

DAIRY PRODUCTS ACTS PROMISES PROVISIONS FOR BETTER RETURNS FOR NEW BRUNSWICK FARMERS

Public Works

Now, Mr. Speaker, before resuming my seat I want to say a few words in connection with the Department of Public Works and I feel sure that this is one of the Departments of Government that has expended the money of the people in a most extravagant way. A lot has been expended with very little result. Why is it that so many supervisors are drawing so much pay. I feel sure that a great many less supervisors could be employed and thus save the province larger sums of money. I feel that road supervisors should not be required to supervise statute labor at all. There is also too much expensive road machinery being used—the road machinery used in the past now left in different places exposed and getting rusty and spoiled. The farmers should be allowed to earn a few dollars during the summer months with their teams instead of having those idle and going into large expenditures to buy other new road machinery.

Budget

I was very much amused the other day when the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer in speaking on the budget said that the province has managed very well in these distressing times in carrying on the services of the province with due regard to all the requirements and as far as possible in keeping within the revenue. If my honorable friend calls this keeping within the revenue, I cannot, and very few people of the province will agree with him.

He further goes on to say that larger sums of money were given to create work. Very few people enjoyed the privilege of getting money from the Government last year.

My Honourable friend, the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, has estimated $1,000,000.00 revenue from gasoline tax an increase of $118,278.00 more than last year. I am afraid that he will be surprised.

He anticipated a revenue of $260,000.00, in succession duty or an increase of $110,131. How does he know how many people are going to die this year.

He is also expecting $34,829.00 more revenue on motor vehicle fees. This is another dream, because owing to the ridiculous price on gasoline and the charges for motor vehicle fees, and in those times of depression it cannot be expected that more cars will be on the roads this year.

I notice an increase in estimated expenditure of $93,226.29 on ordinary roads for this year. The Minister of Public Works must realize that there is to be an election this year, and in order to capture votes the Government will likely have all the working classes on the roads before election. Surely he is not going to forget Kent County this time because this will be his last chance, and I hope he will allow it the share of road money to which it is entitled.

J. A. MOORE

J. A. Moore, (Queens, Government), spoke this afternoon on the debate.

He hinted at the Opposition's "hidden plan" of balancing the budget and stated that they must be referring to direct taxation.

Improved conditions in the lumber woods brought about by the Forest Operations Act was a great advance to prosperity in this promise he stated. It brought wages up from $15 and $20 a month to normal heights.

In referring to Mr. Melville's remarks as to the habit of the government going to Carleton County to get a good man, stated that they had also received a good man when they chose a chairman for the Forest Operations Commission.

He made reference to the appointment of K. G. Fensom to the Canadian Forest Operations Commission in Great Britain.

Roads

He took offence to the remarks of some of the members of the Opposition and stated that the people of Queens County would also resent their remarks. He stated that the improvement since 1925 was remarkable.

Agriculture

A great improvement, he stated, had taken place in the agricultural industry of the province in general and the County of Queens in particular.

The Marketing Board had started on a good mission and although they have not yet had much time to get results they had already shown an added improvement to the industry.

Mentioning the Board's relation to apples he stated that they had already increased remarkably the business of selling apples.

With more advertising and the help of the board the agricultural industry should go ahead in a great measure, stated Mr. J. Arthur Moore. The increase in the prices of butter fat and hay were a good indication of the advances agriculture is taking.

Due to the shortage of hay there was a large slaughter of beef last year and beef was down in price, but another year the price should be better.

He commended the Bill introduced respecting Dairy Products and said that the government should be supported to the utmost on this bill.

Colonization

Respecting colonization, Mr. Moore stated that the opposition were not so keen on it themselves when they were in power in 1925. Conditions are materially better in that line today, he stated.

Speaking of the Cossar Farm, Lower Gagetown, he stated, he was very pleased to note that the farm might possibly come under government jurisdiction. He paid high tribute to Dr. Cossar, its founder, and stated that it will be a lasting memorial to its founder. Dr. Cossar, he stated had been interested in philanthropic work at all times, but since the quota on immigration had been put into effect, there were not many boys on the farm at the present time but if the government took over the farm they would have a real asset in it.

The House recessed to 8 o'clock, p.m.

R. J. GILL

R. J. Gill, opposition, Northumberland, the first speaker of the evening, and the fifth speaker of the day, opened his address on the budget debate by attacking the budget presented by the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer and stated that Hon. Mr. Leger expects to get $345,000.00 more revenue during the present year. "I wouldn't doubt that there would be an increased consumption of gasoline by the honorable gentleman opposite on account of expected political activity, this creating an increase in revenue".

Roads

The roads are in a deplorable condition and Mr. Gill would advise the honorable gentlemen opposite to get busy on the repairs of same as soon as the snow gets off.

The speaker referred to the mentioned question of a gravel contract in the Parish of Nelson in Northumberland County. The criticism was meant for the Department of Public Works rather than the contractor.

He mentioned that the honorable Secretary-Treasurer expects to receive more revenue from liquor, but there will not be any increase as far as Mr. Gill could see—the days of free flowing liquor. The prices of liquor is too high—so high, in fact that it tends to decreased revenue. The tendency of people is to buy bootleg liquor rather than pay the high price demanded by the New Brunswick Liquor Control Board.

"I do not see how the revenue of the province can increase, although I hope it does", said the speaker.

The speaker did not see why any of the branch lines should be closed, if the revenue from the railroads was increasing as the Attorney General had said.

It is good news to hear that the Port of Saint John is enjoying a stimulus of trade, but, stated the speaker, he knew of a case stated in the press where the C. N. R. was shipping goods through Portland, Maine.

The taking of the Valley Railroad by the government, took $6,000,000.00 out of the people's government, stated Mr. Gill.

"This government has made a sorry mess of the economic pledge that they made in 1925", accused the speaker from Northumberland.

"Where do the government see the rising tide of prosperity", added Mr. Gill. He averred that it is impossible to see prosperity with the number of unemployed as it is.

Tourist Bureau

Touching on the beautiful picture of tourist travel that the Attorney-General painted, he said that it would be far better to point the attention paid his department in another direction, such as putting people to work on farms. The only thing that is needed in this country is a market for farm products. We should devote more attention to agriculture and less to some other industries.

Municipalities

"It would be well for the government to take a leaf from the book of some of the municipalities", said Mr. Gill in stating that some of the municipalities were getting along much better than the government.

Some of the history of the Tory government as to holding the confidence of the people would not be very edifying, stated the speaker.

It was wrong, charged Mr. Gill to refuse the children free school books. A fact, he said, that would certainly add to the tendency of the people to lose confidence in the government.

"People of this province are no longer ready to extend their confidence to the government", stated Mr. Gill in closing.

Adjournment and Bills

Mr. Atkinson, on behalf of Mr. Reilly moved the adjournment of the debate which was made the order of the day for Friday.

C. T. Richard, on behalf of Hon. A. A. Dysart gave notice of enquiry.

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole to consider certain bills.

W. B. Evans, Government, Queens, occupied the chair.
