

All-Out-of-Sorts! Nervous, Irritable, Peevish!

This may be due to lack of proper rest, the worry over business, the too free use of tea, coffee or tobacco, the keeping of late hours, the never ending drudgery of housework, but whatever the cause you have been putting too heavy strain on the nervous system.

If you are tired, listless, irritable, distressed, you will find in Milburn's H. & N. Pills a remedy to make the weak nerves strong, the shaky nerves firm, a medicine that will help put you on your feet again.

good, this appealing greatly to the interested listeners.

The concert was of the same high standard throughout and was followed with closest attention each number receiving enthusiastic applause.

The Hungarian Folk Tunes the product of a century's research were rendered with mastery, some of these having been transcribed for the violinist himself for his instrument.

Nikita de Magaloff, at the piano proved himself an able and understanding accompanist. His two piano solos Patraque Sonnet and Mephisto Waltz by Liszt were executed with brilliance and unusual delicacy of touch.

The artists are leaving this evening for Saint John from where they will take the boat for Digby en route to Wolfville, where on Monday night they are scheduled to play at Acadia University. This will be the fifth yearly programme which the violinist has rendered at Acadia. The two musicians will then travel to Portland,

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Lady Ashburnham Hostess to Artists

Following the Community Concert last evening the artists Joseph Szigeti, world famous violinist, and Nikita de Magaloff, brilliant pianist, were entertained at Ashburnham place by the Rt. Hon. the Countess Ashburnham. The guests included some of the members of the executive of the Association and others from the city and Saint John. Mrs. A. P. Crockett, president of the Fredericton Community Concert Association, and Mrs. J. H. Barry presided over the tea and coffee cups. Assisting were Mrs. Rattenberg, Miss Jean Anderson, Miss Molly Barry, Mrs. E. B. Claridge, Miss Phyllis Richardson, Miss Nellie Winters, Mrs. Arthur Anderson and Drury Anderson. The artists were charmed with the genial hospitality which they received in Fredericton in comparison to the cold treatment which artists sometimes receive in larger centres where they are at times left to themselves at hotels once their performance is over, waiting for train-time to take their departure to some other scheduled engagement. The artists appreciated the warm reception which they received last evening. Mr. Szigeti presented his personal photograph to Lady Ashburnham, the gracious hostess of the evening before taking his departure.

St. Paul's Young People

St. Paul's Young People's Club met last evening. The devotional program was conducted by Guy Pond. Roy Fanjoy read the Scripture lesson followed by short discussions given by Janet Smith, Madeline MacKay and Eliza Campbell. Mrs. Guy Pond led in prayer. The business meeting was conducted by the vice-president Miss Rhoda Young followed by short group meetings. Sterling Brannen gave a very interesting talk about the March of the One Hundred and Fourth Regiment from Fredericton to Quebec. Ruth Bryenton delighted the young people with a humorous motion song and a little dance. Then games were enjoyed.

The ladies of the Y.M.C.A. gathered last evening at the Y headquarters to hear Harry Ballantyne of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. in Toronto. He gave a short address on the Community Y and the ladies' part in it. Major I. B. Rouse was chairman. After the address by Mr. Ballantyne which was much enjoyed, the ladies organized a ladies' auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. of Fredericton. Mrs. George Brown was elected president and Mrs. F. L. Miller, secretary.

Among those attending the Community Concert last evening was Miss Pauline Bederman, leading pianist of Saint John, and vice-president of the Ladies' Morning Musical Club of that city.

Charming Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Miller entertained last evening at a charmingly arranged dinner party at a local hotel. Covers were laid for twenty-six guests. The table decorations were yellow mums and yellow tapers in silver candelabra. Those invited included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Oltz, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Phillips, Rev. Dr. George E. Ross and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer, Victoria, N. B. Major and Mrs. F. A. Good, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kierstead, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Miller, Major and Mrs. J. S. Scott, Mrs. W. J. Osborne, Mrs. Allan Sterling, Mrs. A. K. Turner and Professor Malcolm McPherson. Following dinner the guests played games.

The W.M.S. of St. Paul's United church entertained at a charmingly arranged tea at the home of Mrs. George Telford yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. H. Barker of Korea, and Miss Eunice Peters of West China. The guests were received by Mrs. Telford, Mrs. Barker and Miss Peters. Tea was in charge of the Strangers' committee of the society, of which Mrs. Harry A. Smith is convener. Among those present were members of the Cecilia Sutherland Mission Circle, the executive of the Fredericton Presbyterian and W.M.S. members.

