OFFER ROSS $50,000 FOR AUSTRALIA BOUT

Three Champions Sign to Fight for Al Lippe—May Meet Carroll.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Al Lippe, who is representing the leading Australian promoters, has boosted his offer for the services of Barney Ross, the welterweight champion, $10,000.

Lippe has agreed to give the Chicago boy who holds the championship, $50,000 to visit Australia and meet Jack Carroll, who is the welterweight champion of the "Land Down Under."

If Lippe is successful in obtaining the signature of Barney Ross to a contract, he will be the fourth champion to affix his signature to an Australian fight document.

Freddie Miller has done so; Bob Olin also has come through, and Jack McAvoy, the British title holder, is another.

In addition to the foregoing, Vernon Cormier of Worcester, Phil Zwick of Milwaukee, Charlie Bellanger of Canada, Bep van Klavern of Holland, Ned Tarleton of England, Harry Ebberts of Flushing, Paulie Walker of Newark, Don Petrin and Al Trainor have signed.

ST. LOUIS EAGLES NOT MENTIONED

MONTREAL, Aug. 28.—Boston reports that it is expected Howie Morzenz will be there this winter. It is rumored that a three-cornered deal involving Canadiens, Chicago and Bruins will land Howie in the keeping of Art Ross and Frank Patrick.

Of considerably more interest at present is the report that a schedule has been made up in which St. Louis does not figure. Boston reports that St. Louis has given notice that they will not be included in the league this year, and that their players will be distributed among other clubs.

Nothing official has come out of Ottawa but the impression is growing that the Eagles will cease to fly. In any event it appears that they have not given public intimation of their intentions. In the event they do not operate the league will go ahead with two divisions of four clubs each.

ALDRERSHOT, England, Aug. 28.—Roy Leyland, English Rugby three-quarter, has been gazetted to a commission on the territorial forces preparatory to entering the regular army.

Midgets Auto Race

DETROIT, Aug. 28.—The 1935 midget automobile racing championship will be decided at the Veteran of Foreign Wars Speedway here Labor Day. A 200-lap 100 miles, race will be staged with more than a dozen title holders entered.

Prizes totaling $7400 as well as consolation awards, await the fortunate contenders. Many of the entrants have built new machines for the event, and unless rain interferes, record time should be established.

Curley Mills, Los Angeles; Ronny Householder, Detroit, and Rudy Marchese, Milwaukee, are included in the list of entrants already received.

BRADDOCK PICKS BAER OVER LOUIS

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 28.—James J. Braddock, heavyweight champion of the world, believes Max Baer will stop the march of Joe Louis when the sluggers clash in New York September 24.

Braddock, here to box a three-round exhibition and referee the main bout on a boxing card tonight, said Baer is the first scrapper watched with Louis who can take it.

"Carnera was quaking in his shoes when he fought the Negro," said Braddock, "but it will be different with Baer. I saw Louis slaughter Carnera and still believe Baer can take everything the Negro offers without folding."

Braddock rates Baer as a harder puncher than Louis.

"I'll meet the winner of the Baer-Louis fight, probably next summer," said Braddock. "If it's Louis, which I doubt, I think I can outbox him. If it's Baer, well, I whipped Maxie once."

DEVON-KIWANIS BATTLE TODAY

ST. JOHN, August 29.—The third of both semi-finals of the New Brunswick baseball playoffs at St. Stephen and in St. John were rained out yesterday, but if fine weather prevails today the series between Kiwanis and Devon will be concluded at the border and that between Hampton Ossekeags and Tramps here.

The game at St. Stephen is a replay of the third of the semi-finals which was protested by Devon on the grounds that Kiwanis used an ineligible man in that game. The protest was upheld by the New Brunswick Baseball Association and the game was ordered replayed at St. Stephen.

MOODY AND JACOBS NOT LIKELY TO MEET

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Aug. 28.—Possibility of a second meeting this year of the "California" tennis Helens—Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Jacobs—was blasted today when "Helen the second" decided against participation in the Pacific Coast championships at Berkeley next month.

