England Goes For Hockey in Big Way

OTTAWA, Oct. 1-An "amazinig" future for hockey in England was predicted yesterday by J. F. Ahearne, secretary of the British Ice Hockey Association. With Carl Earhardt, vice president of the British body, Mr. Ahearne is here to adjust relations with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

"Two years ago" Mr. Ahearne said, "our teams played to between 4,000 and 5,000 people a week. Last year we were drawing 30,000 weekly. This year with new teams and new rinks we shall double that or very nearly" Mr. Ahearne said English fans are absorbing quickly the fine points of

BIG SHAKE-UP FOR CARDINALS

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1-The St. Louis Cardinals face a drastic shakeup because they failed to retain their National League pennant, Branch Rickey, vice-president and general manager ,told newspapermen here recently "for publication when St. Louis mathematically is eliminated".

Rickey blamed the Cardinals' failure on internal dissension and emphasized that he is determined there will be no repetition next year.

Although most of the trouble centered around the Dean brothers, Dizzy and Paul Rickey said that neither of them would be sold or traded. Joe Medwick, outfielder, who had a fist-fight in Pittsburgh, is expected to go. Frankie Frisch will continue as man-

Canadiens To Train At Quebec This Year Forget Announces

MONTREAL, Oct. 1—Canadiens of the National Hockey League will pitch their training camp at Quebec next month, Maurice Forget, one of the new owners, announced today following his return from the N.H.L. meet-7.45-Dangerous Paradise-dramatic ing yesterday at Toronto.

While at Toronto, Forget completed plans with Art Ross of Boston Bruins for a pre-season interclub series in Quebec and possibly a short tour of the Maritime Provinces

Forget said that Vancouver, Winnipeg and Quebec had been under consideration as training sites but Quebec was picked after successful arrangements had been closed with the Bruins. Boston has prepared for the winter campaign in Quebec for the past two years and last autumn travelled to the Maritimes, where Canadiens were in training at Saint John, Moncton and Halifax, concluding the series with a contest at Quebec.

Among amateurs expected to get tryouts with the "Flying Frenchmen" are Rolland "Dizzy" Desilets who hails from Stratford, Ont., and has campaigned in the Maritimes; George Tupin of Montreal; Maxie Bennett, former Hamilton Tiger star, and M. Nadeau, 192-pound defence star of Quebec Aces.

NO WORK NO FOOD

When will the nuisance of able bodied men coming around to the homes and asking for handouts end? The answer is probably "never" as the thing is as old as the ages, and man, of a certain type, is as indolent as ever. The occasional caller of this nature is a matter of no great concern but the frequency of the visitations that exists today is a matter of much concern. This frequency will probably continue and increase unless householders take a firmer stand than many are taking today.

A clergyman of this town was walking along the street a short time ago when he was accosted for the price of a meal. He replied that he had no money on him. The seeker of the free meal, or rather the price of a meal, then became abusive, remarking "you are ging to preach the gospel of Christ. Don't you thnik it would be better if you practiced it a bit." The minister was equal to the occasion and repeated scripture to the effect that any man who would not work should not eat.

We commend our clerical friend for the reply so given. We would suggest that the thought be given a wider application.

There are many men going around the country preying on hardworking and poor people who would soon get to work if they realized that that was the only route to food.

We would at all times be humane. We do, however, contend that free feeding of able bodied, lazy loafers is neither humane nor Christian-Truro News.
