Fidler Back On Air

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 2-Jimmy Fidler, one of the best known movie commentators on the air, will be heard in a new series of Hollywood Gossip programmes beginning over the NBC-Red Network on Tuesday, November 10, at 10,30 p.m., EST.

The weekly series, to be sponsored by Luden's Menthol Coughdrops, will include a number of new features as well as several new ideas in the presentation of screen gossip, news and previews.

The broadcasts will emanate from NBC studios in the film colony—the same colony that has been Fidler's "beat' 'for a number of years.

ON AIR TONIGHT

Dr. Healy Willan will be Charles Jennings' guest on his interesting 'Personalities" series of interviews, to be heard over the CBC Eastern and Midwest network on Tuesday, November 3, at 7.30 p.m., EST, from the Toronto studios.

Dr. Willan is an outstanding figure in the musical world today, and is internationally recognized as one of the most famous living composers. An Englishman by birth, he has lived in the Dominion many years and brought musical fame to Canada during a brilliant career as musician and composer. By leading critics, he has been cited as the outstanding composer of church music since Bach.

Dr. Willan is choirmaster and organist at St. Mary Magdalene's, Tor-

RADIO NOTES

REALISM PLUS

A five-year-old girl whose identity was not announced thrilled radio audiences with her singing during the dramatization of a heroic episode on Kate Smith's Bandwagon show, last Thursday. Listeners commented on the realism which the petite actress contributed to the role.
