PROVINCIAL CELEBRATION HERE

Taking up Arms Again Would Be Enormous Crime Says Pope

Peoples of the Nations Today Says the Pontiff, Living in a State of Fear Uncertain What May Happen — Will Pray To God To Disperse War Makers — Calls on Peoples of the World to Join in Great Act of Prayer to Mark Close of the Holy Year.

VATICAN CITY, April 6—That the people of the world are again to take up arms, one against the other, and that the blood of brothers is again to be shed, and destruction and ruin are again to be sown, would be a crime so enormous and so insane as to make its consideration quite impossible, Pope Pius said, in an allocution in which he again deplored the increasing armaments and rumors of war among the nations.

His Holiness said in effect, that war would be not only a terrible crime but a futile demonstration of fury, adding that anyone having the happiness at heart would rush into a certain extermination not only of their own nation but of others. The Holy Father spoke bitterly but at the same time not without hope, as He dwelt on the present European situation.

Pope Pius said the world is again seething with rumors of war, but He could not believe that the statesmen responsible for the destinies of nations would have the folly to commit such an unpardonable crime as plunging humanity again into ruin and destruction. Moreover, war in the present grave circumstances seemed to be a material as well as a moral impossibility. But, He added, if any one dared to commit this crime, then the Pontiff would again address to God the prayer: "Disperse the peoples who seek war."

The Situation Today

The passages of the Allocution referring to the world situation and peace are as follows:

When we turn our eyes on the frightful crisis—economic, political but especially moral—that grips the world, when we consider the still more dreadful consequences that are feared in the future, we have much reason to be profoundly saddened.

For, truly, while the damage of the last European war has not yet been repaired, behold, the horizon is again darkened by a threatening cloud from which sinister gleams emerge. This causes every heart to be in suspense and full of trepidation so as to recall to our minds the words of Jesus Christ:

"Ye shall hear of wars and commotions...and there shall be famines and pestilences and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven...Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth." (St. Luke, xxi).

We are not surprised, therefore, if the peoples, amid so much consternation, turn their eyes from all sides toward the common Father asking for light, encouragement and hope. As we desire to answer, so far as we are able, this filial expectation we will open to it. Our paternal spirit which, though trepidating, rests, nevertheless, with sure faith on the help of merciful God.

Not Without Hope

If, in fact, men have need at all times of the Christian virtue of hope it is especially necessary that they have recourse to it with greater in-

Provincial Celebration Here

THE OFFICIAL CELEBRATION of this province for the King's Silver Jubilee will be held at Fredericton the Capital—where it should be held. The Provincial Government will unite with the citizens of Fredericton in making the celebration a success. The Provincial Government will give five hundred dollars towards the expense of the celebration in Fredericton.

This was the announcement made by Premier Tilley at a citizens' meeting last evening.

It was decided to hold the celebration here on May 6 which is rather early in the season for us. A month later would have been better and would have given us more time. Some of those at the head of arrangements held the mistaken idea that we were obliged to hold it on May 6th. Now that the date is decided upon LET US GO TO IT AND MAKE IT THE BEST CELEBRATION EVER HELD IN FREDERICTON! FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, DON'T MAKE IT A FIZZLE. We have held some very creditable celebrations here in the past. This was due to the fact that we have had the right kind of people on the committee—people with ideas and willing to work. People who are put on a committee just because they represent some particular organization are no good if they are not active.

The remarks of the Lieutenant-Governor, which were encouraging and to the point, stated that the idea was to have the celebration local in its character and that each town hold its own celebration. IN THE CASE OF FREDERICTON THIS DOES NOT APPLY. FREDERICTON WILL HOLD THE PROVINCIAL CELEBRATION. This being so, it is permissible to draw on those from outside points. They may come here and help us celebrate. Let us make an effort to bring these people here and then give them something worth while in the way of a bang-up celebration. Acting in this connection the transportation committee of the Board of Trade through their chairman, ex-Mayor R. L. Phillips, are trying to arrange with the railways to have special week-end rates extending from May 3 to May 8. This will give those who wish to spend the week-end in Fredericton a chance to come here at reduced rates.

A monster parade is suggested. Let all the business and manufacturing concerns get busy and help this out.

Give the children something to remember the day by. Don't stick the younger children in a parade where they cannot see anything and march them until they are tired and then have them stand at Parliament Square listening to speeches which they do not understand. This is not a pleasure for them—it is a hardship. However, all the details should now rest in the hands of the committee. They are the ones to decide when, where and how the parade and other functions should be.

LET US MAKE THIS THE BEST CELEBRATION YET HELD. THE TIME IS VERY SHORT AND THERE IS MUCH HARD AND SYSTEMATIC WORK TO BE DONE.

SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS LOSE THEIR CHECKS

NEW YORK, City, April 6 — The government's campaign against sweepstakes and lottery tickets has brought grief to at least five "lucky" ticket holders within the last few days, it became known tonight.

