THE RIGHT SPIRIT

The many testimonials which were paid to the late Rt. Rev. Bishop LeBlanc of the Roman Catholic diocese of Saint John, by clergymen of the different Protestant denominations and to the especially fraternal spirit evidenced by His Grace Archbishop Richardson of the Anglican diocese of Fredericton in going from this city to Saint John to attend the funeral are signs that a better day is dawning. Archbishop Richardson and two of his clergymen accompanied the funeral procession from the Cathedral to the Roman Catholic cemetery, where the interment services took place.

This fine inter-denominational spirit is to be commended. It should be encouraged and extended. We are all Christians working towards the same goal, though our paths may for a time be different.

There was that about the character of the late Bishop LeBlanc which inspired the respect of all denominations.

At the funeral service in the Catholic Cathedral Archbishop Richardson of the Anglican diocese was given a seat of honor on a special throne and two altar boys from the Cathedral staff, clad in purple cassocks and surplices, acted as pages. Archbishop Richardson was attended by two of his clergymen.

Clergymen of all denominations were present and united in paying tribute to Bishop LeBlanc and all expressed their sympathy in a Christian spirit.

Example such as this of Christian charity, friendship and unity amongst men of all creeds is something which has long been desired by all right thinking people. The incidents at Saint John, as well as others which have taken place in this city within recent weeks are along the right line.

In these days when a conflict against all Christian denominations is raging in Mexico and Russia and other countries—and to a certain extent in this country—it is up to all Christian denominations to stand should to shoulder and to work together in the cause of the Divine Master who considers all men as brothers.

MR. HANSON IMPRESSED CROWD

(Toronto Mail and Empire)

The large attendance at a luncheon meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Business Men's Club at the King Edward Hotel evinced the interest taken in the visit of the guest speaker, Hon. R. B. Hanson. The applause with which his address was punctuated as the new minister of trade and commerce got into touch with his audience indicated that he was making a good impression. He talked about the extension of Canada's trade under the Bennett Government's leadership as the country draws out of the depression.

He quoted statistics to prove that the Empire trade treaties have gone far to save the Dominion from feeling the full effects of the depression as these are still felt in other countries. He demonstrated that in achieving these Empire treaties and in obtaining vast preferred markets in the United Kingdom and other parts of the Empire the present Ottawa administration has succeeded where previous governments, Conservative and Liberal, from 1896 downward, failed.

Replying to a complaint that the Bennett administration had used bargaining methods in dealing with the government of the United Kingdom, the Minister recalled Sir Wilfrid Laurier's warning to the Mother Country that if she would not give reciprocal preferences in return for Canada's trade concessions, Canada would consider itself free to turn elsewhere for business.

SNAPSHOTS

Our boys are among our best assets. The future of our country depends upon them. Let us remember this during the next few days.

Help the movement for a better chance for our boys who are not Scouts.

Fredericton has some live Boy Scout organizations. When clergymen, University professors, leading business men and others are willing to give their time and money to this work, so should we all.

Be a good Sport. Chip in what you can.

Make it an even $3,000.

Premier Tilley's address on Sunday evening to the Young Men's Canadian Club of Montreal, was one of the best heard in that connection. The Premier took a broad stand on Canadian affairs and expressed himself as not in favour of red hot narrow partisan politics.

Any unbiased person no matter what his politics, must agree that Premier Tilley is a worker and that he is doing his best to make things go.

The Boy Scout organization is not a military organization, although Baden-Powell started it and our own General Hill is at the head in this section. It is being kept away from military nonsense. Thank the Lord for that.

"DOGNAPPING" PLOT IS CHARGED

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 25—Two women who found their missing dogs in a serum laboratory sent police and Humane Society officers last night investigating what they believed to be a "dognapping" conspiracy.

Mrs. R. L. Harvey and Mrs. Beulah M. Thompson said they found their "lost" dogs in "filthy" pens at the laboratory. Mrs. Harvey declared that there were 150 to 200 dogs there, all of apparent high breeding, when she reclaimed her 12-year-old "Rudy."

TOKIO, Feb. 23—The captain and crew of the U. S. tanker Elizabeth Kellogg, grounded in the very shadow of important Tokyo bay fortifications, were cleared of espionage suspicion today.

TOKIO, Feb. 23—The crew of the British freighter Catherine Radcliffe aground off Chiba Prefecture, was removed today by Japanese fishing boats.

Boy Scout Drive Is Now in Full Swing

which loyalty to the Empire can only strengthen. It is an amazing fact that the Scout Movement the world over now numbers some two and a quarter million members.

"The movement comes very close to being self-supporting, chiefly owing to the fact that those responsible for its organization, and for the discipline of its members, give their services generously. The coming campaign which will start on the 22nd of this month, already has had the endorsement of a very eminent personage, who has had long experience in this field. His Excellency the Governor-General has reminded you that this is probably his last year of service in Canada, and I am certain he looks forward to being able to report to His Majesty that a movement which has had every mark of interest and of favor from His Majesty and members of his Family, has excited keen interest and received general support from the citizens of this Dominion.

"Canvassers will commence a direct appeal to citizens and I have no doubt or scruples in appealing to men and women of good-will for their fullest support of the Boy Scout Movement".

In an address over Radio Station CFNB, Fredericton, N.B., Sunday, February 24th, 1935, on behalf of the Boy Scouts, Hon. R. B. Hanson, Minister of Trade and Commerce said:

"My fellow citizens of York-Sunbury, Ladies and Gentlemen,

"I am grateful for the opportunity afforded me of addressing you and of extending to you one and all my warmest personal greetings and good wishes on this lovely Canadian winter day.

