The Police Commission

AN EDITORIAL on the Police Commission appeared in a local paper last evening. The editorial, which bore the earmarks of having been inspired by some person desperately interested in having the Police Commission retained, went on to make a whole lot of statements, but contained no arguments whatever in favor of the continuing of the Police Commission. In regard to the matter of comparing this city with other sections of the Dominion where police commissions exist, this is all rot. In some of the larger cities of the United States and Canada there are Police Commissions. But the Commissions are so constituted as to be within the control of the various city councils and of the elected representatives of the people at the council board. In more than one city in Western Canada where Police Commissions have been appointed the experience has been such that they have after a time been abolished. In the city of Winnipeg it is only recently that the Tribune of that city came out strongly against the constitution of a Police Commission which included the police magistrate. It stated, and rightly so, that where the police magistrate was in daily contact with the police officials that there would naturally be a strong bond of sympathy between the police office and the magistrate. This was obviously not as it should be.

The argument that the Police Commission prevents causes of action against the city is absurd. It amounts to almost a public suggestion that the city is willing to deny justice to a rightful claimant for damages and that the Police Commission had been instituted as a bumper to defeat the ends of justice, in the case of those who may have a just claim against the city owing to inefficiency on the part of the police.

The opinion is expressed in the editorial that the administration of the police should continue under the Commission until something better is offered, and that that something better is not the city council. This cannot be taken as a compliment to the representatives of the people who sit at the present council board. IN OUR OPINION THE MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT CITY COUNCIL CAN COMPARE FAVORABLY IN JUDGMENT AND TACT WITH ANY MEMBER OR MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT POLICE COMMISSION, AND THE REFERENCE TO THEIR INABILITY TO HANDLE SEVEN MEMBERS OF A POLICE FORCE IS A MIGHTY POOR COMPLIMENT.

If it is a retrograde movement to have a change in our administration of justice so that the people will know what is going on in that department, the sooner we retrograde the better. AT THE PRESENT TIME WE HAVE A COMMISSION APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNMENT, HOLDING CLOSED DOOR MEETINGS TO WHICH NOT EVEN THE ALDERMEN, ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE, ARE ADMITTED. THEY CAN CONTRACT WHATEVER BILLS THEY LIKE, BUY THEIR POLICE UNIFORMS, AUTOMOBILES, AND OTHER POLICE EQUIPMENT FROM ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS, AND ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL HAVE TO DO IS TO O.K. THE BILLS AND PAY THEM. This is too much power to give to any body of men not elected by the people and having control of the third largest spending department of the public service.

At the present time not one of the aldermen is in a position to give an answer when asked about the powers of the Police Commission, or just how much control is in the hands of this mysterious body. If there is anything done by the Police Commission that could not be done in an open manner by the aldermen elected by and responsible to the people, no person has yet discovered it.

Some of the aldermen elected by the people are afraid to move because they might be breaking the rules of the mighty Police Commission. That's just about what it amounts to. The Mayor who is an ex officio member of the Police Commission was asked the duty of the Police Commission. He floundered around and then suggested that we "ask the Police Magistrate." Imagine citizens having the affairs of the city in the hands of a Police Magistrate who is not even appointed by the city but that the city has to pay. If there is any one official in Fredericton that is more arbitrary than another it is the Police Magistrate. The conditions under which he is appointed makes him so. He is thrust upon the citizens by the Provincial Government and the citizens have to put up and shut up as far as paying his salary and other expenses goes.

Now that we have the Liquor Control Board to control the liquor traffic, we do not need any Police Commission to handle that traffic. That is what it was established for away back in the old days referred to by The Daily Gleaner.

The Commission should have no power at all. There should be no Commission. It appears that this high-hat Commission was established back in prohibition days, probably because it was thought that the Aldermen of those days needed watching or something. If the Commission was ever of any use, which we doubt, it seems to be absolutely useless at the present time. It should be abolished as soon as the Aldermen can get the necessary legislation through to have it abolished.

Roosevelt Declines Direct Reply To Rival; Pay-Roll Tax Held As Key to the Pivotal States

Hopes Critics Met Match and Will Meet Master in Next Administration

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—Governor Alfred M. Landon, Republican nominee for President, speaking Thursday night in Madison Square Garden, challenged President Roosevelt to reveal to the nation his intentions regarding certain major issues, such as revival of the N.R.A. and A.A.A., "tampering with the Supreme Court" and the Constitution to concentrate more power in the hands of the Chief Executive, and substitution of planned economy for free initiative.

In his address last night at Madison Square Garden, President Roosevelt said:

It is because I have sought to think in terms of the whole nation that I am confident that today, just as four years ago, the people want more than promises.

Our vision for the future contains more than promises.

This is our answer to those who, silent about their own plans, ask us to state our objectives.

President Roosevelt expressed the hope last night that in his second administration "the forces of selfishness" (Continued on Page Four)

Campaign Closes With Effect of Republican Security Act Attack Seen Deciding Factor.

BOSTON, Nov. 3—The Presidential campaign came to a climactic conclusion last night, leaving as the technical question of the hour whether the nation-wide Republican attack on the social security would split President Roosevelt's strength in the ranks of labor and help to carry the doubtful chain of big industrial states into the electoral column of Governor Alfred M. Landon.

As both candidates made their final appearance on the stump, President Roosevelt at Madison Square Garden in New York City and Governor Landon in St. Louis, the division was already drawn upon the more fundamental issues of a campaign which has evoked unprecedented registration of voters in what may be a turning point in American history.

But the sudden last-minute concentration of attention on the pay-roll taxes of the social security act was the new enigma in the political situation. It still gave concern to the New Deal command yesterday. A Republican spurt of the last fortnight (Continued on Page Four)

Kansan, Winding Up Campaign, Points the Route to Prosperity

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3—Governor Alfred M. Landon fired his final broadcast against the Roosevelt administration tonight here in his neighboring State of Missouri.

Accepting President Roosevelt's parable of the derailed train, he challenged the President's thesis that the New Deal was responsible for starting the train to running again. He said the Roosevelt administration put the train in the repair shop in the hands of "thumble-fingers" (people whose fingers are all thumbs) who were long on theory, but short on practical experience. It was the Supreme Court, he said, which took the (Continued on Page Four)
