Devon took as usual an early lead and won 5 to 4 last night in a game in which the Imps rallied too late. Devon are now in the lead of the second section of the York County baseball league, having won two games and lost one. "Johns" Keene, hurling for Devon and Dinsmore on the hill for the locals, permitted only four hits each, team errors being the factor in the run scoring.

Last night's game was attended by a fairly large crowd but the fading light allowed only six innings of play. Devon scored in every frame but the first and last, getting two runs in the fourth.

Keene was invincible until the fourth. In that frame Jerry Myshrall led off with a clean hit. Kierstead got to first on an error by Miles at third. Jerry went to third on Lawrence's error, scoring on McLenahans sacrifice hit.

Big Inning

The fifth was the Imps big inning. Rutter, who led off was given a free trip to the initial sack. He stole around to third. On Cain's diuble to left field Rutter scored. Dinsmore and Thompson both went out. Cain scored on Myshrall's single and on "Kato" Keene's error of Kierstead's grounder. Jerry also scored, McLenahan flied out for the third man.

The Imperials almost led the score in their last bat. Rutter reached third on a hit and an error of Lawrence on a throw to second.

Dinsmore flied out for the second man down, Donovan having previously flied to first base. Cain was given a base on balls. With two strikes on "Snap" Thompson, Rutter tried the unexpected, making a daring dash for the plate on Keene's deliberations in the box. It proved unavailing however for Bailey got the ball in plenty of time to catch the runner standing up.

SUGGESTS JOINT CELEBRATION WITH CATHOLICS

Ottawa, Ont., July 13—With the view that one time has come for Canadians of all religious beliefs to stand shoulder to shoulder, for "one grand confederation celebration on the land of religious freedom," Rev. Col. R. H. Steacy, C.M.G., for seven years grand chaplain of the Orange Order in Ontario and prominent in war veterans associations, proposes that Catholics and Protestants should change the respective dates of St. Jean Baptiste day and the celebration of the Battle of the Boyne and unite in a yearly celebration on July first.

Col. Steacy takes the view that Canada has not any one national day. The French Canadians celebrate St. Jean Baptiste day on June 24. The Orangemen celebrate the anniversary of the Battle of Boyne on July 12. Col. Steacy pointed out that, although in the calendar, the Battle of the Boyne was actually fought on July first and he thought that Orangemen could easily change the date of their annual celebration.

He expressed the opinion that the Catholic Church would be willing to advance the date of their big celebration to unite with Orangemen in proclaiming to the world that Canada was a land of religious freedom.

A CIGARETTE HOLDER GIVES RIGHT IDEA

(New York Sun)

The girl had many amusing experiences since she first became a convert to Lady Nicotine, but one she treasures above all others.

The other day she attended a bridge party given for the employees of her firm. Her boy friend had given her an elaborately carved cigarette holder, and she did not hesitate to use it.

"I must say, Miss Smith," he said "I was rather surprised to see so many of the young ladies smoking. They look so—er—masculine with a cigarette drooping from their lips, but I must commend Miss Jones. She, at least was feminine enough to use a cigarette holder."

Since then, regardless of personal liking, the girl never smokes without a holder.

JUMPED TO AVOID POLICE

Quebec, July 13—A fifteen-year-old girl during a police raid on a disorderly house in St. Valier street last night jumped from the second storey of the house.

Three hundred persons gathered round the spot when the girl made the jump. Alighting on an automobile top she escaped injury but was taken to the police station where she pleaded guilty to charges preferred against her this morning.

Jim—How did you manage to reconcile Betty and Doris?

Will—I gave each of them a piece of gossip and asked them not to repeat it.

Enid—How do you mean you made a 'faux pas' last night, Joan?

Joon—Well I told Bill I'd never been kissed before and it appears I was engaged to him last summer.

Tailer—And the pockets, sir?

McNab—As deeficult as possible please.
