SCOUT NEWS

"Old Scouts form a useful body and can be relied upon to be a good influence in their communities."—Lord Baden-Powell.

Rover Moot Rugby

A rugby match between a team representing the Swedish Rugby Association and British Rover Scouts was a sporting event of the recent World

Rover Moot in Sweden, before a large gathering of spectators. The Rovers won, 12 to 3.

Scouting a Substitute Discipline

"The boys of today in many instances lack the discipline which normally would have been theirs, under older brothers and fathers who were lost in the Great War. Here is where Scouting can help a great deal."—Lord Baden-Powell.

Scout Fall Fair Ushers

Selected King's Scouts again this fall did the grand stand ushering at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto. Since the first experiment some years ago, the C.N.R. management annually has asked for Scouts, because of their dependable courtesy and efficiency.

The Scouts' Tests Stood

As a little example of the practical effectiveness of Scout woodcraft training, Lord Baden-Powell tells of an incident at the Australian Jamboree. During the night a violent wind storm blew down most of the refreshment and other "concession" buildings and marquees. Not a Scout tent fell, and in the morning the boys were cooking breakfast over their fires as usual.

Finders of Lost Children

The finding and care of lost children at our annual fall fairs has become a well established Boy Scout responsibility. During the present season a thousand or more such strayed kiddies have been picked up and looked after by uniformed Scouts until claimed, at the various exhibitions. Children's Days are the big days, the Scout fair headquarters sometimes looking like a busy kindergarten with young Scout instructors entertaining somewhat tearful guests.

England has a special campsite for "Special Test" (physically or mentally handicapped) Scouts, Woodlarks Camp, near Farnham, Surrey.

Moncton Mayor Joins the Scouts

In the presence of a large gathering of Boy Scouts and visitors from the city, His Worship Mayor T. H. King of Moncton, was invested as a Scout at the district summer camp. The impressive ceremony took place about the camp fire.

An Antidote for Discouragement

"The danger of boys of adolescent age becoming discouraged because of inability to find employment is greatly lessened by Scout training. Scout training builds up a boy's character, enabling him to stand up against misfortunes, and to look beyond himself."—Lord Baden-Powell.

Star Gazing Finance

Again illustrating the traditional Scout resourcefulness, the boys of the Bolton, Ont., Scout Troop, to raise camping funds, secured the loan of a large telescope and advertised "peeks into the heavens" at a moderate fee. Their announcement in the local paper described the stars "now showing."

Helping Handicapped Boys

The latest Scout census showed 4,740 Special Test (handicapped) Boy Scouts in the British Isles. They comprised 2,062 crippled boys, 438 blind, 592 deaf and dumb, 1,467 mentally deficient and 132 epileptics. The Scout training and atmosphere has been of great value to these boys, in many cases giving them an entirely new outlook on life.

A World Leaven Working for Peace

"The 4,000,000 Boy Scouts and Girl Guides throughout the world, all imbued with the spirit of friendliness, are a great leaven working for world peace and brotherhood. In addition are the several millions who have gone through Scout and Guide training. The young men have a will for peace, and the application of the Scout Law in business life makes for better standards."—Lord Baden-Powell.

DOUBLE WEDDING RAISES RELATIONSHIP PROBLEM

BUFFALO, Sept. 18.—The Braverman and the Sugarmans celebrated a double wedding until dawn today, and spent some of their time figuring out their relationship.

David Braverman married Miss Sonia Sugarman. Sonia's father, Hyman Sugarman married David's mother, Mrs. Mary Braverman. Sugarman and the former Mrs. Braverman are cousins.

They figured it out this way:

The bride and groom are stepchildren as well as son-and-daughter-in-law to their own parents. The bride is a second cousin to her stepfather and the groom is son-in-law to his step-ather. The bride's groom is his wife's tephrother.

It pays to advertise in The Daily Mail.
