Hollywood Comedy

CHICAGO, Feb. 22—"Screen Test at Ten" a hilarious comedy of the Hollywood movie lots in which demure little Sue Gray sets out to make stars out of a stuffed shirt and a Venus with a brooklyn accent will be staged by the Princess Pat Players on Monday, February 25, at 9.30 p.m. EST., over an NBC-WJZ network. The leading role of Sue, manager of stars who won't shine, will be taken by Joan Blaine. Others in the cast are Arthur Jacobson, Douglas Hope, Betty McLean and Ken Griffen.

Old Friends Meet

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—A former German spy who listened in on the stories of the black chamber over IBC recently recognized the voice of Tom Curtin. He and Curtin last ran up against each other in Rotterdam during the World War.

David Ross isn't the only literatus around the CBS New York studios. Copy paper and carbon sheets have been disappearing from the press department, and investigation discloses that Doris Sharp, CBS vocalist is writing a play or radio script or something, and that Davidson Taylor is polishing up a magazine story.

Famous Pianist

Paul De Marky, Montreal's internationally known pianist, who is heard in "One Hour With You" and other Radio Commission programs from Montreal.

Auntie Bea

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—Whether she likes it or not, Beatrice Lillie has earned the nickname of "Auntie Bea" around the NBC Radio City studios. That is what her young nephew Junior, calls her on the air, and studio attaches have picked it up. It is a little bit removed from the dignified title of Lady Peel, but she is not a lover of dignity anyway.

That pie Eddie Cantor threw in Harry (Parkyakakas) Einstein's face the other night, wasn't a sound effects pie. Eddie actually had a pie in his hand, actually let fly with it, and his comedian-aim was perfect, as Einstein will avow.

MICROPHONICS

Emil Coleman, who provides the music for Mark Hellinger's and Gladys Glad's Penthouse Parties, is a native of England, who has been in this country since 1913. His first job in America was playing piano solos at Bustanoby's restaurant. It was a resort that maintained high tariffs and the Ed Wynn of that period used to delight in referring to it as 'Bustanybody's'.

Snapshots from NBC's family album: Tim Ryan of Tim and Irene, was the eighth-born child in a family of 16 children. He has 39 nieces and nephews... Phil Baker has christened the new baby Richard Henry Baker... Conductor Hal Kemp is married to the former Betsy Slaughter, Houston, Texas, society girl.

Beginnings of NBC's Don Hall Trio: Don (real name George Franklin Hall) Hall made his first public appearance at the age of three playing a violin at a lodge bazaar... Hortense Rose (Mrs. Don Hall) taught school before becoming a vaudeville entertainer... Grace Donaldson made her stage debut at the age of seven as a dancer with Elsie Janis.

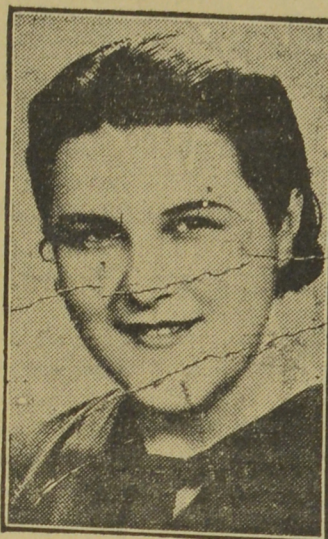

Before radio: Anthony Frome, the Poet Prince, studied law at college but turned to the ministry and filled many pulpits before deciding singing was his vocation... Ray Knight was a soda jerker, a hotel clerk, a camp counsellor, an advertising solicitor, a lawyer and school teacher before becoming a broadcaster... Art Van Harvey, the Vic of Vic and Sade, was a brokerage clerk and then went into vaudeville.

"Studio audiences are necessary to comedy programs. We who pull alleged wise cracks and play sketches that depend on witty retorts must have spectators to keep us in a clowny mood. The audience laughter stimulates us and makes for the spontaneity of the broadcast."—Jack Benny, NBC headliner.

Heard in the NBC studios: A publisher is trying to persuade Fred Allen to produce his radio scripts in book form. Rita Lane, soprano, heard with Carefree Carnival, wears a silver bracelet that never comes off her arm. It was the gift of a dear friend who died and Rita remembers him this way.

NBC studio pick-ups: A fresh carnation is always in evidence in the lapel of Frank Parker's coat. The tenor renews his boutonniere three times daily... Muriel Wilson is mourning the death of her pet dog, "Rustle"... Kenneth W. MacGregor, director of the Palmolive Beauty Box Theatre and Captain Henry's Show Boat programs, is the husband of Sonia Brownov, a Russian girl who was formerly an NBC hostess.

Popular Contralto

Miss Anna Malenfant, famous Canadian contralto, who as a member of that talented and popular organization, the Lyric Trio, has reached the heart of every music lover in Canada. Beginning March 1st, the Lyric Trio will be heard weekly in a feature of their own.

Ol' Pappy Walter O'Keefe, shot completely out of the script during last week's episode in the Hatfield-Carstairs feud, is being swamped with letters. It appears that them thar Carstairs tribe got their trigger fingers a-flappin' the other night and killed off Ol' Pappy and the whole lock, stock, barrel, kit and kaboodle of the Hatfield gentry. But the fans protest. They don't want that Ol' Pappy should lose his feud so quick-like. They demand that he get up out of that dead state and personally bang the daylights out of Louis McGillicuddy Sorin Carstairs. So maybe

BILLY AND PIERRE

As a result of many requests from all parts of Canada, the Commission reversed its decision to discontinue the program, "Billy and Pierre." This feature was resumed on February 18. Produced in the Montreal studios of the Radio Commission, Billy and Pierre is a dramatic skit broadcast five nights a week at 8.30 A.M., on the Eastern network illustrating the adventures of the two typical lads.

Leader of Young Republicans To Speak Over the Airwaves

Organization of the nation's young Republicans will be urged in a coast-to-coast radio address over WABC and the Columbia chain tonight, by Georg Olmsted, national chairman of the Young Republicans National Committee.

Olmsted will speak from the studios of Columbia's Kansas City affiliate, KMBC, and will be heard from 12.30 to 12.45 A.M. AST. His 15-minute talk will be entitled "Mobilizing Liberal Republicans."

Stays at Home

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—Lawrence Tibbett, NBC baritone has never made a professional appearance outside of America, and he has enough offers from Europe, South America, Australia and the Far East to keep him busy for at least ten years. His recordings are especially heavy sellers in Australia.

We'll hear the squirrel-guns a cracklin' over them pink-grass ridges again,
