City Schools Closed This Morning - - Many At Exercises

"School Days" Over for Children of Public Schools for Summer—Those Pupils With Perfect Attendance

The schools of the city of Fredericton and vicinity closed with special exercises this morning, and a large number of parents and visitors were present at the schools as the exercises were carried out.

The programmes were attractively arranged and the young pupils taking part performed ably. There were operettas, songs and dances and remarks by the principals and special speakers. The musical part of the programme was interesting and demonstrated the fine training which the young people have undergone.
