re Four

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1935 THE DAILY MAIL, FREDERICTON, N. B.,

triple role of bur in the blanket, pin in the balloon and dynamite grease, Mr. G. G. McGeer, the new Liberal member for Vancouver said: can do good service to the cause of true liberalism on Parliamen movie stars of all ages, shapes and city would not endorse the proposal

At present, Mr. Turnbull argued gested by the executive there would (11) Where in the Rural cemetery 361 Quees Street

Outside Rates

traveling to outside markets. In this respect, the present set-up of the rail-whether the C.N R. would continue to diversion of traffic to United States and God-fearing people. We have our

A more important aspect was the history of The Hermitage?

(15)

II. A. DUKII

OVERALLS, WORK PANTS, GLOVES Tweedsmuir their congratulations upon his appointment as Governor-General of Ganada. The letter contained an assurance of the unswerving fidelity of the Six Nations to the British Crown as demonstrated over a period Phone 1234 of 150 years and extended an invita-Repairing Promptly Attended To tion to Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir to visit the reserve. Men's Suits Dry Cleaned and Pressed

loes more for the soul of a large and self-contented parliamentary sizes flow steadily into Hollywood- until it had been approved by the than the presence in its midst of a conscientious and unquenchable but Ben Plazza fears a "serious short- three provinces ge" of talent.

Head of the scouting corps of a here, control over local rates was vir- (10) major film studio, Plazza, in a report tually vested in Moncton. Rates sug-es are taken imme- not, he felt, be turned down Parliament Building planted? Where was Fredericton's first inn, and what was it called?

Where was the Royal Oak Inn? What do you know about the curious how often the story of the Titanic is retold. When one con- aid to Little Theatre groups; develop- the full resources of the C.N.R. Were many ships were sunk during the War, and the vast casualty list ment of dramatic schools in universi- they divorced it was questionable one marvels at the fact that this particular incident—but one in the ties and colleges.

USUAL

Titanic

ry of marine disasters—should have captured the popular imagina-received the groundwork of his dra-from the Maritimes at competit-y be because the story of the Titanic in its essence is Greek. The was among those cited as examples of up that the ports-Halifax and Saint te Star liner was more than a mere passenger boat, it represented actors who found a direct route from John especially-might suffer through ulated achievements of the age of steam; it was the symbol of amateur theatricals to the studios. quest over the elements. It was unsinkable. The publicity which s maiden voyage across the Atlantic was imbued with a triumphant The Titanic was luxurious beyond the wildest dreams of men, it and modern-and it was unsinkable. And then it sank. When the hich grazed the Titanic ripped open the ship's bottom there was olt-and the band continued to play the music of Strauss. Nemesis, again came into their own.

satisfaction. Professor E. J. Pratt, a man of letters whose poetry velop heat more rapidly than do ism of Upper Canada. been accorded international acclaim, has attained new heights plants, so it is possible to kill the in- "Let us not allow some clever law- Canadian Government officials to

-----Why Britain is Anxious

dvent of British men-of-war in the Mediterranean Sea was something Sative at a rate of 50,000,000 times a a mere gesture at Italy before League of Nations sanctions should ed. Britain has territory in the Mediterranean besides the big, gunock known as Gibraltar, including Cyprus and the Maltese Islands, European powers have been casting envious eyes. The largest of h island colonies is Cyprus, which alone is now estimated to have on of 057,000, its main industry being agriculture. The Maltese isive in number, Malta itself, with an area of 95 square miles, being . The others are Gozo, Comino, Cominotto and Filfla. Malta itself and air base, and Valetta, its capital, has a population of 80,000. s of 1931 gives the total population of the five islands as 241,621. cipal exports are minerals, and they are one of Canada's few rivals luction of asbestos. On the other hand, the latest British Overseas port states that, while Australia supplies them with flour and Inotton goods, their motor cars are imported from Canada.

diately to meet the situation, the industry, within a few years, may find itself unable to replace the important fixing of rates on Maritime products stars it has today. He recommended

