LILY PONS, CONDUCTOR WILL WED—SHE HOPES

That Is, If They Can Find Time and She's "Lucky" Enough

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—Lily Pons is going to marry Andre Kostelanetz, the little opera star hinted today, as soon as they "find the time."

"Neither of us has any time to get married," complained Miss Pons, who has had only three months' vacation in five years. In the next breath she added:

"If some day he has the time—I will have the time."

Mr. Kostelanetz, blond, blue-eyed, orchestra conductor and pianist, is the "preferred person," she admitted.

"The place doesn't make any difference," she smiled. "I have no preferred place—just a preferred person."

The little singer implied that she would be married long before February, when she will sing "Coq d'Or," at the Metropolitan.

"If we aren't married by then," she exclaimed, "it's no use to ever—that's such a long time."

Over the luncheon table Miss Pons, eating potatoes in an attempt to gain weight, replied to the first question about "Kosty":

"We are not engaged—but I hope we will be married some day."

"If I am fortunate enough to be married to Mr. Kostelanetz, I shall feel my self one of the luckiest and proudest women in the world."

SEVENTH ANNUAL GOLF MEET

(Special to The Daily Mail)

BANFF, Alta., Aug. 5—Seventh annual golf week at Banff Springs hotel from August 16 to 22 is expected to attract a more than ordinarily starry field to compete for upwards of 50 prizes, it was announced today by R. M. Deyell, manager. Indications are that the entries will be heavy this year, Mr. Deyell said, as he reviewed the attractive programme consisting of four main events, four individuals, men and women; teams of four competitors; mixed foursome; men's and women's driving; tombstone competitions; and other matches.

The main event for men is the Edward Prince of Wales cup matches for a replica of the trophy donated by King Edward VIII, while he was visiting here as the Prince of Wales. Another beautiful prize will go to the winner following the weeks play.

The Brewster cup goes to the winner of the women's main competition. Other chief prizes are the Willingdon trophy for men; and the Associated Screen News cup for women.

Interest to Women

TRIED RECIPES

Raspberry Jam

Wash raspberries and crush them. Weigh the crushed berries and add an equal weight of sugar. Boil mixture until it is thick and clear. Long boiling should be avoided, because it makes the jam dark and strong. Pack hot into clean, hot jars, and seal immediately.

Raspberry-Cherry Conserve

3 cups cherries.
3 cups raspberries.
4½ cups sugar.
Cook cherries in very little water until skins are tender. Add raspberries and sugar. Cook until thick and clear. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

Raspberry Marmalade

Wash and drain berries, mash thoroughly, place in preserving kettle with as little water as possible, and bring quickly to boil. Press mixture through a fine-mesh sieve to remove seeds. Measure mixture, and add three-quarters as much sugar as there is pulp and juice. Boil gently for 10 minutes. Pour hot marmalade into clean, hot jars, seal immediately.

Raspberry and Currant Marmalade

4 quarts raspberries.
1 quart currants.
Sugar.
Wash berries and currants and place in preserving kettle. Mash fruit thoroughly, add three-quarters as much sugar as fruit, and boil mixture for 10 minutes, or until it jells when cooled. Stir constantly to prevent burning. Pack hot marmalade into clean, hot jars. Seal immediately.

Raspberry Conserve

1 pint raspberries.
1 pint currants.
1 quart coarsely chopped rhubarb, unpeeled.
1 pound English walnuts, chopped.
1 pound seeded raisins or dates.
Grated rind and juice of 2 oranges.
Grated rind and juice of 2 lemons.
Combine the three fruits and weigh. Allow three-quarters of a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit. Cook the fruits until soft—about 15 minutes; add the sugar, orange and lemon juice and rind, and the nuts; simmer until very thick; turn into sterilized jars and seal.

Jelly Recipe

"Could I trouble you for a recipe for bar-le-duc jelly? I think there are currants, gooseberries and honey, but cannot find a recipe anywhere!"
Roxbury. Mrs. F. L. T.

We've never heard of a recipe for bar-le-duc made with these ingredients. True bar-le-duc is made with currants alone.

Bar-Le-Duc

1 pound stemmed currants.
3 pounds sugar.
1 cup juice (squeezed from some currants alone).

Put juice and sugar in saucepan, cook five minutes, skim closely, then add the pound of whole currants and cook five minutes more; strain out currants, then return juice to fire and boil until thick and clear. Skim and strain through cheesecloth over the cooked currants, then return to fire and boil just one minute. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

Here are several combinations of gooseberries and currants which you may like.

