BRADDOCK SENDS TELEGRAM TO O'MAHONEY

Mitt Champ Picks Irish Mat Star To Throw Jim Londos in Title Bout to Be Held in Boston.

BOSTON, June 20—Danno O'Mahoney, Ireland's threat for the wrestling title, yesterday received a long wire from Champion Jim Braddock that bolstered his confidence to a new high.

Immediately upon receiving the wire at his training camp, Mansion Inn, Wayland, where he is preparing for his coming bout against Jimmy Londos Thursday night, June 27, under Crosscup-Pishon Post auspices at Fenway Park, "Danno" beamed a big smile and showed the telegram all around his camp. It read as follows:

"You picked me, Bid, and now I'm picking you to beat Londos in straight falls. Let's win both the heavyweight titles. May visit you at your training camp and may be in Boston to see bout. Good luck and best wishes.

"JIMMY BRADDOCK.

Yesterday "Danno" again went through a gruelling workout from 3 to 4 p.m., tossing three training mates around as though they were only stuffed ragbags.

He was continually cautioned by Mgr. Jack McGrath and Trainer Freddy Moran, but insisted on going a full hour at top speed.

Stella Walsh Defends Self

NEW YORK, June 20—Replying to charges she "ran out" on Helen Stephens, Fulton, Mo., school girl star at St. Louis two weeks ago, Stella Walsh, of Cleveland, holder of several women's track records, said here today she notified the sponsors of the St. Louis meet as early as May 20 she would be unable to compete.

The St. Louis Athletic Club has asked the Ozark A. A. U. to demand Miss Walsh be suspended by the national body.

Miss Walsh, who is on her way to Poland to compete in a series of meets, said she was unable to keep her St. Louis engagement because of failure to obtain permission to leave the school to which she is attached.

PROF. TURNER ENDS N. B. HOPES FOR GOLF TITLE

Hamilton Gold and Country Club, Ancaster, Ont., June 19—A powerful band of Western Canada golfers charged impressively over Ancaster's picturesque fairways today and let it be known that C. Ross "Sandy" Somerville will find no easy path to his fifth Canadian amateur title.

New Brunswick's bid for the title ended at the third round where Prof. E. O. Turner of Fredericton lost a close struggle in the second nine and bowed to J. H. Chipman of Toronto 3 and 2. Prof. Turner eliminated Aubrey Steeves of Moncton earlier in the day by a 5 and 4 margin when the draw made them opponents in the second round.

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man, June 20—P. G. Fairfield, of South Africa, who won the first of two recent round-the-houses motor car races through Douglas, defeated his teacher, Fred W. Dixon, these two being the only contestants left in the race at the finish. It was a case of the pupil mastering the master by tricks learned in apprenticeship. The race was over a course of 200 miles, Fairfield's average speed being 67.29 miles per hour and Dixon's 64.13.

BROUILLARD AND AL M'COY IN FISTIC SHOW

Open-air Bout Planned For Boston Soon—Lou To Journey to Coast to Meet Young Corbett.

BOSTON, June 20—Lou Brouillard, who won and lost two titles before he cast his first vote and who has developed into a coast-to-coast commuter during the past year, will make his third trip to the Golden Coast to clash with Young Corbett 3rd in an open-air battle which will mark July 4 at San Francisco. Agreements already have been reached and while Boston Tony Palazzola, who is now established on the coast, made an effort to promote the match, he was unable to obtain the signature of Corbett, with the result that Johnny Buckley, Brouillard's manager, although anxious to fight for Tony, was forced to sign with another promoter. The bout, which is expected to draw a gate of $35,000, will be staged in a ball park and will mark the meeting of two former welterweight champions although both of them have long since outgrown the division. Then, too, it will be a clash of southpaws, and, as usual, Andy Callahan and Honey Melody will accompany Brouillard on the trip. Transportation expenses, which are quite staggering, as you might realize, seem to cause no worry to Far Western promoters, all of which indicates that the game is in a flourishing condition out there.

Squabble Over Weight
A squabble over weight may block the only fistic nugget in sight in these parts. A clash between Brouillard and Al McCoy whose knockout streak has been the only feeble feature of the cauliflower industry in these parts is the only bout in sight, which would provide an excuse for an open-air bout at one of the ball parks. It might draw as much as $25,000. Probably more. But it's going to be difficult to clinch such a match, although Signor Rip Valenti, whose fistic losses fall to wash his smile away insists that he will wing 'em in line within a few weeks. Everybody connected with either Brouillard or McCoy's camp want the bout, realizing that it should draw a big gate, but none of them are anxious to take the worst of it. McCoy for his last bout here weighed 107 pounds and as Brouillard tips the scales at 158, he demands that the clouting Frenchman make 168 pounds. And that is something the McCoy camp can't clearly see. However, with little or no gravity in sight now that McCoy seems to have cleaned up all contenders, chances are that some sort of an agreement may be reached.

Cocoa Kid Wants Chance At Barney Ross' Title

NEW HAVEN, Ct., June 20—Louis Kid Cocoa set his cap today for the welterweight title now held by Barney Ross of Chicago, and his manager, Al Blondi, saw little doubt but that the Kid would take Steve Halaiko into camp in a 10-round star bout here tonight. With Halaiko out of the way, Blondi will serve notice on the fistic world that Cocoa Kid is of championship calibre and should be given a title shot against Ross.

MONTREAL TO HAVE TITLE BOUTS SOON

Athletic Commission In Session Recently Gives Promoters Sanctions to Hold Bouts.

