"KID" HELPS OUT SANTA

DETROIT, Dec. 22—Norman Selby, the "Kid McCoy" of yesterday's prize ring, has lost none of his ability to sell newspapers, he said today, especially when the money goes to bring Santa Claus to poor children of Detroit.

One of 1,000 business and professional men who Thursday sold editions of Detroit newspapers to raise a Christmas fund, the "Kid" was happy.

"Why, I sold papers in Omaha, Denver, Cheyenne, Memphis, New Orleans, St. Paul and Kansas City," he said. "I had to. I ran away from home in Indianapolis when I was 13. I sold them 'til I was 18."

LAST SAILING LADY NELSON FROM HALIFAX

SAINT JOHN, Dec. 23—The cruise liner "Lady Hawkins" Canadian National Steamships, Captain H. O. Griffin, arrived at Saint John yesterday from Bermuda, the Leeward and Windward Islands, Barbados, Trinidad, and British Guiana via Boston. Passengers on board included H. M. Hills, Sussex, N. B. Cargo consists of sugar, molasses, bananas, citrus fruits, cocoa, coconuts, nutmegs, coffee and general.

The "Lady Hawkins" will sail from Halifax on Dec. 31 on a return cruise voyage via Boston to Bermuda, the British West Indies and British Guiana, with an extensive passenger list. New Years Day will be celebrated on board while the ship is en route from Halifax to Boston where she will arrive 9 a.m., Saturday, sailing again two hours later on her voyage south bound. This will be the last sailing from the port of Halifax of "Lady" Liners for the year.

The next sailing will be the "Lady Somers" from Halifax, Jan. 7, for Bermuda, the Bahamas and Jamaica, via Boston.

Second Successive De- feat Suffered by Fred- erickton Club Against the Saint John Team— Last Game Before Christmas.

There was no Santa Claus for the Frederickton Capitals last night.

Frederickton Capitals dropped a hard-fought battle to the Saint John Seagulls in a hectic at the Arctic Rink last night. The score was 2 to 1 in a game which, although fought tooth and nail, nevertheless had its moments of bad hockey, and proved time after time to the Capital fans that Santa Claus had forgotten them.

It was the second contest that the Capitals have dropped to the Saint John club by one score. Last week the Caps were beaten 7 to 6 on Saint John ice. A large pre-Christmas crowd witnessed the game.

The defeat for the Capitals puts them back into third place in the Southern N. B. Hockey League, and they are now tied up with St. Stephen, each with one victory and three losses. The two setbacks which the Caps received from the Seagulls during the past week shoved them back in the standing.

Both Saint John goals were scored when Frederickton players were in the penalty box. One came in the first period and one in the second. The strict refereeing of "Shorty" Clarke kept the game in hand and it was not as rough as the play in Saint John last Friday night when two players were injured and a free-for-all fist fight took place. The scoring punch the Capitals showed in their last game here against Moncton Maroons was midding and they missed easy chances to score in the opening session. The Caps return to Saint John for another joust with the 'Gulls on Christmas night.

The work of Bill Lifford was particularly outstanding. He was unable to score, missing several golden opportunities. Cliff Young turned in his usual fine performance in the nets for the Capitals and had little chance to save the two goals the 'Gulls steamed at him.

Significant of the running feeling the Seagulls went on the ice to the accompaniment of a loud "bronx cheer" which shook the rafters.

The Capitals had the edge on the play. Lifford missed two chances to score and "Bus" McLennahan another when Lynch throttled their plays.

Olsen was penalized for delaying the game with a broken stick and shortly after he was followed to the penalty box by Dr. Patterson for being the fourth man inside his own defence zone.

The Capitals bored in with control of the play but could not score as the rubber slipped by the net corner many times or was corralled by Lynch.

The sortie of Dr. Patterson and Olsen was stopped by Young just after Patterson returned to the ice. Thompson was penalized for hooking in breaking up the rush. Saint John continued their scoring surges and in a mix-up Olsen poked the rubber home on a pass from Don Patterson.

Chalmers was penalized for tripping Lifford, after the face-off, went in again on Lynch but was carried to the corner. With the coming of relief for both teams, Saint John began pressing hard as they opened up their style of play.

Right after the faceoff to one side of Young the 'Gulls scored their second goal which came unexpectedly. Paul Murphy, and "Swede" Olsen managed the play that let Don Patterson score with only three minutes left in the period.

Thompson and Kilburn combined to make trouble for Lynch just before the period ended but their attempts were blocked.

Chalmers Scores Goal

Keenan came back and the state of affairs was reversed the Seagulls going on the defensive to hold their two-goal lead against the repeated threats of Lifford. Saint John was content to let Frederickton carry the play and after several minutes a scramble around their net left Lifford with clear sailing for a pass to Bob Chalmers who outguessed Lynch for the first time during the evening.

Play livened up with the new hopes of the Capitals for an even break with the visitors, who were busy clearing the puck down the ice to relieve any chances of the score be-

YANKS DESERVE BEST RATING

CHICAGO, Dec. 22—Most fans agree New York Yankees deservedly rank as baseball's No. 1 team of 1936, but if they are any dissenters these statistics should bring them into the fold.

The official American League figures, released today show the Yanks broke seventeen and tied ten World Series records when they routed New York Giants in the subway classic. The Ruppert rifles, as a unit, either broke or tied thirty-one records through the entire season.

Here is just a little evidence of the manner in which their powerful bats toppled old marks: They scored the most runs in a series, 43; scored the most runs in a ninth inning, 7; drove in 18 runs in one game for a series record, and drove in 41 during the entire series; had a winning margin of 14 runs in one game and made the most singles, 49; and compiled a high batting average of .302 for a six-game series.

Lou Gehrig, the Yanks' "Iron Man" first-sacker, and Tony Lazzeri, veteran second baseman, played major roles in the Yank assault on the record book. Gehrig brought his consecutive game mark to 1,808. He made 400 or more total bases for a fifth time for a new major league mark.

Lazzeri, in one of his most spectacular seasons, broke three major league marks; tied another, set new American League records; smashed a world series record and tied two others. One of his most noteworthy accomplishments was hitting seven home runs in four consecutive games, two of them coming with bases load-

Biggest Sport Upset Credited to Schmeling

NEW YORK, Dec. 22—Joe Louis, who was the experts' best friend a year ago because he never let them down, was set down by those same fellows as being the party of the second part of the greatest sports upset of 1936.

Max Schmeling's knockout of the erstwhile ebony executioner was rated by a majority of United States sports writers as the most startling result of the year, far and away surpassing anything that happened on the country's gridirons. Thus, Schmeling received his second laurel wreath of the Associated Press' sixth annual poll. Yesterday he was acclaimed the year's comeback king.

Football, as usual, dominated the dope-spilling incidents. Duquesne's moleskin marauders were the leading upsets. The Dukes' 7-0 conquest of Pittsburgh Panthers was rated behind Minnesota's 6-0 defeat by Northwestern in what was the Gophers' first loss in four years, but Duquesne also received dubious recognition for its 2-0 defeat a week later by West Virginia Wesleyan.

But several other stars managed to edge into the record-breaking or tying picture. Bob Grove, Boston's great lefthanded pitcher, led the circuit for the seventh time in earned runs scored off his delivery. Bob Feller, young Cleveland Indians' pitcher, set a new American League mark with 17 strikeouts. During the campaign American Leaguers smashed 24 and tied 13 major league marks. They set 26 and tied 11 American League records.