Subsidization of stock companies; way in the Maritimes had behind it matic training at Cornell University, ive rates. The possibility was opened ports. "We Maritimers are a law-abiding

New Ray Fatal

To Insect Pests fighting the centralized industrialism of Ontario and Quebec. When the BALTIMORE, Maryland, Nov. 22- British North America Act comes up

A "death ray" designed for use for revision, we in New Brunswick (Continued from Page One) urked in the background and whose hand could be seen even in the agginst insect pests, but conceivably and the other Maritime provinces beacons across the country have been hism which accompanied that fatal voyage, closed in silently, with capable of being amplified to kill hu- must fight for the rights of our heri- constructed looking to the time when swiftness. Triumph was turned to disaster, comfort to horror. The man beings, was described here today tage and we are going to get them!" with financial recovery and the exat a meeting of the Eastern Branch of Such was the sentiment expressed pansion of flying regular services ot surprising, therefore, that Noel Coward, presenting the cavalcade Entomologists by Dr. Thomas J. Head leader of the provincial opposition, at American Association of Economic by the Hon. F. C. Squires, Woodstock, may be established. The conference now opening will entieth Century, should have singled out the incident of the Titanic lee, Professor of Entomology at Rut the Lancaster citizens' dinner last survey the accomplishments up to nark of the century, and it is likewise not surprising that the inci- gers University. He explained that evening. He visualized the status of date, pass upon the latest data, and d now be recorded in an epic poem. That the author is a Canadian, "sterilization" of insects by "radio the Maritimes, particularly New make arrangements for the co-operaonto man (although originally from the Maritimes) is a matter of ple of seconds". Animals, he said. de- free themselves from the industrial- bolder experimentation planned for next summer st poem "The Titanic," offlicially published on Friday, November 15. is now recorded in verse that is worthy of the theme. Sects by heat, without injuring the plant. His apparatus consists of an North America Act in a manner baf. Sects by heat, without injuring the plant. His apparatus consists of an North America Act in a manner baf. electrostatic field confined by two fling to us at the time," he stated. 'We Loring Christie, K.C., of the External electrodes. By radio oscillation of an must be on our guard and fight with Affairs Department; P. T. Coolican, 8,000-volt envery between the elec-trodes, he has killed insects. The just rights." Assistant Deputy Postmaster General, and J. A. Wilson, director of Civil trodes, he has killed insects. The just rights." electrodes change from positive to ne-

It pays to advertise in The Daily minute, Dr. Headlee said. Mail.

JONES BROS. (LLOYD JONES AND VINCENT JONES) Modern Grocery Store Special — 3 pkgs. Cornflakes, 21c - WE DELIVER -PHONE 958-11 310 QUEEN ST.

stone? (12)

What Irishman who was later to become famous, came here as a Major with the first Imperial Regiment to arrive-the 54th?

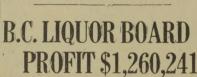

What Sergeant in the same Regiment afterwards became a writer and a member of the Imperial Parliament? Where in this vicinity did the French Acadians have a church as early as 1694? What tragic event happened at the then village of St. Anne's on February 28, 1759?

backs to the wall for a long time. Development Air Service to Britain

Aviation.

VICTORIA, Nov. 22 - The British Columbia Government made a net profit of $1,260,241 on liquor sales in the six-month period ended Sept. 30, it was reported yesterday, compare with $1,060.969 in the same period last year. Sales totalled $5,416,410.

It pays to advertise in The Daily give you an added protection against moths while the garments are stored for the winter

Buzzell's Dye Works

The Mistake ...

In the prime of his life He married a wife, He planned that his stomach she'd fill. But on cooking the cake She made a mistake, The flavor was just about nil.

Now if you are wise You will soon recognize This sad mistake in disguise. Cheap flavoring she bought When IMPERIAL she ought But she uses it now. She is wise.

IMPERIAL PURE EXTRACT LEMON and VANILLA

- USE -

2-oz. for 23c Ask your grocer for it

-Manufactured by--

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.

Fredericton, N. B.