MONTREAL, June 20—At a meeting of the Athletic Commission of the City of Montreal under the presidency of Ald. Frank Hogan, matchmaker, Jules Racicot applied for reservation of July 3 for staging a match at the Forum between Florian Lebrasseur, who fights under the ring name of Al McCoy, and Sammy Slaughter, noted Indianapolis lightweight. They are to battle 10 rounds.

The commission heard a request from Gene Letourneau, of Quebec, manager of Jean Lacasse, that the latter be given first chance to fight Greggerson, of Montreal, for the latter's flyweight title and accorded him first ranking position in this respect. Sammy Gibbs, manager of Frankie Martin, Canadian bantam champion, was present to demand that before Pete Sanstol fights Escobar or any other leading bantam in the world tourney, he should be forced to fight Martin, and the winner proceed into the tournament. No ruling was made by the commission.

BRADDOCK AND SCHMELING FOR SEPT. BATTLE

Jimmy Johnston, Garden Matchmaker, is Working on Fall Title Bout—Schmeling Willing.

NEW YORK, June 20—It looks like Braddock vs. Schmeling in September. Jimmy Johnston, peppery little Garden matchmaker said last night he had been informed Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion, was ready to come to this country from Germany if assured a title go and that he, Johnston, had decided to stage the fight in the Long Island bowl in late September.

Although he has not received the final sanction of Jimmy Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, Johnston said they had told him they would agree to a meeting with either Schmeling, Lasky or the dethroned Max Baer.

Braddock, who jabbed his way to the fistic pinnacle, is vacationing with Gould and could not be reached immediately. Gould previously had said Braddock would not defend his crown for at least a year.

Schmeling in his last two fights in Europe scored technical knockouts over Walter Neusel and Steve Hamas.

DEAN BOYS TO KEEP THROWING "CHIN" BALL

Are Undisturbed by the Threats of Jimmy Wilson About 'Bean Ball'—Pitch to Win, Says Diz.

(By Sam Murphy)
NEW YORK, June 20—What will occur as a result of Jimmy Wilson's threat to carry the "bean ball" war straight back to the Dean boys when the Cardinals and Phillies play in Philadelphia is being awaited with interest in major league circles.

The famous pitching brothers denied they made any attempt to hit Philadelphia players in the head, but sent word back to Wilson that they would continue to throw a high fast ball which they describe as a chin ball. According to Dizzy Dean, the chin ball is what the brothers used in the world series last fall to stop Hank Greenberg and defeat the Tigers.

It was Paul who was pitching when Lou Chiozza, the Philadelphia infielder was hit. Paul explained the incident that led to the charge of beaning the players in this way:

"This fellow Chiozza is a plate hugger. He hit me for a single and a two-bagger when we played in Philadelphia. The first time he faced me in St. Louis, I tried to fool him, but he walked. Next time up, there were two men on bases and I worked hard on him, but he belted a single that put over those two runs. I made up my mind I would use no more slow balls. It would be curves and fast ones on the outside for this bird. He came up again in the fourth inning, so I figured that I'd shoot the fast one on the inside. Instead of falling away from the pitch he ducked right into it. I wasn't to blame for hitting him. In Todd's case, I pitched a bad ball. I tried a fast one near his chin, but the pitch got away from me and Todd was hit."

Was Surprised

Dizzy appeared surprised that Wilson was spitting fire about his pitching. "Me and Paul don't have to bean anybody to win our ball games," Dizzy said. Wilson shouldn't try to drive the Dean boys out of the league. Let Wilson understand this," continued Dizzy, "the Dean boys are going to pitch their own games.

"We ain't curve ball pitchers. You see those guys don't shoot any fast ones close to the handle of the bat. They just pitch them low on the outside to right-handed hitters and low on the inside to the left-handers. When the Dean brothers pitch, they burn them right straight on a line. Of course, we don't throw them all that way because we can't make them break right. Sometimes they get a little high or maybe a little close to the batter, but he ought to be able to get out of the way of the inside ones.

Lanky Marysville Hurler in Great Form as His Mates Get 3-2 win Over Pets Last Night—Garvie Weakened in Ninth After Holding Maroons Scoreless.

Bob Estey, veteran Marysville pitcher worked steadily against the Fredericton Pets at Queen's Square last night and edged out a 3 to 2 victory, the game going nine complete innings. Permitting only six hits and only one run in the eight innings he pitched, Estey was accredited the winning pitcher, although "Pincer" Shanks took over the duties in the ninth and nearly lost the game.

The Pets had a 1-0 lead into the ninth inning on Garvie's pitching, but the Pets' hurler weakened, and a critical error accounted for three runs by the Maroons in their half of the final frame.

Nearly Got Them Back
The Pets nearly got the runs back in their half, Joe O'Connor cracked a two base hit to deep left, went to third on a bad heave, and scored on a wild pitch. Then Percy Thompson walked, stole second and third and was left stranded on third, when both McLanahan and Billy Lifford failed in the pinch. The trying was stranded on the third cushion.

The game was close throughout. Lanky Bob Estey who seems to be in for his best season, limited the Pets to only a pair of hits up until the seventh inning and kept them pretty well off the basepaths. On the other hand Harry Garvie was constantly in the hole through the early frames of the game, pulling out of them with the able support of his teammates and the strikeout method.

Estey's game was the steadier, however, and he deserved the victory.

The summary follows:
Marysville 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3—3
Fredericton 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—2
Batteries: Estey, Shanks, and McPherson; Garvie and Miles.
