Mrs. G. I. Nugent and Miss Beverly to Interview School Board

Some days ago The Daily Mail published a front page editorial dealing with Our Flag and pointing out that owing to the want of proper training on the part of somebody many people do not treat with the proper respect the flag of our country.

Last evening at a meeting of the Women's Institute held at the home of the president, Mrs. G. I. Nugent, Brunswick Street, the matter contained in this editorial was brought up by Miss Beverly and after discussion at some length a committee consisting of Miss Beverly and the president of the Institute were appointed to wait upon the Board of School Trustees and to request that body to see that the pupils of the city schools were instructed how to raise the flag and how to take down the flag and the proper respect with which the emblem of our country should be treated.

Along Right Lines

Miss Jeannette Beverly in opening the discussion referred to the article which was published in The Daily Mail of August 15 in regard to The Flag and stated that this article in common with many other articles that have appeared from time to time in The Daily Mail was along the right lines and in the community interest. Other members present who had also read The Daily Mail's article agreed with Miss Beverly that there was a lot of disrespect, unintentionally shown to The Flag by those who should have been taught better. Miss Beverly said that she had called the attention of the school authorities on more than one occasion to the manner in which the flag was displayed and pulled in through the windows of the York Street school but that no action had been taken in the matter. She felt that as long as the public was content to let the school board hold private meetings and carry on business as though nobody had any rights but themselves we could not expect to have very much done. Several other members were of the same opinion. It was finally decided that the president, Mrs. G. I. Nugent, and Miss Beverly, take the matter up with the school authorities.

Arrangements were completed at this meeting for having a tea room at the exhibition as in past years. The Home and School Association asked permission from the Institute to distribute literature at the Institute booth which was granted. The institute in line with other branches throughout the province continues to advocate a home for feeble-minded and with that end in view donated $10 dollars towards a fund for that purpose.

A resolution of regret was passed regarding the death of the late president, Mrs. H. W. Estabrooks. This was ordered placed on the minutes and a copy sent to the family of the late Mrs. Estabrooks.

DIED IN PITTSBURGH

The sad news was received here last evening by George L. Haviland of the mechanical staff of The Daily Mail, of the death of his brother, Frank Haviland at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on Wednesday. The late Frank Haviland was 71 years of age and will be remembered by many of the older residents. While in this city he had been employed with the W. H. VanWart grocery store. The late Frank Haviland has not been to Fredericton for thirty-five years. In recent years he had lived with his son, Jack at Pittsburgh, Pa. Surviving are two sons and one daughter. Besides his brother, George in this city, another brother and a sister survive.

FREDERICTON BACK ON OLD TIME TONIGHT

At Midnight Clocks Will Be Turned Back, Natural Time Resumed

Effective Since June 22

Daylight Saving Time
Effective for Summer
Holidaying

Fredericton will go back on its old time tonight at midnight, when the clocks will be set back one hour, resuming Atlantic Standard Time.

The Town of Devon, which also was on Daylight Saving Time also will revert to its former time. It had been earlier planned for Devon not to adopt Daylight Saving Time, but in order not to conflict with Fredericton it was found necessary to observe the new time during the summer months the same as the Capital. Marysville maintained their usual time all summer.

Fredericton has been on Daylight Saving Time since June 22, and Devon since June 27. During that time all the business houses and generally all the citizens have maintained the new time. The post office, while its employees went to work on the new time, operated its mails on the old time in order to meet with the train schedule requirements, the latter being on the old time of course.

Generally, Daylight Saving Time was looked upon with favor for the summer months since it afforded citizens ample daylight for picnicing and vacationing in daylight hours, and gave another hour of daylight for outdoor sport. There were some, of course, who were adversely affected by the new time. One of the most obvious complaints was the rising one hour earlier in the morning, for though most of the people had to rise earlier in the morning, they never thought of going to bed an hour earlier. The result was that most people lost an extra hour of sleep.

SLEPT WELL DURING NIGHT

According to a report from the Victoria Public Hospital today David Jones, of Aberdeen Street, slept well during the night, and was slightly improved this morning. Jones was found in the yard of his home on Thursday morning at eight o'clock with a bullet wound in his breast and a .32 revolver lying by his side. He was removed to the hospital. It is understood that he had been in ill-health for several months.

AUGUST STATISTICS

Vital statistics given out this morning from the office of the Board of Health showed that during the month of August there were 16 births, 17 marriages, and 14 deaths. The first fall meeting of the Board will take place on Sept. 27.

JOHN L. COOMBES, CITY, WINNER OF SCHOLARSHIP

Wins Beaverbrook
Scholarship for Fredericton District

Other Winners Named

Winner Son of Mrs.
Coombes and the Late
Leonard Coombes

John L. Coombes, son of the late Leonard Coombes and Mrs. Coombes, St. John Street, is the winner from the Fredericton district of this year's Beaverbrook Scholarship award. Announcement of the winners for the various districts was made today following a meeting of the committee composed of Mr. Justice Richards, of this city, Mr. Justice Harrison, of Saint John, and R. Corry Clark of Newcastle.

The other winners were announced as follows: Saint John District, Francis H. Duffy, of Saint John; North Shore District, Miss Viola G. Sherard, of Boom Road, Northumberland County, and Miss Catherine A. MacTavish, of Newcastle; other districts, Miss Nellie M. Marsten of Woodstock; Allan P. Stuart, of Fredericton Junction, and S. Douglas Patterson, of Roachville Kings county.

The Beaverbrook Scholarships entitle the winners to a four-year course at the University of New Brunswick and have an annual value of $325. At the present time there are twenty-four Beaverbrook scholars at the University of New Brunswick.

The selection of Mr. Coombes for a scholarship should be a popular one as he is a very deserving boy who has been a leader in his classes from the time he started to go to the grade schools and on up through high school. He has one of the best records of any student in this city in recent years and on the matriculation examination results, announced a few days ago, he came second in the province.
