—Margaret Gallagher

Third prize, gold rims for eye glasses donated by E. H. Wilbur, was awarded to Mrs. John M. Carten for exhibit of Scones.

Mrs. Carten's recipe for Scones reads:

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk
2 teaspoons sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter
1 egg
Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add well beaten egg

(preserving a small quantity of unbeaten white) and milk. Roll out and cut in triangles. Brush with remaining egg white, sprinkle with sugar and place in a well greased pan. "REGRETTABLE FEATURE"

Rev. Father A. Beaton, of St. Anne's Roman Catholic Church, Glace Bay, took a right step Sunday when he drew attention to the large number of people in Cape Breton South who voted on October 14 for the communist candidate, J. B. McLachlan, fiery labor leader. Father Beaton referred to the fact that McLachlan had received 5,200 votes as a "regrettable feature."

To accomplish their aims, the communists planned a world-wide revolution, the priest said. This had been openly proclaimed at the sixth communist congress, which advocated "the violent overthrow of the entire traditional social order."

The Catholic church raised her voice against it, Father Beaton declared, upholding the family as the backbone of civilization. The communist regarded the child as the property of the state.

Some simple-minded people thought communism had nothing to do with religion but only with an economic system. Marx, the philosopher of communism, had said "the people can not be really happy until they have been deprived of illusory happiness by the abolition of religion."

The Catholic church is well advised in raising its voice in protest against the spread of communism in Canada and the other church of our land would be well advised in acting likewise. Communism should be sharply tread upon whenever it shows itself.

ROSA PONSSELLE TO BE HEARD ON SUNDAY

A "pre-view" of the most eagerly awaited event of the entire Metropolitan Opera season will be included in the program of Sunday night, October 27, when Rosa Ponselle, the great Metropolitan prima donna soprano, will sing excerpts from the opera "Carmen." The program will be heard via a nation-wide and international network of NBC-WEAF stations between 10 and 11 p.m.

A special feature of the broadcast will be the Metropolitan Opera Chorus which has been engaged to accompany Miss Ponselle in the Carmen selections.

Miss Ponselle's widely heralded plan to sing the exotic role of the Spanish gypsy during the coming season has created a considerable excitement in the world of music. Because Bizet's "Carmen" is generally agreed to be the most popular of all the operas, a new interpretation of the role by a great voice is always a musical event. It is an event certain to cause much controversy and to bring great acclaim or sharp criticism to the new interpreter. Invariably the singer must meet comparisons with the renowned Carmens of the past. This is especially true when a really first-rate artist such as Miss Ponselle undertakes the interpretation.
