

N. B. Hunting Season

$2.00—License to hunt two deer and game birds as above.

$1.00—License to hunt game birds, including partridge.

$1.00—To bona fide residents of the Grand Manan Island group. License to hunt one deer and game birds.

Although the moose season does not open until October 20th, moose licenses may be purchased before that date to permit hunting of deer, partridge or migratory birds. Attention is drawn to the fact that the partridge season extends from October first to thirty-first with the usual bag limit of six per day and twenty for the season.

Regulations governing the hunting of migratory waterfowl—geese, ducks, coots and rails—provide for shooting from September 15th to November 15th, which is shorter by a month and a half compared to former years. It is to be noted that brant are not allowed to be hunted this year. The season on hunting woodcock and Wilson or Jack—November 30th. These regulations governing migratory game birds are controlled by the National Parks Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, and although somewhat restrictive compared to former years, have been passed only after serious consideration between their officers and those of the United States with a view to conserving the supply of waterfowl which are protected by International Treaty between Great Britain and the U.S.A.

The non-resident Special Deer License at $10.00, which was introduced by Hon. Mr. Pirie last year and which proved so popular, has been continued. It is to be hoped that it will be the means of inducing non-resident sportsmen to visit the Province in increasing numbers, with a consequent benefit to the guides and outfitters who have enjoyed one of the best seasons in many years catering to visiting fishermen and hunters. This special license will permit the taking of two deer and two bear during the season, September 15th to November 30th.

The regular $25.00 non-resident deer license will still be available, permitting the taking of two deer, two bears, ducks and partridge in open season.

Those non-resident sportsmen who are interested in game birds may enjoy the various kinds of shooting by purchasing the non-resident game bird license at $25.00 which permits shooting as follows:

September 15th to November 15th—Geese, ducks, coots and rails.

October 1st to November 30th—Woodcock and Wilson or Jacksnipe.

October 1st to 31st—Birch and spruce partridge.

Jack isn't sure whether he'll fight again. But he's sure President Franklin D. Roosevelt will be returned to office at the approaching U. S. election.

It was three years ago that Jack last visited New Brunswick for fishing. Yes, he enjoyed New Brunswick and was looking forward to a week's relaxation and good fun with reel and rod.

In the midst of his discussion with the newspapermen Jack's eyes suddenly lit up. He caught sight of Little Bobby Russell, son of Jack Russell. "Well, well, how are you Bobby?" "Hello, Jack Sharkey," piped up Bobby. "Do you remember me?" "Sure I do," replied Jack.

The Daily Mail reporter wanted to know one more question. "Is Joe Louis in a class with the older fighters, . . . say Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Dempsey, Tunney. Your reporter evaded the personal question, remembering a few weeks back. "Not a bit of it," said Sharkey and rushed away to the car that will whisk him into the northern fishing streams of the province for a week to forget about Joe Louis and all the rest of it.

sportsmen and guides is called to certain changes in the Game Act passed at the last session of the Legislature which provide that:

1. Non-resident sportsmen whether hunting game birds or game animals, must be accompanied by a licensed guide;

2. A licensed guide may accompany only one non-resident when hunting; in other words each non-resident hunter must have a licensed guide.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Mary Lenora Bowlen, who for the past ten years has been organist of St. Anthony's Church, Devon, was last night tendered a surprise gathering when the congregation of that church assembled at the church hall and presented her with a sum of money in recognition of the fine work that she has done. The address of presentation was read by Edward Dinsmore, on behalf of the members of the church and the present was given by little Miss Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Howard in the presence of Rev. Father Donahoe and Rev. Father Gillis. After the presentation the meeting took the form of a social gathering with refreshments and musical programme following.

September meeting of Fredericton Women's Institute was held last night at the home of the president, Mrs. G. I. Nugent, who occupied the chair. There was a good attendance of members and meeting opened with O Canada and the repetition of Club Woman's Creed, followed by roll call.

A letter was read from Miss Elsie Zimmer, London, England, secretary of the Associated Country Women of the World, which met recently in Washington, suggesting that an International Day be held during the month of November by the Women's Institutes of New Brunswick. The members decided it would be a good thing and awaited further programme.

Mrs. D. J. Shea, delegate to the Loyalist District Convention at Otis, gave a splendid report of the meeting for which she was given a vote of thanks. A letter of appreciation was read from His Honor Lieutenant Governor MacLaren in answer to one sent by the Institute. Various matters in connection with the Institute's work at the Fredericton Exhibition were taken up and plans completed for same. Considerable other routine business was taken up and transacted, after which Mrs. A. E. Mathewson, who is the Fredericton link with the Institute at Frimley, Surrey, England, read a most interesting letter she had received and also read an excerpt from the Home and Country of England dealing with the visit of the Overseas delegates to the Associated Country Women of the World's convention at Washington and their visit to Stoney Creek, Ont., the home of Women's Institutes. They were much impressed with the beauty and hospitality of Canada as they saw it, the unguarded frontier between Canada and the United States, and the hospitality shown at Washington and other places. The letter was especially interesting as it dealt with many topics dear to Canadians.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Nugent, after which God Save The King was sung, with Mrs. W. B. Burden at the piano.

Man on the Street

In those days before psychology was a by-word the teacher felt that a pretty girl's proximity was greater penance to a bad boy than that of a plain one. Alas for the passing of the double seat.

(Higher Learning)

The colleges open much later. This is a mark of the superiority of these students. They are above the masses beyond the penalty of the double seat, a group apart. Nonetheless, many of them have leaden feet also and in the case of the university in this city, the struggle for knowledge is an uphill job at best even for those with quick and eager feet.