Wilmot Young People's Society

Under the capable charge of the Social Committee's leader, Miss Margaret Clark, the Wilmot Y.P.S. gathered last evening for an excellent and entertaining programme. Led by Rev. J. C. Bartlett, the devotional period was of great interest and proved very educational to the large attendance. Two humorous readings were presented by Miss Roberta Reed. A very enjoyable item in the evening's entertainment were numerous accordian solos rendered by Tracy McFarland. During a short business period it was decided that the next week's programme be under the charge of the Citizenship Committee. Contests and games were enjoyed and to the young people's delight their own favorite, Tucker, was introduced for several rounds. Refreshments were served. Miss Clark was assisted in games by Lyman Green, and in the kitchen by Miss Grace Ross and several other young ladies. Following the recreational period, the meeting came to a close with the hearty singing of Auld Lang Syne.

Attended Community Concert
Professor Morton L. Harrison, of Saint John, visited Rev. Mr. Horwood last night. He was in Fredericton attending the Community Concert.

C.P.R. to Put

marketing train on the Chipman-Minto branch.

R. L. Phillips, chairman of the Transportation committee, occupied the chair. The following C.P.R. officials were present: H. L. Humphrey, vice-president; C. B. Foster, passenger traffic director; T. C. MacNabb, general superintendent, Eastern Division; W. C. Guthrie, district superintendent, Woodstock Division, and H. James, passenger agent.

The C.P.R. authorities said they would be prepared to reverse the services on the Otis branch having that train arrive in Devon in the forenoon and return to Otis in the late afternoon, thus providing Fredericton with a daily marketing train covering the Gibson branch territory as far north as Millville.

R. L. Phillips suggested that it was concurred in by S. S. Miller, president of the Board of Trade, J. D. Palmer, Mayor, G. Willard Kitchen and others, that this would be satisfactory provided a Saturday marketing express train would be run between Chipman and Fredericton. [This suggestion was discussed very fully by vice-president Humphrey, C. B. Foster and members of the transportation committee. The visiting officials left with the definite understanding they would immediately try to work out a satisfactory solution to the Fredericton-Chipman proposition.]

Mr. Phillips welcomed the officials of the C.P.R. He particularly thanked Mr. Humphrey who had been invited to come to Fredericton to discuss this matter, only a week ago, for his prompt and courteous acceptance of the invitation. He also referred to Mr. Humphrey as a New Brunswick born man who by reason of his outstanding ability had made good and attained his present very responsible position. In reply, Mr. Humphrey stated that he and his associates viewed Fredericton's claim for better train connections on the Gibson branch very sympathetically and were prepared to meet it on any ground that was economically possible.

Child, Family

agencies in other communities of Ontario, with varied experience in Child Welfare, Family Welfare and Community Settlement work.

Miss Touzel attended school in Renfrew, Ont., and showed an early interest in social service as a volunteer worker with the local Children's Aid Society for several years. In 1926 she entered social science.

Upon her graduation from the social science course, Miss Touzel joined the staff of the Neighborhood Workers Association of Toronto where she remained until 1933, rising to the position of District Secretary in charge of one of the heaviest districts for the City's Welfare agencies.

She is a member of the National Board of the Canadian Association of Social Workers and President of the Ottawa branch of that association. She is also a member of the National Advisory Committee on Nursing of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada.

Miss Nora Lea, Supervisor of the Protection Department of the Children's Aid Society of Toronto, has been associated with welfare work in the City of Toronto since 1920. In her latter capacity Miss Lea had one of the most difficult districts of the city under her supervision, with heavy responsibilities in the administration of relief, and the amelioration of social and economic difficulties arising from unemployment, bad home conditions, delinquency, and other behaviour problems. In 1927, Miss Lea joined the staff of the Children's Aid Society as Supervisor of the Protection Department, the position which she now holds. For several years she has also been attached to the staff of the University of Toronto Social Science Department as a lecturer on Child Welfare. As head of the Protection Department Miss Lea supervises the agency's efforts which are directed to the improvement of conditions in the home which a child was in danger of being removed. Friendly assistance is given to parents unable to cope with their problems of child behaviour and training, and the Department works in close co-operation with many other welfare agencies in its efforts to strengthen family life, rehabilitate breaking homes, and assure to children their right to happiness and security in their growing years. During the past seven years of economic strain, the extent of this work has of necessity increased enormously, and the Society is now working with many families whose moral has been shattered through prolonged hardship and frustration. The Protection Department also initiates action, where necessary, to remove a child from dangerous or unfit surroundings, to the temporary or permanent care of the Children's Aid Society.

FRAGRANCE

The fragrance of the dawn in the month of May,
The scent of a rose on a bright June day,
The perfume wafted from new mown hay
And apples freshly ripe,
Aroma of pine on a wooded cliff,
The salty breeze blown over a skiff:
I would give them all for just one whiff
Of smoke from your old brown pipe.