West coast tennis enthusiasts regarded such a meeting as likely when it was announced last night that Mrs. Moody was definitely expected to enter the Berkeley event.

"I can't possibly get home in time for that," Miss Jacobs, American national champion, said at her apartment in the Forest Hills Inn. "Of course I'd like to for obvious reasons, but I just can't make it."

ALBANY, N.Y., Aug. 28.—Ralph Semerad, former Union College sports star, gets his chance in professional baseball tonight with Albany Senators of the International League.

BAER FACES A HANDICAP IN LOUIS' SPEED

Grantland Rice Believes Baer Will Have To Scheme New Attack For Joe's Flying Fists.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The big disadvantage that Max Baer faces in meeting Joe Louis is in the matter of speed. Braddock will be at the same disadvantage if he meets Louis.

Louis is so much faster than either Baer or Braddock—faster with his hands—faster with his feet—that both in their time will be against a killing handicap.

This happens to be the age of speed. In an airplane battle it is the speed that usually tells the story.

"If you are up against a fellow in a faster plane," Eddie Rickenbacker told me, "you have to be extremely lucky or far better in other ways to have any great chance."

Max Baer's hands can travel in a hurry, but they need a long take-off. Louis can start a punch from twelve inches, and it comes as a rattlesnake strikes. There are times when it is much faster than the human eye can follow.

For example, he nailed Kingfish Levinsky with three punches that must have landed with the space of a second.

Neither Baer nor Braddock can ever hope to match the Louis pace when it comes to speed.

They must figure out some offset—if possible. In this case it is just as simple as jumping over Mount Everest.

NEVER TOO OLD TO LEARN

At an extreme age Socrates learned to play musical instruments for the purpose of resisting the influence of old age.

At eighty years of age Cato began to learn the Greek language. Plutarch, when between seventy and eighty, commenced the study of Latin.

Boccaccio was thirty years of age when he commenced his studies in polite literature. Yet he became one of the three great masters of the Tuscan dialect. Dante and Petarch were the other two.

Sir Henry Spelman neglected the sciences in his youth but commenced their study when he was between fifty and sixty years of age. After then he became a most learned antiquarian and lawyer.

At the great age of one hundred and fifteen, Ludovico wrote the memoirs of his own times—a singular exertion, noticed by Voltaire who was himself one of the most remarkable instances of the progress age may make in new studies.

Ogilby, the translator of Homer and Virgil, was unacquainted with Latin and Greek till he was past fifty. Franklin did not fully commence his philosophical pursuits till he had reached his fiftieth year.

In his sixty-eighth year Dryden commenced the translation of the "Iliad"; were written in his old age.

BALL PLAYER GOES HOME

Eddie Collins, his wife and son Eddie Jr., who have been fishing in Cain's River with Guides Clarence Wade and George Allen, returned to Fredericton yesterday and left for St. John, where they sailed by boat for Boston. Mr. Collins will resume his duties as representative of Tom Yawkey, owner of the Boston Red Sox.

TRIES TO MIX CONCERT STAGE, MARATHON SWIMS

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Aug. 28.—Paul Chotteau is not fiddling around much these days, for in September the french concert violinist will attempt to swim the difficult channel from Santa Catalina Island to the mainland.

Only one swimmer ever officially negotiated the trip and that was George Young, the Canadian, who won the Wrigley swim marathon there a decade ago and the Canadian National Exhibition 15-mile marathon in 1931 at Toronto.

The shortest swimming route to Santa Monica is approximately 35 miles from the Isthmus to the Municipal pier and Chotteau has gone into serious training for the event. Almost single-handed and without adequate funds, Chotteau, who was a French aviator in the war, made an unsuccessful attempt a few weeks ago. The current carried him far from his course and he was forced to give up eight miles from the shore when his escorting dory encountered ground swells that threatened to overturn it.