Currant and Gooseberry Jam

6 pounds ripe gooseberries.
2 pounds sugar.
3 cups red currant juice.

Pick over the berries; remove blossom ends, and mash with a silver fork. Add current juice to sugar, and heat through. Add berries and boil gently for one hour, skimming as needed. Let stand over night, and next day cook again until thick. Pour into glasses taken from hot water, and seal with melted paraffin when cold.

Medley Conserve

4 cups currants.
5½ cups gooseberries.
2½ cups blackberries.
3½ pounds or 7 cups sugar.
2 cups walnuts.

Wash and prepare the berries, add sugar and cook until thick, stirring frequently. It will take about 1½ hours. Remove from the fire and add the nut meats. Pour into clean, hot glasses. When cool cover with paraffin.

1,000 WOMEN ARE INCLUDED IN THE SPANISH "ARMY"

Will Be Called For Patrol Duty Under New Scheme

MADRID, Aug. 5—Reorganization of the workers' militia into a close knit national force, a civilian army that will be available for all emergencies, was undertaken by the Government recently.

The reorganization will be carried out under the direction of the war ministry, with Luis Quintanilla, world famous painter, as organizer.

Mobile arms repair shops, emergency hospitals, food transport, cultural training, recruiting offices, machine gun defence committees, and a corps of military instructors are to be provided.

Boy and girl pioneers will organize their own militia, to become full fledged militiamen and women at maturity.

The organization would give the Left Front Government a permanent powerful anti-Fascist army, ready to rise at any time as it did at the start of the present rebellion. Many people think its response to the call to arms saved Madrid.

The present "battalion of steel," which left for the front Wednesday night, will be supplemented by companies of steel.

These, Enrique Castro, commander of the 5th militia regiment who is aiding Quintanilla said, will possess dynamites, hand bombers and machine gunners.

"They will be similar to the desperate 'companies of death' of the Great War," Castro said. "They will receive daily instructions and will be sent to points where daring action is necessary."

Castro and Quintanilla have their headquarters at the Montana army barracks. There militiamen and women are instructed by army officers.

"We were only hastily assembled and really unorganized when the revolt broke," Castro said. "Now we are going to have a strong militia." As part of the reorganized civilian army, there will be a battalion of

1,000 women, divided into companies of the workers' militia into a close

The women will get instructions in revolver and rifle firing and will do patrol duty in towns and villages when the men are called to the front.

Popular confidence that the threatened siege of Madrid by rebels may never occur, was reflected today in a Government statement that as soon as possible the militiamen at the front are to be relieved so they can return to their jobs and aid in restoration of normal conditions.

But they will be organized on a permanent basis for emergency work.

SHIRLEY PLAYS WITH CHILDREN

But Seven-Year-Old Film Star Has to Work Hard for Her $1,250 a Week.

HOLLYWOOD—The world's best-known seven-year-old has spent almost half of her life in the movies. To all appearances, Shirley Temple is yet unspoiled by the extraordinary attention she receives as a motion picture star. She celebrated her seventh birthday April 23, but mentally she is years older due to her association with adults. But she still likes to play with children in her block—when she finds time.

The demands on young Miss Temple's time increase daily. Her mother, Mrs. George Temple, tries to make life for Shirley as normal as possible, but there are obligations that go with stardom that no star, however young, can escape.

Photographs, for instance, require at least an hour daily. Shirley's poses average 20 a day, two or three times as many as grown-up stars are obliged to talk. Requests for pictures of Shirley are so numerous that an unusual number must be taken. Some of the stills are for advertising tie-ups, which incidentally, are said to bring the Temple family almost as much in royalties as Shirley's salary. Her name helps to sell clothes, shoes, books, and dolls. The Temple movie salary recently underwent a secret readjustment. Until the first of this year, her pay was $1,250 a week. It has been increased several times.

Shirley must have at least two private tutors, one for general subjects and one for French. She takes dancing lessons daily, too, and just before the start of a picture she will devote four or five hours daily to learning new routines. The other day Shirley rehearsed a tap dance with Bill Robinson for five hours without any evidence of fatigue.

Lindberghs Not Noticed

BERLIN, Aug. 5—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh were obscure figures among the 105,000 spectators who attended the opening of the eleventh Olympic games. They planned it that way.

The Lindberghs had honor guest seats, but didn't sit with the high hats in the honor tribune nor did their names appear on the honor lists. They occupied a cozy corner near the honor tribune reserved for them at the colonel's request.

After the ceremonies the Lindberghs went away unrecognized.
