SPORT BIRD'S EYE VIEW

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—Can you buy a pennant? Tom Yawkey has his doubts ... since taking over the Boston Red Sox, the young millionaire has spent a fortune trying to tack a bunting on the flagpole in Beantown ... he still has a long way to go.

Fight managers say Jack Dempsey and George Blake are the tops of referees ... Baseball fans continue to wonder why Hank Greenberg was left off the American League all-star team ... they have a suspicion too much attention is paid to names and not enough to actual performances ... and they hope Lou Gehrig doesn't feel hurt ... Francis X. Shields, the tennis player pulls down $400 every week he toils on the Hollywood film lots.

Joe Gould thinks the man who said life begins at 40 was 100 per cent correct ... Joe has just departed the 30's, and he is working harder handling the business affairs of heavy-weight champion James J. Braddock than he did before.

Around Braddock's headquarters they still refer to the title as "the turtle" ... That's because Jim promised to bring home the title when he fought Max Baer and his three kids thought he meant a turtle ... the story got around and the little Braddocks have received more than a dozen real turtles from admirers of their daddy all over the country.

Philadelphia fans may boo Jimmy Fox straight into Fenway Park, Boston ... Mike Jacobs cleared $25,000 for his share of the Joe Louis-King Levinsky fight ... Mike is taking bows as the country's No. 1 promoter ... He made a 10 strike when he signed Louis to an exclusive contract ... Casey Stengel promises a big Dodger shakeup for 1936.

Max Baer is going to be in shape for the Joe Louis fight and like it ... For one thing, they are going to make him train in the mountains, far away from the attractions of the sea shore spots ... For another thing they are bringing papa and mama Baer in from the West to add the quiet home influence to the camp ... Mrs. Maxie will visit relatives and friends while the former champ does his prepping ... Only parents, managers, trainers and sparring partners will have entrance.

RAINVILLE IN NET

ST. JOHNS YACHT CLUB, Aug. 15—Marcel Rainville, fresh from his Montreal Cup triumph, headed a group of tennis luminaries in a series of exhibition matches at the club courts here yesterday.

Included in the troupe were Marcel Rainville, Henri Paul Emard, Stuart Veysey, Jack Reitman. Following the doubles and singles matches which were played before a large and appreciative gallery, tea was served in the pavillion at the club. Among the honored guests were Mrs. Fabio Monet, Mrs. Marcel Rainville, Miss Yvette Sawyer and many others noted in Montreal tennis circles. During the tea hour, club divers entertained the guests.

Veysey and Emard played Rainville and Reitman in doubles. Following this match, Rainville and Emard played one set of singles.

LOVES HER BUT RUNS AWAY AT CHIME OF BELLS

CLEVELAND, August 15—Attorney Benjamin Sacharow, counsel for Miss Minnie Bahr who filed a $100,000 breach of promise suit against Joe Vosmik, Cleveland Indian outfielder, said yesterday the suit had been settled out of court. Sacharow revealed no details of the settlement.

Miss Bahr, 28, said in her petition that Vosmik promised to marry her and later refused. Vosmik did not comment.

BRITISH TEAM IS FEARED FOR WIGHTMAN CUP

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—The feeling at Forest Hills where the British and Wightman Cup teams were practicing for their matches on Friday and Saturday is that the British are going to make a great fight this year.

The players were practicing on adjoining courts yesterday, and the banner which passed between them would not give one the impressions that they were preparing for an international tilt. Today they move into the Stadium to continue their workouts.

Helen Jacobs, America's No. 1 player and three times national champion, was of the opinion that the chances were 50-50 that the United States would turn back the invaders. "They are really good this time," she said.

On the other hand, Dorothy Round, the English star, refused to admit that Great Britain had no hopes. She parried questions with: "It doesn't do to discuss chances before a match. It might bring bad luck."

"You're hopeful then?" she was asked.

"Hopeful? Oh yes," she answered.

The British team will present a lineup taken entirely from its first ten: Miss Round, No. 1; Katherine Stammers, No. 3; Mrs. Phyllis Mudford King, No. 4; Freda James, No. 5; Nancy Lyle, No. 6; and Evelyn Dearman, No. 10.

REGISTERITE TO PROVIDE COMPETITION

(Special to The Daily Mail)

BANFF, Aug. 15—Strong enough competition to remove the Brewster Cup from Canada to the United States for the second successive year is expected to be provided this year by Miss Dorothy Clemens, New York social regitriste who has been playing the Banff Springs course in the low nineties and today signified her intention of extending her visit at the Banff Springs long enough to compete in the sixth annual golf week from August 25 to 31.

This high and ornate cup, main trophy for women during the week, which will see the distribution of more than 50 golfing prizes would make a nice addition to Miss Clemens' steadily growing collection of silverware. She has won and rewon the championship of Sleepy Hollow Country Club outside of New York, has filled her place capably on the Westchester County golf team, has two or three cups for driving, three or four marking four-some victories and for three years won the invitation tournament at Mountain Lake Club in Florida gaining permanent possession of the cup on which Glenna Collett's name is inscribed as a previous winner.

Asked if she had won any other cups she mentioned about a dozen for horsemanship and one about two inches high of which she said laughingly, "I am very proud, as I got it for playing the piano at school, my only aesthetic accomplishment."

The qualifying round for the Brewster Cup 18 holes, 16 holes to qualify and two flights of 16 each will start on Monday, Aug. 26 at 2 p.m. The remaining competitors will play off 18 holes medal play day and time to be announced later by the pro with prizes for winner and runner-up. The final for the Brewster Cup will be on Saturday morning, August 31, with miniature of cup and prize to winner and prize to runner-up. The finals of the Brewster Cup flights will be the same morning with prize for winner and runner-up in each flight. It is not known if last year's winner, Mrs. L. Kaye of Louisville, Ky., will compete again.

DEVON WINNERS OVER NEWCASTLE MEET KIWANIS

Score 11 to 2 at Devon Last Night in Final Game of Series — 'Bib' Lawrence Held North Shore Team in Subjection — Devon Hit Hard.

Devon won from Newcastle 11 to 2 at Devon last evening and swept the North Shore—York-Sunbury amateur baseball playdowns. Devon's triumph over Newcastle was a decisive one, leaving no doubts as to the superior team. Devon will meet St. Stephen Kiwanis next in the New Brunswick semi-finals.

"Bib" Lawrence pitched for the winners last night, his performance on the mound being his best of the season. The Newcastle hitters were unable to hit him in the pinches and collected only four scattered hits. On the other hand the visiting pitchers were wild and unsteady.

OLYMPIC CLUB GIRLS TO RACE AT OTTAWA

MONTREAL, Aug. 15—Pats Olympic Club will send its crack intermediate relay quartette to Ottawa next week to compete in the Central Canada Exhibition meet. The four who won the Dominion 400 metres' title at the M. A.A.A. grounds last Saturday, will make the trip. They are Gwen Pherrill, Mary Yeandell, Helen Hill and Annie Rybenick. Dolly Moore and Lollie Ford, sterling junior sprinters, will also compete in the broad jump and high jumps. In the party will be four provincial titlists.

The team will travel by motor leaving Montreal on August 18. The meet commences at 9 a.m. Monday morning, August 19, and continues throughout the day at Lansdowne Park.

The Cardinals have not been a happy lot this year and for more serious reasons.

For one thing, the St. Louis team is one of the lowest-salaried clubs in the majors. The St. Louis club believes that no ball player is worth more than $7,000 a season and very few are worth that much. The members of the team work for low wages.
