George Johnston Qualifies: Dean In Mixup

'DIZZY' ALLOWED TO CONTINUE AFTER BREACH

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A gesture of sportsmanship by Charlie Grimm, manager of Chicago Cubs, yesterday probably cost his team the first game of an important series with the Cardinals at St. Louis, and with it, the National League lead.

"Dizzy" Dean, permitted to continue in the game after a first-inning fight because Grimm intervened with the umpires, held the Cubs away from the plate in all but the sixth and eighth innings as he pitched the Cardinals to first place with a 7-3 victory.

Fireworks flared after only two men were out. Bill Herman was at bat, with the call one and two, when Dean suddenly raced from the mound toward the Cubs' dugout.

Tex Carlton, slated to pitch today, leaped out and met Dean near the first base line. The two swung, clinched and scuffled until members of both teams, aided by umpires, separated them. After a brief delay, while tempers cooled, Dean resumed the mound to the amazement of 30,000 fans.

With the near-riot over, the Cards went to work at once on Lon Warneke, scoring a run in the first inning and driving him to the showers in the third with a four-run splurge.

JESSE OWENS GOES PROFESSIONAL IS REPORTED

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—It was stated in Berlin today that Jesse Owens, famous sprinter and winner of several Olympic gold medals, had decided to join the ranks of professional runners. Owens, it is said, will net from $75,000 to $100,000 by the change.

AMERICAN LOOP PENNANT IS A PUPPET HEADACHE

Colonel Not Too Delighted With Prospects Salary Problems Serious One.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—As the New York Yankees appear headed for the American league pennant, there is wonder in some quarters whether the owner of the Yanks, Col. Jacob Ruppert, is truly delighted with the prospects. Or is he looking ahead to the coming winter and worrying about the headaches which will come over salary problems.

In the days of Babe Ruth there always was the winter spectacle of Ruppert and the Babe playing tag on the matter of contracts. When Ruth finally departed, it was believed that the salary wrangles, the serious ones, also had departed. There might be some minor squabbles, but nothing more. Yet Ruppert learned the past winter that other players had ideas about money and that Ruth's absence did not mean business-office peace.

For instance, Charley Ruffing thought he was worth much more than he was offered. That despite the fact he had not been very successful during the 1935 season. He stayed home for a while, but when it was evident that there was no relenting on the part of the business office, he came to terms. But Ruffing this year has been one of the bright pitchers of the Yanks and he already is ahead of his 1935 achievements. So there is little doubt, especially if the Yanks win the pennant, that he will be a stubborn child when it comes to the payroll.

There were others, of course. Ben Chapman was one, but he is elsewhere, so Ruppert no longer has to worry about him. Catcher Bill Dickey had his ideas, although they were too extravagant. And he will seek a substantial increase, according to the way things shape up now.

JOHNSTON IN VICTORY SECOND ROUND TENNIS

George Johnston, Fredericton's only entrant in the New Brunswick Tennis championships which commenced yesterday at Rothesay, defeated J. Conlon 6-3 and 6-0 in the Men's singles, second round yesterday.

The summary:—
An exceptionally good brand of tennis featured the first round matches in both men's and women's singles yesterday in the 1936 New Brunswick Tennis Championships, which opened under ideal weather conditions on the courts of the Tennis Club of Rothesay.

Thirty matches comprised the first day's play, which saw one surprising upset of a seeded player in the men's singles event and several close calls for other favored players.

And there is the matter of Joe DiMaggio.

Those close to Yankee headquarters say that the sensational rookie may not have had any important ideas about himself publicly, but he did not under-rate himself privately. Thus when the Yankees offered him a contract at $1,000 more than he had received in the Pacific Coast league, he just sniffed in disdain. This before he had even been measured for a uniform. Another contract was offered and he not only rejected that, but he showed that he had sought advice.

Eventually the matter was adjusted and the Californian reported to St. Petersburg. Now he has delivered nobly for the Yanks and there are those who believe that the young Italian, as the result of his success, will demand in the neighborhood of $20,000 for the 1937 season. For he can read the papers and he has seen where he is one of the reasons the Yanks are making a runaway of the American league race.

So, Col. Ruppert may feel proud of his athletes now, but, when the world series flush has worn off, will he love them in December as he did in August?