The five, who received checks for small amounts for a recent Montreal prize drawing, were compelled to open their envelopes in the presence of post office inspectors and surrender the contents.

The checks, along with accompanying sweepstakes literature, were sent to Washington "for final disposition".

tensity in these calamitous times, believing for certain that they and their affairs are governed by the Will of God.

Let the anxiety of men's souls, therefore, rest in this virtue and let it be transformed into an ardent prayer to the Father of Infinite Mercy that better days may at last dawn for mankind. As the apostles, beaten and al-

Commons Easter Recess To May 20th

RECONSTRUCTION OF THE LIBERAL PLATFORM

Hon. Ian Mackenzie Discloses Basis of Forthcoming Appeal

MONTREAL, P. Q., April 6—Platform of the Liberal party in the coming Dominion election will be based on "National reconstruction involving the problems of housing, slum clearance, civil aviation and reforestation", Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal member of Parliament for Vancouver Centre, stated here last night at a Liberal rally.

Among the policies the Liberal party would adopt if returned to office, Mr. Mackenzie said, were the calling of an interprovincial conference "to sit for three months, if necessary" to discuss amendments to the British North America Act; conversion of the Bank of Canada into a government-controlled institution and the introduction of legislation to cure the abuses disclosed in the price spreads and mass buying committee.

Unemployment and debt would be two of the problems to the fore in the coming elections, stated the Pacific Coast Liberal member who termed the government's record in the past five years "one of incompetence and ineptitude".

ICE REMAINS FIRM IN ST. JOHN RIVER, MERCURY DROPS

Continued cold weather in New Brunswick checked the spring thaw of river ice generally yesterday. All along the St. John River and its tributaries the ice had tightened, with new sheets of thin skim being reported in some sections where the channel had been open. A full day of warm weather or a warm rainfall is necessary to counteract the freezing, it was said.

Teams and pedestrians crossed back and forth yesterday at many points and the going was good. There were few signs of the upper crust melting. The temperature varied from as low as 14 above zero to 28 from Gagetown to Saint John.

At Gagetown a crew of 25 did salvage work on the sunken tug Sissiboo. It was erroneously reported from Gagetown that the tugboat Quiddy had gone down at her winter's wharf mooring, but the Sissiboo, a larger craft, was the one that settled on the river bottom, almost completely submerged. With the aid of the fire apparatus, the hull was pumped out yesterday and the leaks stopped. It was found that the caulking had come out of the seams, in some places in sections as long as four feet.

LONG SERVICE MEDALS

Long service medals for two retired employees of the Canadian National Railways, have been presented to John Carten, of this city, and Frank Belyea, of South Devon. Mr. Carten is a well known resident here and is identified with the men's societies of St. Dunstan's church. Mr. Belyea has resided in Devon all his life and has a record of 44 years service as locomotive fireman, locomotive engineer and hostler. Both men are receiving the congratulations of friends today.

New Relief Agreements Will Be Negotiated During the Easter Adjournment.

A press despatch from Ottawa says that the House of Commons when it adjourns for Easter will stand adjourned until May 20, and that new relief agreements will be negotiated during the recess. It is said that the provinces will be asked to have representatives sit in at a conference to be held shortly. Sir George Perley announces that Premier Bennett will be able to attend the Silver Jubilee celebrations in London.

Liberal Leader Mackenzie King, after expressing satisfaction in a report from Sir George Perley that Prime Minister R. B. Bennett would be able to represent Canada at the King's jubilee celebrations in London and return to the House on May 20, declared the idea of a long adjournment was not welcome to the opposition. He objected principally on the grounds that it would delay the general election, and until that issue was decided he believed business in Canada would not settle down to a satisfactory trend.

Sir George made definite announcement in the House that the Easter recess would run to May 20. It would be moved when the order paper was exhausted but it is not believed that will be before April 17.

Some of the sting was taken out of the announcement when Sir George assured members there would be provisions in the estimates to compensate the members for extra expenditures involved in their return after Easter.

Communications will be sent soon to premiers of the provinces on the subject of new relief arrangements. The Relief Act for 1935 was given royal assent yesterday and the Government is now in a position to negotiate new terms with the provinces. Meanwhile the monthly lump sums paid the provinces as grants in aid since last August have been continued for April.

It is possible a Dominion-Provincial conference will be called during the recess but no invitations have been sent yet and this step may not be necessary.

Publication of the full report of the mass buying commission is expected next week and the report of the housing committee is expected momentarily. Legislation on housing is expected to be contained in a public works measure now in preparation.

In making this announcement in the House regarding adjournment Sir George described progress toward recovery of Prime Minister Bennett, who is expected to be allowed outdoors next week. He was up for a short time yesterday and for a longer period today, and his progress continued satisfactorily.
