PERRY LOSES TO
ALLISON, INJURY
UPSETS GAME

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 11—Wilmer Allison of Texas scored the greatest upset of American tennis in years today when he defeated Fred Perry of England in the semi-final of the United States tennis championships.

The 31-year-old veteran who took a licking from the sparkling Briton in the final a year ago and again this year in the Davis Cup challenge round at Wimbledon, gave the finest exhibition of his career in dethroning Perry in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3.

Perry suffered an injury in the seventh game of the first set when he fell heavily to the turf. He continued to play, however, and it was not until after the game that physicians found that he had shaken loose the right kidney from its attachments. He will be unable to play for a month.

CANADIANA

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T PASS

"A sad-faced little fellow sits alone in deep disgrace;
There's a lump arising in his throat and tears drop down his face.
He wandered from his playmates, for he doesn't want to hear Their shouts of merry laughter since the world has lost its cheer.
He has sipped the cup of sorrow, he has dripped the bitter glass, And his heart is fairly breaking—he's the boy who didn't pass.

"In the apple tree the robin sings a cheery little song,
But he doesn't seem to hear it, showing plainly something's wrong; Comes his faithful little spaniel for a romp and bit of play;
But the troubled little fellow bids him sternly go away.
And alone he sits in sorrow, with his hair a tangled mass,
And his eyes are red with weeping—
he's the boy who didn't pass.

"Oh, you boast a laughing son, and speak of him as bright, And you love a little girl, who comes to you at night
With shining eyes and dancing feet, with honors from her school, Turn to that lonely little lad who thinks he is a fool,
And take him kindly by the hand, the dullest of the class,
He is the one who most needs love—
the boy who didn't pass." N. B. The above is a contribution from Mrs. A. R. Menzies.

Dr. Kenneth Appel, M. D.: "Success and happiness in this world depend much more on wisdom and a good mark in education as social adaptation than on knowledge. They rest on a capacity to work with human nature as it is, on a practical intuitive working basis of psychology, rather than on a text book knowledge of academic psychology. The success and happiness depends on a practical knowledge of human nature —in knowledge of how people think, feel and act. To win them one must develop a courage to tackle things that look discouraging and an ability to get up when knocked down." ing. All living former pastors are expected to be present and take part ory." Rev. I. A. Corbett, a former pastor in Fredericton, speaks on Sunday

Word."