"I have been asked to speak to you today in support of the appeal new being made throughout Canada for the extension and expansion of the Boy Scout Movement, sponsored and led by His Excellency the Governor General, Lord Bessborough, the Prime Minister, Mr. Bennett, the President of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Mr. E. W. Beatty, K. C., and other prominent Canadians and I do so with great pleasure for I know of no better youth movement in Canada more worthy or more calculated to enhance the standard of Canadian manhood and citizenship.

"The Boy Scout Movement like so many other ideas for the betterment of mankind originated in a small way in England in 1907, and has spread all over the Anglo-Saxon world. Its founder and great leader was and is Sir Robert Baden Powell, a great British Military leader, the hero of Mafeking, who is shortly to visit Canada. His idea was to capitalize for the good of the world the "gang" spirit so inherent in boys and youths and to direct this spirit along channels of usefulness, safety and good citizenship, but it is distinctly in no sense a military movement—on the contrary it is designed to educate and promote ideals which will promote the best in citizenship patriotism and worth living. I can best emphasize this by quoting the pledge made by every scout.

"Every scout promises that he will do his best:—
1. To do his duty to God and the King.
2. To help other people at all times and
3. To obey the Scout law.

"The scout law calls for Honour, Loyalty, Usefulness, Brotherliness, Courtesy, Friendship, Obedience, Cheerfulness, Thriftiness, and Cleanliness in Thought, Word and Deed.
"Surely these are great virtues, the practice of which makes for the very highest in citizenship and are worthy of your warmest support.

"The Scout Slogan is well known:—
"Do a good turn every day", and the motto is "Be Prepared".

The training of a Scout lays its greatest emphasis on Honour and Loyalty and "playing the game of life with decency and regard for others. The movement aims to teach and enforce the practice of his principles underlying the Golden Rule and thus make the world a better place to live in.

"To the individual boy it aims to fill his spare time with healthy occupation in healthy company.

"In the diffident and shy boy, and there are many such, it develops initiative and self-relying.

"For the selfish boy it develops a

HAD NOT TIME

Editor, The Daily Mail, Fredericton, N.B.

Dear Sir:

"Would you kindly publish the following letter in your paper?"

On the evening of February 23rd, Mayor W. G. Clark was interviewed by me for the purpose of sponsoring a Play and Vaudeville Specialty which was promoted with the intention of the proceeds being donated to the Fredericton Milk Fund.

Mr. W. G. Clark informed his name could not be used owing to not having seen the play. He was told the play and vaudeville specialties would be rehearsed for his approval, and he made the statement, "I have not the time".

A man of Mr. W. G. Clark's standing as Mayor of Fredericton who sponsors the common good had not the time for the benefit of the "Fredericton Milk Fund".

Thanking you for the space.

I remain,

"O LITTLE CITY, ETC."

To the Editor, Daily Mail, City.

Dear Sir:

Some weeks ago you published in your paper a pretty little poem entitled "O Little City By the Blue Saint John". It was by the late John Bodkin, a rich Irishman who after wandering in many parts of the world came here with his brother and sister and found repose. In appreciation of Fredericton and its citizens, he wrote the poem, which you republished.

I was rather surprised last evening when I learned that this poem had been credited to our Fredericton poet Francis Sherman. I have never seen this poem amongst Sherman's collection. I knew Sherman well and the words of the poem do not apply to his career. As the older citizens are aware he was born here and here he resided until his banking duties called him elsewhere.

The young man who spoke on Sherman and his poems deserves credit in taking up a poet so intimately connected with Fredericton. I think, however, that in this particular instance he is in error.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Bayley will favour the public with a series of talks on our local poets and thus bring them more intimately before our citizens.

Yours truly,

spirit of thoughtfulness for others, and as one of its key activities is woodcraft it develops in all boys a real love and knowledge of nature with all its benefits to health and mind. In a word the whole movement is designed to develop manhood among our boys in the best sense of the term.

"The present campaign is designed to create a fund of half a million dollars to be used for the purpose of expanding the movement in Canada and putting it on a secure basis financially. Like every other good movement, it requires financial support and I am sure that the Canadian people will rise to this occasion.

This community is asked to raise $2,000.00 or about 20 cents per head—not a difficult task with proper organization, and when the collectors call upon shortly be prepared to do your bit.

"The response throughout Canada has already been most gratifying several large subscriptions have already been announced including a splendid donation of $5,000.00 from our new Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. Murray MacLaren, whom we in Fredericton are so glad to welcome to his high office. In fact the movement has the unqualified support of all the leading citizens of this Dominion, incorporation of race or religion.

"His Excellency is the Chief Scout for Canada, and he has made a stirring appeal to all our people. He has stated that in his opinion an organization which lays such stress on honour, on loyalty, on neighborliness, and on "playing the game" is the one that is the finest and is the best suited to Canada. Its emphasis on loyalty appeals to all of us, for life is, or should

"The permanent head of the Scout Movement in Canada is an old friend of yours and mine Prof. John A. Styles of Ottawa, who was for a number of years one of the professors at the old University up on the hill. He is well and favourably known to most of us. He has performed a distinguished service to Canada, and to the Empire in recent years in connection with the development. His continued connection and active direction are a guarantee that the monies raised by this campaign will be honestly accounted for, and well spent. It is hoped to increase the strength in Canada to 100,000 boys, and increase in a marked degree the work by the organization
