SOCIAL HAPPENINGSMiss Mamie Ivory, Miss Erma Burt and Jack Ivory, have returned from Chatham where they motored for Thanksgiving.The weekly meeting of Saint Paul's Young People's Society, was held last evening in the Fraser Memorial Hall with an attendance of around seventy-five. The meeting was in charge of the Four Square Group, Mr. Douglas MacLean was in the chair. The four groups divided and discussed the topic "Why Be Honest". This topic was discussed in all phases; such as, Business, Society, Illness, Life-Saving, War. The business meeting was conducted by Emerson Skene. A very enjoyable pantomime was presented.
The recreation period was under the leadership of Miss Willa Ketch and Fraser MacKay. The National Anthem brought an enjoyable evening to a close.S. J. Burlock, ex-M.P.P. of Bristol, Carleton County, is in the city today.
Mr. Burlock is being warmly welcomed by his many old friends.Students residing at the Lady Beaverbrook residence of the University of New Brunswick entertained their friends yesterday evening at a formal dance, conducted cabaret style in the main dining hall of the building. About 50 couples were present.Dancing was continuous from 9 o'clock until 1 a.m. and running refreshments were served, the guests being accommodated at individually lighted tables for four, attractively decorated in orange and black. Two large, illuminated crests of the Lady Beaverbrook Society and the arts faculty were placed at each end of the hall, adding to the subdued lighting effect.The guests were received in the lounge by the chaperones, Professor and Mrs. B. S. Keirstead and Professor and Mrs. Stanley C. Perry; Prof.
W. Gordon Jones, dean of residence; Herbert Wallis, Montreal, house president, and Gordon Rawland, Quebec, chairman of the dance committee.
Music was provided by Ken Jones' orchestra, Saint John.Assisting the chairman of the committee in preparing for the dance were Robert Allen, Yarmouth, N. S., and S.
G. L. Horner, Selsey, Sussex, Eng., refreshments; John Ralph, Quebec, and William Wilkinson, Campbellton, lighting, and Herbert Wallis and Alan Glennie, Saint John, decorations.Miss Eleanor Bartlett left by train for New York last evening.The Wilmot Young People's Society held its regular meeting last evening featuring a Thanksgiving programme.
Miss Mildred Barbour conducted the devotional exercises. These exercises consisted of a responsive reading, a Thanksgiving Talk by Miss Barbour and the hymn, "Come, Ye Harvest People, Come". Two excellent vocal solos "The Trumpeter" and "Until" were rendered by Everett M. Thompson accompanied by J. Harrison Wade. An outstanding item of this program was an address, "What This Generation Should be Thankful For".
Mr. Shanks mentioned by way of introduction those undesirable quantities in life—the pessimist who says we have nothing to be thankful for and the conceited man who says there is nothing good enough to make life worth living for him. Among those things for which we should be thankful, scientific inventions, the friendship of the Church and freedom of worship came in for discussion. Mr.
Shanks concluded by telling something of the history of Thanksgiving.
An enjoyable duet by Miss Arline Shanks and Miss Evelyn Stevens was given at this point. Upon request Mr.
Bartlett spoke briefly of a visit he made to the Old South Church in Boston. A recreational period conducted by Miss Phyllis Butt concluded the evening's entertainment.HARVEST SUPPER*St. Dunstan's Hall*Wednesday, Oct. 30th ario, was the scene of a charmingly arranged wedding when Miss Helene Gauthier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Gauthier was united in marriage to Flying Officer Joseph Louis Hurley, only son of the late Edward Hurley and Mrs. Hurley of this city.
Very Rev. Dean O'Reilly performed the ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of invited guests and interested friends. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a wedding gown of white satin made on princess lines, puff sleeves ending in a point over the hands. Her veil of silk net was arranged with a halo of lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose-buds and lilies of the valley and tied with silver streamers.
Miss Ann Gauthier, sister of the bride was maid of honor and was gowned in fuchsia transparent velvet made on long fitted lines with small turban to match. She carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses. Miss Mary Hurley, of Belleville, Ontario, was bridesmaid.
Her gown made on similar lines was of midnight blue transparent velvet with turban to match and her bouquet was of sweetheart roses. During the Offertory at the Nuptial Mass solos were rendered by Miss Mary Kerr and Aubrey Bruyere. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Firhurst Manor where the guests were received by the newly-wedded couple, Mrs.
Gauthier, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Hurley, of Fredericton, mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Gauthier was gowned in wistaria chiffon with a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Hurley was gowned in black lace with corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs.
Hurley later left on a wedding trip.
For travelling the bride wore a shirtwaist frock of brown crepe, brown coat made with high Persian antelope collar, small hat of brown suede. On their return they will reside at Barrie, Ontario.
The bride is a graduate of Villa Marie Convent, Montreal. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick and is a Flying Officer in the Royal Canadian Air Force. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Hurley of Fredericton, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. D. Harnett of over the tea-table. The decorations are in keeping with the season of Hallowe'en.Miss Helen Pond entertained the bridge club of which she is a member at her home last evening. Two tables of bridge were in play. The prize was won by Miss Grace Olts.

After play, refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Miss Kay Wetmore and Miss Pat Pond.Neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward who were recently married, gathered at their home at South Devon on Thursday evening and tendered them a pleasant surprise party. A large number were present and the couple was showered with congratulations and good wishes.
Shortly they are to leave for California where they will spend the winter months. During the evening Mayor A. J. McEvoy presented Mr. and Mrs.
Ward with a beautiful standing lamp and a silver candelabra, on behalf of those assembled. Mayor McEvoy accompanied the presentation with an appropriate speech. Later refreshments were served and games played and a most pleasant time enjoyed.
Mrs. Ray Burpee presided at the piano and led in a popular song recital in which everyone took part. The function which was attended by many of the community, included also Rev. W.
A. Burge and Rev. D. L. Kennedy.No Welcome Guest!Frank Arnold, of Marysville, was two hours late for work this week, although Mr. Bruin chose to pay a social call just at the hour in the morning when most people are going to work. (Probably he was hungry for he sat right on the doorstep and waited. Imagine Mr. Arnold's surprise and not a little alarm when he opened the door and found Mr. Bruin perched right on the doorstep. The story is that the unfortunate host spent two hours in an endeavor to tip Bruin off his perch with a long pole extended out through the window. He wasn't having any of Mr. Bruin... but Mr.
Bruin wasn't having any of Mr.
Arnold's bacon, either.Dr. Charles MacKay, who has been confined to his home with illness for the past week, is somewhat improved today.Classified Ads
