CELEBRATED AUSTRALIAN BOXER IN CANADA

Is Going to England to Meet Light Heavy
Phillips There

MONTREAL, Oct. 9 — Australia's "white hope," for the eventual light heavyweight championship of the world arrived in Montreal this morning in the person of Ambrose Palmer, light-heavyweight champion of Australia, who hopes to knock both spots and the championship belt off Jack Peterson, British heavyweight title holder, before he returns to this continent for a try at the world title.

Ambrose Palmer, together with his sparring partner, Harry Lister, middleweight champion of New Zealand, is under the chaperonage of W. J.
Ahearne, one of the managers of the National Boxing Club of Australia, which controls boxing in the Antipodes. He has been invited to Wembley, England, to meet Eddie Phillips, light heavyweight champion of England, and also Peterson, the heavyweight title holder.

All three will sail on the Duchess of Richmond on October 11.
"We Australians believe that Palmer has an excellent chance of getting the world's title," Mr. Ahearne told reporters this morning in the Windsor station.

Palmer is the second generation of his name to hold the Australian boxing championship. His father, Billy Palmer, had that title 30 years ago.
Three of his brothers are also boxers and have titles of one kind or another.

"You may imagine how pleased the old man is," Palmer said.

"What about yourself?" the reporter asked. "Are you going to bring up your children to be boxers?"

Palmer grinned slowly.
"I've only got one," he said. "And no boxing gloves for her. She's a girl."

Vote Clark for action.

Mt. A. Wins In Tennis

By virtue of having the stronger ladies' entry the Mount Allison tennis club defeated the University of New Brunswick in an intercollegiate match here yesterday, the score being nine matches to three. Mt. A. won all the mixed doubles, split on the men's singles, evened with U.N.B. on the men's doubles, and virtually annihilated the U.N.B. ladies in the singles.

Lloyd Keating, undergraduate of the U.N.B. Law School in St. John and number one ranking player in the province did not play for the Red and Black. Technically he was eligible since he is an undergraduate and taking more than the three undergraduate subjects the Maritime Intercollegiate Tennis Association requires. Mt.
Allison objected, however, because he holds a degree from the University of Chicago. Dr. Cuthbertson of the faculty of Mt. A. and secretary-treasurer of the Maritime Intercollegiate Tennis Association declared that Keating was eligible but was of the opinion that "it wouldn't be very good sportsmanship to use him."

The best match of the day was the mixed doubles match which Kilburn and Thiberge of U.N.B. captured from McNairn and Fleming of Mt. A., the scores being tight. They were 7-9, 10-8 and 6-2, the first two sets being fercely fought.

The results were as follows:
Men's Singles—J. Kilburn (U.N.B.) defeated C. McNairn (Mt. A.) 6-3, 6-2.
D. Robinson (Mt. A.) defeated A. Thiberge (U.N.B.) 6-1, 6-3. Thompson (Mt. A.) defeated Austin (U.N.B.) 7-5, 6-1. R. Freeze (U.N.B.) defeated Fleming (Mt. A.) 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Men's Doubles—Robinson and Thompson (Mt. A.) defeated Austin and Freeze (U.N.B.), 6-3, 6-1. Kilburn and Thiberge (U.N.B.) defeated Mc-Nairn and Fleming (Mt. A.) 7-9, 10-8, 6-2.

Ladies' Doubles—Misses MacDonald and Logan (Mt. A.) defeated Misses Thompson and Matheson (U.N.B.) 6-0, 6-3. Misses Smith and Kirkpatrick (Mt. A.) defeated Misses Holmes and Armstrong (U.N.B.) 6-2, 6-1.

Ladies' Singles—E. Logan (Mt. A.) defeated B. Armstrong (U.N.B.) 6-0, 6-0. M. MacDonald (Mt. A.) defeated M. Matheson (U.N.B.) 6-1, 6-3. C.
Smith (Mt. A.) defeated L. Thompson (U.N.B.) 6-3, 6-3. S. Kirkpatrick (Mt.
A.) defeated M. Holmes (U.N.B.) 6-0, 6-1.

Mixed Doubles—Robinson and Miss Logan (Mt. A.) defeated Kilburn and Miss Thompson (U.N.B.), 6-4, 6-2.
Fleming and Miss Smith (Mt. A.) defeated Freeze and Miss Armstrong (U.N.B.), 6-3, 5-7, 6-2. Thompson and Miss MacDonald (Mt. A.) defeated Austin and Miss Holmes (U.N.B.), 6-1, 6-2. McNairn and Miss Kirkpatrick (Mt. A.) defeated Thiberge and Miss Matheson (U.N.B.), 8-6, 2-2. (Match called on account of darkness.)

