St. Croix's victory over the Minto club in the first of the baseball semi-finals was in the nature of a tough break for the mining town center. They lost out in the tenth inning on Coffey's long double and a timely single by Talbot, both good hits, you understand, but just one of those things.

Daily Sport Anecdote
The fight in the park at Chantilly outside Paris between John L. Sullivan and the game Englishman, Charley Mitchell, was the last fight fought under the old Marquis of Queensbury rules which allowed wrestling, throws and tripping. Both combatants wore kid gloves instead of the padded boxing gloves in use today. From Sullivan's point of view it was a most unsatisfactory fight. He was unaccustomed to fighting on the slippery grass, and often fell in endeavoring to land one of his famous hammer punches. Mitchell was the better wrestler and often worked out of a tight corner by throwing his opponent. When the French police arrived and stopped the fight in the 31st round, Sullivan though strong as ever, was hot, short of wind and angered to the point of madness.

The French police most unwisely, threw them both into the same small cell. Sullivan with a glare of triumph, looked around the small quarters, and said, savagely, "Now, Charley, I've got you where I want you. I've a damn' good mind to knock your head off." The game Cockney quite undisturbed, said with an impish grin, "Don't be a blooming chump, John, there ain't no purse up."

Upon which Sullivan, with a great roar of laughter shook hands.

Diamond Dust
Minto's scoring started when Thompson reached first on an error by Kallenberg and advanced to third on Titus' two-bagger. Legere bunted and Kallenberg fell in trying to field the bunt near the third base line and while sprawled threw to the catcher trying to get Thompson out and catcher missed it, allowing Thompson and Titus to score.

In the third Arnold got on when he swung on the third strike and McLain juggled it. He stole second on another passed ball and finally scored when Nightingale hit a hard single past third. Moffat went after the ball but it was too hard to handle and he accidentally kicked it allowing Arnold to score Minto's third and last run.

In the fourth inning Nichols walked Moffat and Coffey hit safely and advanced Moffat to third. Talbot hit to Staples who threw wide of the plate allowing Moffat to score. Boles received base on balls and the bases were filled. Lowe bunted and he sacrificed Talbot home to score the third for St. Croix. The fourth St. Croix score was made when Coffey hit a two-bagger and Talbot singled advancing him to third. Doherty did not handle the hit very cleanly and Coffey raced home with the winning run.

Feature of the game was the fielding of Titus, Staples.

Nichols pulled out of the hole in the fourth by striking out Kallenberg. It was a grand game throughout and the fans certainly enjoyed every inning of it. There was a strong wind blowing across the diamond making playing almost impossible for the dust and time had to be called on two or three occasions. It was Talbot's single that won the game for the visitors and the unfortunate accident that Doherty had in trying to field the ball.

Cashman, Toronto, 14-83; D. B. Manley, Vancouver, 22-81; and P. C. Rummell, Philadelphia, 17-78. None of the women playing for the A.S.N. Cup had returned at noon.

Yesterday's tombstone competition was won by J. I. Brewster, Banff, who finished the course, with D. E. Lewis, Lethbridge, second; Harry Ough, Edmonton, third, and H. A. Frame, Seattle, fourth.

Survivors of the first round of the Prince of Wales consolation flight were, W. L. Sperry, Waterbury, Conn.; N. White, Calgary; D. Crosby, Banff; T. Mason, Edmonton; H. Graham, Calgary; J. English, Calgary; P. W. Cashman, Toronto, and J. Hill, Calgary.

OLYMPIC DANCERS
BACK IN TORONTO

TORONTO, Aug. 20—Bor's Volkoff's dance group of amateurs has arrived home from the Olympic games at Berlin where the group placed fifth in competition with amateurs and professionals.

Members of the group said they left Canada thinking the contest was for amateurs only and as a result Volkoff had no solo part in his ballets. It was discovered, however, the dance festival, originally under the jurisdiction of the Olympic's committee, and been transferred to another organization.

The Olympic committee found running the festival required special knowledge and handed it over to the German dance university, a professional affair.

Charlie Nichols and Paul Kallenberg in Hurling
Battle Show Class—Talbot's Single After Coffey's Two-Bagger Spells Victory for St. Croix—
The Daily Mail's Correspondent on the Scene.

(Special to The Daily Mail)
(By Staff Writer)
MINTO, Sunbury County, Aug. 19—Minto's first bid for a New Brunswick championship got an initial reverse here this afternoon, when the St. Croix club comprised of most of the veterans of the St. Stephen Kiwanis club of the past five years defeated them this afternoon 4 to 3 in the first game of the New Brunswick semi-finals.

A crowd of at least 1,500 people, mingling baseball-mad miners as well as fans from all over central New Brunswick watched a thrilling ten-inning battle which featured a pitching duel between Charlie Nichols, erstwhile Fredericton Pets' hurler, and Paul Kallenberg, who struck out seventeen men in his first pitching performance with Calais five years ago when he was a school boy pitcher.

Talbot's Clout Tells
Talbot, the burly first sacker of the Border town team when he picked out St. Croix club was the hero of the one of Nichols' fast ones and labelled it past third base, after Gordon Coffey had smote one along the right field foul line for two bases to open the tenth inning, scoring the winning run. Coffey also is a former Fredericton player, although he was almost impotent at the bat when he consorted on the Queen's Square diamond and "Chipper" Hatt, Judge Byron and Fraser Hazlett and the rest of the baseball fans here used to root for him. But this afternoon Gordon was the "fair-headed boy" for the Border town team.

Both Pitchers Good
Nichols allowed six hits and Kallenbach only four, but it was a see-saw battle between the two pitchers throughout the ten innings.

Minto scored two runs in the second inning, and one in the third and appeared to be on the way to a substantial victory, with "Chawlie" Nichols breezing his fast one right along the corners. Only "Squirrely" Ross seemed to be able to touch the elongated hurler and his smashes were mostly foul drives along the left field foul line. The fans got a great kick out of Ross's foul tips, "catcalling" and giving him the "razzberry" as the home fans will on such occasions.

Goat of Game
Minto actually lost its game in the fourth inning, when Harold Thompson, brother of Devon's stellar outfielder this season ("Snap" Thompson) dropped an easy fly at the opening of the inning. After that misplay, Everett Staples, formerly of Devon, threw wild to Kiley at the plate, and St. Croix threw its bunt-play offensive into the breach. Theo McLain, the St. Croix catcher, laid down a perfect hunt to score the tying run in this inning, and Nichols played the bunts badly, also walking a man to show his only real weakness of the game.

The game was one of the best games seen in Minto for many moons, combining all manner of spectacular fielding plays. There was only three errors, the St. Croix club having two of them.

"A squint at the Quints"

"WE'RE going up to take a squint at the quints", announced Mr. Picobac. "Ma and me. Ma needs a vacation and she hasn't been on a train since I don't know when. It will be like another honeymoon trip for her—up through Muskoka and all. The first time—if I remember right—we went to Niagara Falls."

"You certainly got a wonderful memory", admitted Mrs. Picobac. "How about tobacco?" asked one of the neighbors on the verandah. "Can you get Picobac tobacco away up there in that North Country?"

"Never fear", retorted Mr. Picobac. "I wouldn't go away if there was any doubt about my tobacco. The tobacco I smoke I can buy anywhere—in handy pocket tins or sealtight pouches. It's the best selling pipe tobacco in Canada today. And good reason why. Picobac's a ripe, mellow Canadian Burley—the pick of Canada's Burley Crop—and a mild... cool... sweet smoke."
