BETTY LAKE WILL BE AN EXHIBIT AT MURDER TRIAL

Sole Survivor of Pacific Jct. Tragedy is Being Well Cared For

Shows Her Affection

In a Neat Home With Healthy Surroundings and Looks Well

Mrs. Edward Cuthbertson of Barker's Point, will leave here tomorrow for Dorchester with little Betty Lake, the sole survivor of the Pacific Junction murder tragedy of January last. Betty will be put up as an exhibit at the new trial of Daniel Bannister, which opens before Mr. Justice Fairweather on Wednesday next.

Betty Lake, the baby who became known all over the continent in connection with the now famous Bannister murder case and whose picture appeared on the front pages of leading papers throughout the United States and Canada, is alleged to be the probable cause of the murder of Philip Lake. She may also have been the indirect cause of the deaths of Mrs. Lake, and of little Jackie. The alleged desire of Mrs. Bannister to kidnap Betty is considered the cause of the whole tragedy.

A representative of The Daily Mail visited Betty Lake yesterday afternoon at the home of the Cuthbertsons. He found a bright blue eyed little girl fourteen months old, neatly attired in a white dress with blue dots, which matched the colour of her eyes. When the Daily Mail man called, in company with two friends, he was met at the door by Mrs. Cuthbertson who had Betty in her arms. Betty was introduced and gave us one of those bright smiles which has often been described in the press. She is really an attractive youngster and her aunt who has adopted her is sincerely attached to her. We all noticed that in an instant. Mrs. Cuthbertson, who is a lady of refinement and of more than ordinary intelligence, has a nice neat home among healthy surroundings. A pretty brown wicker baby

HITLER AIDE VISITS CITY OVER WEEKEND

Barter Trade Plan Will Mean Exchange Pulp and Coal

Local Interests

Hans Stinnes and Leo Piltenberg Entertained in This City

Hans Stinnes, one of Hitler's right hand men and a director of the famous Krupps armament factory was amongst the visitors to Fredericton on Saturday last. Mr. Stinnes came here from New York and arrived at the Queen hotel in company with Leo Piltenberg of Holland. They were later joined by E. C. Atkinson, Ex-M.P.P., who entertained them at luncheon at D-Coy Inn.

It is understood that the purpose of these gentlemen's visit to this locality is in connection with the exportation of pulp wood from this country to Germany under a barter arrangement by which it is proposed to bring in German coal in exchange. Not long ago a company was formed consisting of several prominent local men the idea being to export pulp wood. Since that time negotiations with different European concerns has been carried on. It is understood that the visit of these two gentlemen on Saturday last was in this connection, and Mr. Atkinson on Saturday declined to give any particulars regarding the visit, merely stating that they were here for a change and a rest. It is probable that the D-Coy Inn got the change and the Queen hotel got the rest.

Whilst not much will be said in regard to the negotiations it is understood that the deal if gone through carriage was on the green lawn at the door ready to take Betty for a ride. The whole surroundings showed that Betty Lake was lucky when she was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson. Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson have applied for legal adoption of Betty and will give her the name of Cuthbertson.

Amongst recent visitors at the Cuthbertson home was Chief Justice Barry who is much interested in the welfare of the baby girl.
