, apparently unavailingly.

Capitols Even With 12 Seconds to Go.
However the unexpected happened and with the Moncton squad playing a defensive game and play around the Hub net, the evening tally was chalked up. A mixup in front of the net, a skirmish for the disc in front, the Atlantic goaler lying flat to save the fort, and a quick backward snap of the puck by "S" Keenan sent the disc flying into the twines over the prostrate body of the Moncton net minder, tying the score and necessitating overtime.

Overtime Periods.
The crowd which was as large if not the largest that ever attended a hockey match in the Arctic Rink, went wild when the score was thus tied up. The teams had barely time to face off when the bell ringing, ended the period at 2-2. The first three 5 minute sessions went scoreless, both teams working hard; the pace was continuously fast.

With the teams both tired in the final minute of the fourth overtime period the relentless Gould went down again and netted the rubber for the final and what proved to be the winning counter of the game; for the Capitol squad were unable to get away in the few remaining seconds.

Keene Out of Line-up.
Orlo Keene, Capitol captain, was out of the local line-up having received a injured knee and was missed for his scoring punch. "Pee Wee" Harrison was used on the forward line. Larry McLean, Capitol coach, worked plenty of relief, sending out and calling in players intermittently throughout the game. Moncton carried only one relief man James, who was used quite frequently; but for the most part, the regular three, "the Dynamite trio", Gould, Lane and Kervin, coverted on the offensive line.

Visitors Show Combination.
It was the visitors' ability to be in position ready for quick passes, and their brilliant combination tactics that gave them the slight edge over the Green and White sextet. Gould and Kervin doing a duo act time and again right up to the Capitol cage front; Hickson saved many times on what appeared to be almost certain scores.

Locals Strong Defensive.
Defensively the league leading Atlantics were slightly inferior. Every man on the Fredericton outfit displayed effective defensive tactics. The forward brigade led by "Ev" Chalmers, college star with his reliable poke-check broke up attacks repeatedly, especially in the last 30 minutes of the game. The Green and White defence pair, Charlie Wade and Eloi McKenna were about on a par with the Hub defence duo. Marvellous defensive games were put up by defensemen on either team.

Charlie Wade Strong.
The playing of Charlie Wade on the local defense last night was without a doubt his best game this year. From a defensive standpoint his work was really great. His body checking upset opposing rushes times innumerable and his offensive efforts nearly culminated in goals on many occasions. With McKenna, who also was doing great work and occasional relief from Edgar Wade used alternately on the offense and defense he formed a defense that was well high impregnable. At times however, those brilliant Moncton flashes were allowed to sneak by and the defense was wide open, but in the latter periods of the fray the defense was air tight.

Players All Shone.
It was certainly a wonderful game from a spectatorial standpoint and one which was well supplied with thrills all the way through. No player stood out, unless it was the veteran Gould of the Atlantic forward line, yet all were stars, for every man played a remarkable game. The Moncton defense Cole and Wilson were stone walls; the forward line was a continuous flash; MacKenzie the coal headed youth in the Atlantic cage was stopping everything as was Earl Hickson in the Fredericton net. Wade and McKenna, Capitol defense pair stood out with their defense play and rapid shots. The offensive line was a defensive whirlwind, poke-checking the opposition into submission on some of their later offensive fireworks.

Record Crowd See Game.
Probably the largest crowd that has attended a hockey match here for many years attended last night's game and were certainly given the brand of hockey they were looking for. Referee Archie Williams handled the game well and handed out but two penalties one to Kervin, Moncton wing for continuous offside play and one to "Knucker" Irvine for holding. Both drew two minutes. Midway of the first period "Pee Wee" Harrison got quite a severe cut over the back of his head which had to be attended to by a physician. He was able to continue later in the game and was a hard and effective worker. McKenna acted as cap-

HOOF PRINTS

"Mase" Dickinson, president of the Baye State Circuit, has registered the yearling by Nelson Dillon, 2.05 1/4, out of Our Mary, 2.10 3/4, under the name Colonel Lindbergh.

Maine buyers secured 59 head at the recent Chicago sale. Alton Richardson of Waterville bought 27, C. J. Worthen of Bangor 25 and I. R. Morrell of Brunswick seven.

Irving Pottle is Wintering Sparkle, 2.02 1/4; Jenny H., 2.05 1/4; Lee's Image, 2.07 1/4, and a dozen others at the Cornish, Me. track. Bernard Small as usual is resident trainer.

That only a dozen horses had gross winnings of more than $10,000 on the Grand Circuit last year is further proof that harness horse racing is a sport and not a business.

SHARKEY-HEENEY FIGHT TONIGHT.

Boston, Jan. 12—Broadway is a bit skeptical about making predictions—and one of these is the probable outcome of tonight's battle in the Garden, when Jack Sharkey, Boston's Strong Boy clashes with Tom Heeneey from New Zealand.

HORNSBY TRADE BIG SURPRISE TO BALL FANS

Rogers' Transfer to Braves Bolt From Blue—"In Best Interests of Club" States McGraw.

New York, Jan. 12—Trading Rogers Hornsby, second baseman and captain of the New York Giants to the Boston Braves in exchange for catcher Francis Hogan and outfielder James Welsh, the New York National League club announced tonight that no cash was involved.

The deal was for the "best interests" of the club, according to a statement issued by Pres. Charles A. Stoneham and Manager John J. McGraw.

Hornsby signed a two-year contract with the Giants last year at a reported salary of $40,000 a season, the highest paid any player in the National League.

The statement signed by Messrs. Stoneham and McGraw said:

"After due deliberation between Pres. Stoneham and Manager McGraw and having in mind what we think to be the best interests of the New York Giants, a trade was consummated today which involved Rogers Hornsby, second baseman, where the Giants receive catcher Francis Hogan and outfielder James Welsh of the Boston Braves. No cash was involved." Hornsby, former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was traded to the Giants for infielder Frank Frisch and pitcher Jimmy Ring after the 1926 season.

Newspaper Men Surprised.

News of the trade broke like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky to newspapermen assembled in the Giants' offices tonight. Neither Stoneham nor McGraw were present and notice of the deal was handed to the reporters in the brief announcement.

Earlier in the day, the Giants notified sports writers that an important announcement would be disclosed tonight and baseball circles had expected it might indicate the appointment of Hornsby as manager of the Giants for reports to that effect were current throughout the closing days of the 1927 campaign.

Hornsby, former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was traded to the Giants for infielder Frank Frisch and pitcher Jimmy Ring after the 1926 season.

The deal was particularly surprising in view of Hornsby's brilliant work afield and at that during the Giants' last drive. In the absence of McGraw, due to illness, Hornsby was acting manager of the team and during the closing days of the race brought the New York club into a contending position for the pennant. For 1927, the "Rajah" led the club in runs batted in with 125 and had a batting average of .361.

APPROVES EARLY TRAINING.

Philadelphia, Jan. 12—Rabbi William H. Fineshriber would begin training of the young for marriage at the age of 4 years along three lines—honesty, knowledge of the body and ability to get along with other children.

Jim—"Don't complain. Look at Joe. He lost his job and he's not kicking."

Jake—"Well that doesn't help me. I'm not Joe."

BLUNDERS

Why is this wrong?
It is unwise to guess the weight of a letter to determine the amount of postage required. Such guessing often results in "Postage Due," which may cause delay in delivery, and, in the case of business letters, often results in a dissatisfied customer.