MARITIME GOLF MEET OPENED AT SAINT JOHN

SAINT JOHN, Aug. 11.—Tonight 16 amateurs in the Maritime golf championship will have qualified for the title as the qualifying round today on the links of the Riverside Golf and Country Club opened actual play in the tournament, scheduled to wind up on Friday.

Seventy-five players in all will go to the tee in threesomes this morning in the qualifying round of medal play. From tomorrow on the play will be elimination rounds.

The first three will go to the tee at 8 o'clock and the other 24 threesomes at five-minute intervals thereafter. The last group will start out over the course at 10 o'clock.

Eighteen of the 36 holes of the qualifying round will be played this morning and the other 18 this afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Tonight the annual dinner and meeting of the Maritime Provinces Golf Association is scheduled at the clubhouse of the Riverside Golf and Country Club at 7.30 o'clock.

Yesterday many of the entrants went over the course in trial matches following registration and all praised the course and its ability to test the best of them.

Keen competition is looked for. Three ex-champions are entered. They are Percival Streeter of the Riverside Golf and Country Club; C. M. (Gint) Cain of Yarmouth, holder of the Nova Scotia championships, and Allan Findlay of Digby, formerly of Sydney. J. M. Matthews, Chester shotmaker, last year's champion, is not here to defend his title.

Eight pros will play for the pro title, including the present champion, Roland Huot of the Lingan Golf Club, Sydney.

The club teams for team play in the tourney had not been posted last night.

NAZI HOT DOGS, DECATHLON AND OTHER THINGS

McLemore Says Only Miracle Can Keep U.S. From Track and Field Victory.

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—(By Henry McLemore)—Unless a miracle comes to pass (and the chances that it will are as remote as that Hermann Goering will wear the same uniform two days in a row) the United States of America, or "och ess as" as the Germans call it, is a shoo-in for the Olympic track and field championship.

When the boys went into action today America had 167 points against 57 1-4 for its nearest rival, Finland. With but five events remaining to be decided—two relays, the decathlon, the 3,000 metres steeplechase and the marathon—the Finns would have to sweep all of them to take what the Teutons, with their flair for originality, term "the bacon." They won't do this, and you may quote me. We are a cinch in the two relays and for two reasons, the first being that we have the fastest runners and the second that we know how to pass that baton.

Even if your relayers were no faster than the opposition they would win handily because they are certain to pick up two or three yards with each passing of the stick. The Europeans make a ceremony of handing on the baton. They act as if it were a Christmas present. The receiver takes the stick and then, with a graceful bow, extends his thanks. The rude Americans grab the baton as if it were money from home, and light out.

Decathlon /Boys (Okay)

Our Decathlon boys are doing quite all right, too, having finished one-two-three in the first five events yesterday. Speaking of yesterday, Der Fuehrer put the chill on the stadium for the first time, which must have been a blessing for three sailors who, when he is there, are burdened with the unhappy duty of standing at rigid attention directly behind his dictatorial loge. Brother Hitler certainly chose an ideal day to stay away. They say he doesn't know a thing about track affairs and would

BRUNDAGE ADDS MORE PENALTY TO MRS. JARRETT

Swimmer's "Covering" of Olympic Story Brings More Wrath From Olympic Head.

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—Robert Donat, secretary of the International Swimming Federation, told Eleanor Holm Jarrett that she was to swim in no more amateur meets upon the instruction of Avery Brundage, president of the United States Olympic Committee.

Brundage told Donat that, as president of the American Amateur Athletic Union, he already had disqualified Mrs. Jarrett.

On what grounds the backstroke ace was being disqualified, Brundage did not say.

Mrs. Jarrett, disbarred from the United States Olympic team for violation of the training rules forbidding drinking and late hours, subsequently agreed to "cover" the Olympic Games for a newspaper syndicate.

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—Eleanor Holm Jarrett, backstroke star barred from the Olympic team, said today that she had seen a statement from Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic Committee, instructing all European swimming associations to decline any entry she might make.

Mrs. Jarrett said Leo Donath, secretary of the International Swimming Association, showed her the statement. She professed to have no idea of what had prompted Brundage's action.

Mrs. Jarrett, dropped for drinking on shipboard, expects to leave here soon to accept a film offer. Her husband, Art Jarrett, plans to sue the Committee for its ruling against his wife.
