Their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Countess of Bessborough entertained at tea yesterday the delegates to the National annual meeting of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire.

The Victorian Order Board held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, with Ald. H. D. Dobie, of Devon, vice-president in the chair. There was a good attendance of members. The nurses report 73 cases nursed during April. There were 367 nursing visits, also 65 non-nursing visits. Attendance at the Well Baby Conference had been good. There were 21 new cases, and 18 babies were referred to own physicians. Tea had been served in Devon by the ladies of the Gibson Memorial church, and in Fredericton by the Golden Rule circle and the Catholic Women's League. Miss Winnifred Dawson, eastern supervisor had paid a visit to this city during the month which had been greatly appreciated by the Board.

The Ella Thorne Circle of the King's Daughters held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Jean Smith, Saunders street last evening with Miss Gertrude Davis in the chair. The devotional period was in charge of Miss Anne Sypher. Miss Davis read "Teach Me To Love," and Miss Sypher sang a solo "Morning Noon and Night," by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Reports were presented and routine business was done. The meeting closed with the King's Daughters prayer, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Edith Curll and Miss Ella Chappell.

CANADIANA

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

If you follow the gleam of a high ideal
You must travel by rugged ways,
While the light burns dim in darkest night
And flickers through dreary days.

When you follow the trend of a noble life,
You will often appear to fail,
You will stumble and stagger 'neath your load
Many times, ere you hit the trail.

If you follow the gleam of a purpose high
Like he who runs a race
Not looking back, but ever ahead
Till you reach the sought-for place.
If you follow after the sweet perfume
Of a lovely sainted life
You will need to keep your garden clean
Shutting out all sounds of strife.

Still follow the gleam where it
Brightest leads,
High your banner still unfold,
Till your course is run and victory won
Life's story all been told.

—Mary Finch Davis

which a suitable reply was made by Miss Barbara Armstrong on behalf of the undergraduates.

LATE FLASHES

WASHINGTON, May 15—Cash bonus leaders in Congress decided today against sending the Patman Currency-Bonus Bill to President Roosevelt yet because "we're not ready to have it vetoed." Just when it would go was undetermined.

NEW YORK, May 15—Martin Moon, reporter for the New York American, today was sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse and fined $250 for contempt of court in refusing to tell a Grand Jury where he obtained information for a series of newspaper articles on the policy racket.

SAN JOSE, Calif., May 15—As the jury in the David A. Lamson wife murder case resumed deliberations today there were unverified reports that it now stood 10 to 2. Previously the jury which twice has asked to be discharged and been refused, said it was divided 9 to 3, but for what verdict was unknown.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 15—The Richfield Oil Co. of New York City today was sold to the Sinclair Oil Company for $5,100,000.

CHAIN LETTER MEMBER

G. B. Blair, of 40 Clifford street, Amherst, N.S., a former resident of Devon, is another who has succumbed to the "chain" letter lure. According to a letter of this variety which The Daily Mail is in receipt of today, the former Fredericton man is one of six others who belong to the "Prosperity Club." The letter, having the catchwords "Hope Faith Charity" advises among other things that the chain was started in the "hope of bringing prosperity," and cautions against "breaking the chain." It seems that it costs ten cents to keep your luck coming.