Irvine To Try Out With Toronto Leafs Officials Announce

TORONTO, Oct. 9—Officials of the Toronto Maple Leafs tonight said Norman Schultz, Ottawa, and "Knuck-er" Irvine, formerly of the Moncton Hawks, would be tried out by the Leafs at their Kitchener camp.

One of them with be kept, after a month's tryout, as part payment for Hec Kilrea, sold to Detroit Red Wings.
Both Schultz and Irvine were with Detroit teams last year.

In speaking with The Daily Mail today "Knucker" said he would leave for Kitchener next week to report about the 15th of October for training.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10—Full schedule of the exhibition tour of Montreal Canadiens and Boston Bruins in the Maritimes was announced here last night. The two National League Hockey teams will clash at Saint John, N.B., on Oct. 29, at Moncton Oct. 31, at Halifax Nov. 2 and 4, and at Charlottetown Nov. 6. Two games will be played at Quebec, Nov. 8 and 10.

: SPORT SPOTS :

Nine of the thirty candidates for positions on the Fredericton City team were out to practice yesterday afternoon. Although this is only about one third of the total, it is a fairly good turnout considering the fact that many of the boys have to work late. It is the plan of the City to have as many as possible out to afternoon practices, and then, those who have to work late in the afternoons intend to take a few setting up exercises in the evenings, such as running and skipping.

Manager Robin Kilburn thinks the City's next game will be with the Saint John Trojans. City had a game scheduled with the Trojans last year but it was rained out. It seems that the Saint John boys are under the impression that City did not play last year because they were afraid of being trimmed by the sea port team. And now, slightly stirred up by the attitude taken by the Saint John team, City is ready to "eat them alive."

But before they meet the Trojans the City team will play a game with U.N.B. one week from this Saturday. The result of this game will give us a fairly good idea of how much "eating alive" the City boys are capable of.

U.N.B. will play a return match with Trojans at College Field this Saturday, and according to reports from the Saint John camp the Black and Gold team expects to win—yes, win. They maintain that all they have to do is watch this boy Kilburn and the scoring punch of the Red and Black will no longer be a punch. There may be a lot in what they say, seeing Johnny accounted for eleven of U.N.B.'s points in the game in Saint John last Saturday—just enough for the Red and Black to come out on the long end of a 17-6 score. But then again, the U.N.B. players maintain that Kilburn accounted for three points for the Trojans too, when the referee mistook him for a Trojan as he touched for safety behind his own goal line. At that rate it seems that Kilburn would be a good man for ANY team.

In last week's games we notice that one of them was won and another tied by virtue of a referee's judgment in allowing penalty kicks within reach of the defending team's goal posts. As we look back on rugby games in the Maritime Provinces we remember many games that have been won in the same way—probably more have been won by penalty kicks than by any other way. To our mind this is not as it should be. Most rugby teams usually carry two or three men who can, if given the privilege within easy reach of the goal, kick a football between the posts to gain three points and maybe the game for his team. A goal kicked in such a manner is an easy shortcut to victory and, in many cases, is not deserved by the team making the gain. This is not always the case, but we would say that it happens often. A victory won in such a way is not a decisive one and oftentimes leaves a feeling of dissatisfaction with both spectators and members of both teams concerned. The allotting of the penalty kick to any team within reach of their opponents' goal should not be left to the discretion of the referee.
It is not sporting. Is it fair that a team, which has grunted, strained and run itself ragged to place the ball between the posts of its opponents, should have its hopes blasted when the referee allows the team which they have smeared all over the field to kick an easy goal just because a player unintentionally lifted his feet too soon? We say no. If players and teams must be penalized for lifting feet, offside or picking the ball out of the scrum, why could it not be done by penalizing the offenders in yardage. This would be a fair way and would eliminate the possibility of winning a game without carrying the ball over the opponents' goal line.

M. A. H. A. Official Issues Warning To Puck Players

CHARLOTTETOWN, Oct. 10—Aimed at stopping the wholesale transfer hockey players from the Maritime Provinces, Neil A. Matheson, vice-president of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association for P.E.I., has issued a warning as follows:

"Official warning is hereby given that any wholesale migration of Maritime Provinces' hockey players to the United States or other places will result in the immediate suspension of the players concerned, and such players will not be allowed to play organized hockey in Canada on their return."

The warning was issued by Mr.
Matheson on instructions from James Wry, Amherst, N.S., president of the M.A.H.A.

In sport circles it was believed to have been aimed at a group of Charlottetown City League players who were offered berths on a Denver, Colorado, squad.

It would not apply to the big leaguers, Leo Sargeant and Ivan Nicholson—newest additions to the Richmond team of London, England—who come under a Canadian Amateur Hockey Association ruling, Matheson said.
