

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Arthur Gibson entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Golf Club in honor of Mrs. William Cooper of Los Angeles, who is the guest of Mrs. Luke S. Morrison.

Many friends will be interested to hear that Miss Helen Scott, daughter of Major and Mrs. J. S. Scott, is expected to arrive in New York on Saturday from Los Angeles. Miss Scott is making the trip by the Panama Canal. She has been making her home with her aunt, Miss Frances Everett in California for the past seven years and will probably arrive in Fredericton early in the week, intending to make her home here for the present. Miss Scott, who was employed with the Pacific Mutual Insurance Company at Los Angeles, has resigned her position with that company.

Mrs. B. C. Foster entertained very charmingly at a three-table Bridge last night at her home in honor of some of the out of town visitors. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. S. Murray and Miss Jean Cooper. Garden flowers were used in profusion throughout the rooms.

Miss Nora Clair, of Clair, N. B., passed through here this morning on her way to Newcastle. Miss Clair is a niece of Mrs. J. B. Kileen of this city.

CANADIANA

An interesting addition to the Museum of the York & Sunbury Historical Society has been made in the way of a book of hymns of earlier times. The author of the sacred music was the late Rev. Wm. Black, pastor of the church at Springhill, and father of John Black of this city. The book was compiled and dedicated to the choir by his daughter, Mrs. Mauger, in the early days and many of the hymns were given local names and places throughout the province. The name Kingsclear is spelled Kings' Clear and is as such the title of one of the hymns. Other names include Fredericton, Keswick, Sackville and many others.

LATE FLASHES

MEXICO, D. F., June 20—The New Mexican Administration under President Cardenas initiated a general shake-up yesterday of Government department heads.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 20—A man who registered at Ottawa and Hull hotels in the past week as N. Merrill, of Toronto, leaped to his death from the inter-provincial bridge to the Ottawa river 8 feet down, after chartering a taxi to take him to the scene of his self destruction.

Some months ago The Daily Mail stated that Miss Grieve was in line for the prize. The Daily Mail had a scoop on this from headquarters. The report was denied at the time by the Chief Superintendent of Education and by others because this paper "beat them to it." But, as usual, The Daily Mail's scoop stories turn out to be true.

WESTERN BAPTISTS TO END WOODSTOCK CONVENTION TODAY

Interesting Sessions At Annual Gathering of Association

WOODSTOCK, June 20—The annual convention of the New Brunswick Western Association of United Baptists continued here yesterday. The morning meeting was opened with a devotional service led by Rev. H. G. Westrup, Fredericton Jct. The women then adjourned for a business meeting of the Women's Missional Society.

The afternoon session opened with a devotional period led by Rev. H. E. DeWolfe, Andover, who spoke on "The Three Elements of Religion." Mrs. H. E. DeWolfe followed with a searching address on "Tithing as a Solution of Our Financial Problems." Miss Winnifred Eaton, who has had charge of a training school for Bible women in Tunj, India, gave a vivid account of her work. Rev. Dr. J. Hinson West gave an encouraging address, illustrating his faith that God was able to meet all the needs of his work, even in these days. Mrs. J. E. Wilson, of Plaster Rock, spoke on "Maintaining the Spiritual Glow."

After a song service led by Rev. C. S. Young, Lic. D. S. Calkin read Scripture and Miss Margaret Smith offered prayer. R. B. Wallace, Fredericton, president of the Maritime Convention, gave a brief but interesting account of the initial celebration of the tercentenary of the life and times of Roger Williams, held at Chester, Pa., in connection with the commencement exercises of Crozier Theological Seminary.

Rev. A. Gibson, of McAdam, conducted a service of witness by young people. The following took part: Kenneth Allabg, Woodstock; Lic. Arthur Glendenning, Union Corner; Miss Annie Jones, Woodstock, who sang a solo; Miss Beatrice Clark, Woodstock, who offered prayer; Lic. Ronald Noble, Windsor; Miss Marion Rideout, Hartland; Lic. Harold Pond, Baryville.

Mr. Gibson gave the closing address of the evening, urging the older members of the Church to be vitally interested in the salvation of the young people.

Discuss New Library And Museum Building

At the regular monthly meeting of the York and Sunbury Historical Society held last evening the matter of a new library and museum, which was mentioned in The Daily Mail a few days ago, was taken up. At the way the museum has grown in the past few years the quarters have become very cramped and it is impossible to arrange the different exhibits in a creditable manner. The time has come when new quarters will have to be secured. A committee has been appointed to take up with Hon. Dr. Hanson and the federal authorities the question of securing a site of land in the old Officers' Square, immediately in front of the Old Stone barracks. If sufficient financial encouragement is forthcoming it is proposed to put up a combined public library and museum for the benefit of our citizens.

It was decided to get in touch with the Women's Institutes throughout the counties of York and Sunbury and to arrange that they suggest to their different members the advisability of sending historical documents and articles to the museum here. Throughout the county of York there are scattered today in attics and other places, valuable historical matter that may be lost to future generations by way of fire, etc., if not preserved in some museum. As these things immediately affect the history of York and Sunbury county it is felt that they should be stored in the York and Sunbury museum. If the owners do not wish to donate them to the museum they may place them there as a loan.

MEXICO CITY, June 19—Plutarco Elias Calles, Mexico's "strong man" who has guided the country in person or as the power behind the throne for the past stormy decade, departed from the political scene by airplane yesterday, presumably forever.

On the air this evening 6:30 Hon. W. H. Harrison, Attorney-General.

LATE MRS. M. R. PETERSON

A large number attended the funeral service yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Matilda R. Peterson, wife of Thomas A. Peterson, who died in Marysville this week. Service at the home at 2:30 o'clock was conducted by Rev. Mr. Steadman Smith and interment was made in the cemetery at Marysville. The pallbearers were His Worship Mayor J. Walter Walker, Rowley Manzer, George Tapley, S. J. Hallett, Jessie Stafford and Alfred White, while the chief mourners were as follows: Bert Peterson, Garfield Peterson, Herbert Peterson, Clarence Peterson, Edgar Peterson, Harold Bradley, H. P. Everett, James W. Peterson, Fred Peterson, Harley Peterson, Walter Peterson, Byard Peterson, Hugh Peterson, Donald Peterson, Andrew Peterson, Ray Manzer, Spurdin Manzer, Aven's Manzers, Dan Manzer, Allen Tracy, Kay Craig, Frank Moffatt, John Moffatt, Sanford Clayton, Hayward Clayton, Harry Peterson, Eldon Peterson, Percy Peterson, Watson Peterson, Alexander Arnold, William Everett, Edgar Everett, E.
