ENOUGH OF ELEANOR

Eleanor in blue and white Smiled and caught my eye one night. She was dainty, fair, and slight— Eleanor in blue and white.

So I waltzed and drifted right Into phrases sweetly trite Over Eleanor's blue and white.

Eleanor in blue and white Soon became my heart's delight. So I called again tonight, Eleanor, no blue nor white, Answered, dressed in red so bright, That she really looked a fright!

Eleanor in blue and white Would have won my heart tonight. Eleanor in RED? Not quite!
