Sunday Program Notes

Gene Austin will be the lone "G-Man" when Jack Wheeler joins Joe Penner's radio cast as announcer, at the end of the month. The headlines will be Joe (Penner) Jimmy (Grier) Joy (Hodges) Jack (Wheeler) and Gene (Austin). As a feature of the Sunday programme, Dec. 20 at 6 p.m., EST, over the WABC-CBS network, Miss Hodges will sing "It's DeLovely" from the Broadway musical show, "Red, Hot and Blue."

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy will blend their voices for the first time on a radio programme, Sunday, Dec. 20, when they present a tabloid version of their motion picture success, based on the Victor Herbert operetta, "Naughty Marietta," on the Vick's Open House broadcast at 8 p.m., EST, over the WABC-CBS network. Renowned as a foremost singing pair on the screen, the two stars have selected their most popular numbers for this occasion.

Eddie Cantor's Sunday broadcast, Dec. 20, at 8:30 p.m., EST, over the WABC-CBS network, will emanate from Hollywood, following a five-weeks' visit to New York. Cantor and all members of his cast, excepting Bobby Breen, entrained for the film colony Tuesday (Dec. 15.) Bobby will remain in New York for another week, filling a vaudeville engagement before returning to resume his motion picture work.

RADIO BRIEFS

Lanny Ross To Sing
Lanny Ross, star of the Showboat, will sing on a broadcast of the Charity Organization Society, Saturday Dec. 19 from 5:30 to 6 p.m., EST, over the WJZ-NBC network.

The scheduled songs include "Swimming Against the Tide," a new number which Ross has just composed, "Serenade of the Night," "Moonlight and Roses" and an old Irish song, "Bendemeer Stream."

The programme will also feature a dramatization of the Society's work in aiding the needy, and several speeches.

Bert Pearl . . . Songs and Patter
Bert Pearl will page Mr. Santa Claus in musical terms on his CBC eastern and midwest network presentation on Saturday, Dec. 19, at 7:30 p.m. From the Toronto studios the song and patter star will address his specially written lyrics to the famous Saint Nicholas, utilizing the tunes of Cliff Friend's "Jingle Bells I'm In Love" and Gerald Mark's "That's What I Want for Christmas." He has also arranged another little novelty which will have a complete surprise element, even for the bewiskered patron of Christmas.

The Book Review

Collectors will be particularly interested in the broadcast of Professor J. F. Macdonald for his "Book Review" period on Saturday 19 at 7:45 p.m., for this popular CBC eastern and midwest network feature will deal with "Boswell's Journal of a Tour of the Hebrides," now first published from the recently discovered original journal of 1773. Professor Macdonald will give his review from the Toronto studios and will refer also to the sprightly and much discussed book "Live Alone and Like It" by Marjorie Hillis.

HOCKEY BROADCAST

A sports writer who has the reputation of being able to identify practically any N.H.L. player by his skating style alone will be guest of honor on the Imperial Oil Hockey Broadcast next Saturday. He is E. W. Ferguson, Montreal sports editor and radio announcer. Regarded as the premier hockey authority of the American Continent, "Fergy" is likely to relate some interesting experiences when interviewed by Perce LeSueur. Foster Hewitt will be in the gondola as usual, and will describe the game between Leafs and Americans. At the close, Ferguson, will select and introduce the three stars of the evening to the coast-to-coast fans.

Just Like Other Fathers

Actors, contrary to popular opinion, don't always talk about themselves. Sometimes they go about boasting of the exploits of members of their family. Proud fathers in radio? There's Ed Wynn, for example, who button-holes friends to relate some of the exploits of his actor-son, Keenan, whose work in stock companies indicates a definite flair for the drama. Richard Gordon, who plays "Sherlock Holmes" on the air, has a son, Robert, who is in demand for air dramatic work. Clarence Muse colored baritone on the Irvin Cobb programme, beams all over when you mention his actor-son, Dion, who is a favorite in Denver, Colorado.

Coming Radio Events

"We, The People"
Three remarkable human interest features will be offered on Phillips Lord's "We, the People" programme Sunday, Dec. 20, at 5 p.m., EST, over the NBC-Blue network. Topping the list will be the reunion at the microphone of a mother and son who had been separated for 22 years. Second will be the presentation of Robert Lewis, 17-year-old Columbia, South Carolina, newsboy who discovered a new star, Nova Hercules, with a telescope made from junk. Third will be Louis Parisot, personal pupil and first assistant of Louis Pasteur, who was present when Pasteur first used his serum on a child which had been bitten by a mad dog.

Lookie! Nitwits Nab Nuts
Patterson Pantbottom, world's most immodest hero, and Ignatius Q. Thing, who puts "Sold" signs on expensive yachts, will be introduced by Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd on Sunday, Dec. 20 at 5:30 p.m., EST, over the NBC-Blue network.

What Will Jack Benny Give?
Jack Benny's annual Christmas party takes place Sunday, Dec. 20, at 7 p.m., EST, over the NBC-Red network but Jack refuses to divulge what he is buying Phil Harris.

Phil Baker's "Old Home Week"
"Pa" Phil Baker and "Ma" Agnes Moorehead will put on an "Old Home Week" celebration over CBS Sunday, Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m., EST.

Home For Christmas
Helen Hayes as "Bambi" goes home for Christmas in the 13th Chapter of the radio serial to be heard over the NBC-Blue network, Dec. 21 at 8 p.m., EST.

Johnny the Call Boy's "First"

Edgar Guest's Christmas Party
In the "Welcome Valley" broadcast of Tuesday, Dec. 22, at 8:30 p.m., EST, on the NBC-Blue network, Edgar Guest, star of the show, will stage a Christmas party as which Jane Withers, the actress, will get a contract to star in a new show.

F-L-A-S-H!!!
Phillips Lord's "We, the People" programme has been renewed by its sponsor and will continue for another 13 weeks over the NBC-Blue network Sundays at 5 p.m., EST.

Chicago
Kay Kyser, heard on a Saturday evening programme via CBS with Ed Thorger, will re-arrange his schedule so that he can avail himself of an invitation from the student body of the University of North Carolina to appear as an honor guest at their annual Varsity Show.
